Petoskey Marks 100th Birthday July 11 - 13

 Tell Story Of Years 1852 - 1952 ***

Petoskey, while celebrating the 100th anniversary of the arrival of the first white settler, is still a young city in the long files of history.

In fact it is so young that one of its citizens (Mrs. Anna Crane) was born before the first permanent white settler landed here, and many can trace their life span back before the village was incorporated in 1879. Many more can remember when Petoskey was incorporated as a city in 1896 — in fact lots of these folks don't consider themselves old yet.

But 100 years ago in June, Andrew Porter and his family arrived from Pennsylvania aboard the "Eliza Caroline" to establish the first Presbyterian mission in these parts. This had been arranged by the Rev. Peter Dougherty, a missionary located at Old Mission who had requested the Presbyterian board to establish a school at Bear Creek, which eventually became Petoskey in honor of the Indian landowner Ignatius Pe-to-se-ga. Rev. Dougherty sent a vessel loaded with lumber and building materials for the Bear Creek mission, and this was piled on the shore waiting the arrival of Porter.

FRIENDLY INDIANS
Porter was greeted by a band of friendly Ottawa and Chippewa Indians. Head Man was Mwa-ke-we-nah (Daniel Wells) who died in the Civil War fighting on the Union side. The Porters lived with him until they could move into their home.

Porter selected a high piece of ground on Petoskey's West Side (above Porter-st. named in his honor and Spring-st. if you want to search for it today) for the mission site. There were no horses in the immediate vicinity to haul the lumber up from the waterfront but some 70 Indians from Little Traverse offered assistance and brought sleds and seven ponies to help drag the materials up the trail which had been cut through the wilderness.

Many Indians carried loads on their backs up this trail which was so rough it would have been impossible to use any sort of a wagon or carriage with wheels.

For the first two or three years the expense of the mission was paid entirely by the Presbyterian board. After the establishment of Indian schools by the government, the one at the mission was adopted by the agent as a government school and the usual salary was paid Andrew Porter as teacher.

STOOD 99 YEARS
This school was torn down in 1951 by Contractor Earnest W. Priebe who preserved the wood and made a replica of the original building which he placed in Pennsylvania Park on New Year's Day as the Centennial year was ushered in.

About 1871 the government funds set apart by the treaty of 1855 for the benefit of the Indians was exhausted and the Presbyterian board found itself without available funds and discontinued the mission. The property of the establishment was sold and in 1875 the Porter family moved back to Pennsylvania. He returned, however, in 1892 to make his home with his son Dr. Porter, died here and is buried in Greenwood Cemetery.

Andrew Porter served for a long time as justice of peace and judge of probate. He was very popular with the Indians. His mother died here in 1870 and Porter buried her in a grave he dug near his home.

HAZEN INGALLS
Hazen Ingalls, the first permanent white settler, came to Petoskey in 1865 and bought the little water mill built in 1862 by a nephew of Porter: His home was located near the banks of Bear River, and the little trading store was the first place of business on the south side of Little Traverse Bay.

The families of Porter and Ingalls were the only white people in Bear River in 1873, but with anticipation of the completion of the Grand Rapids and Indiana Railroad, people began pouring into town and civilization was just ahead for the isolated community.

Some of the hardy pioneer families who hacked a living out of the wilderness and developed a comfortable living for themselves and their families arrived about this time.

The first house actually built on the site where Petoskey now stands was the board shanty erected on the bluff by G. L. "Pa" Smith in the early summer of 1873.

DR. WILLIAM LITTLE
Dr. William Little, the first physician, came from Traverse City on the same boat bringing H. O. Rose's stock of goods. He built a frame shack which he dubbed "The Rose House" and this was the first hotel. It later became the famed Occidental. Dr. Little issued the first newspaper of the city "The Petoskey City Weekly Times", a small 4 x 6 inch paper which died with its first edition.

At midnight, Dec. 31, 1873, the first G.R. & I. train chugged into Petoskey and was greeted by wild shouting and cheers of residents and from this point starts the real history of the community.

HISTORY STARTS

The post office at Porter's mission was discontinued in 1874 and the mail carried across the river in a cigar box and turned over to Dr. Little who, besides his other duties, was commissioned postmaster of the newly established post office. Andrew Porter was the first postmaster and some of the mail was received in the winter by appointed Indian runners who brought it from Traverse City.

Trains were running with something like regularity in the spring of '74 and the first dock was built that summer by H. O. Rose. The Cushman House was also started in '74 by Dr. J. Cushman.

Petoskey's first lawyer, D. R. Joslin, Esq., arrived in 1875, a pioneer attorney of Alpena and Cheboygan.

FIRST NEWSPAPER

Rosalie Rose issued the first edition of the "Emmet County Democrat" and accurate records of the community began to be kept. In August he wrote that the village consisted of 118 houses, three hotels, 10 stores, six saloons, one bakery, a blacksmith shop, two physicians, two lawyers, two churches, three

It wasn't long after that the new school building was finished on Howard-st. and the first grade school was placed in the hands of Charles S. Hampton who later became editor of the Harbor Springs "Independent". Petoskey's growth during this period was rapid but not a "boom and bust" such as many surrounding communities built on the lumber industry.

On Nov. 30, 1878, a public meeting was held at McCarty's Hall to outline action to be taken to secure a charter and incorporate the village. Named to the original committee were John G. Hill, H. O. Rose, A. S. Lee, W. M. Everett and George Richmond, who had a map prepared to show the land to be included in the corporate limits.

C. J. PAILTHORP
C. J. Pailthorp, representative in the district, pushed the bill in the legislature and in 1879, secured passage and Petoskey a village. He lived to be over 100 years old.

There were three tickets in the field at the first village election held in April, 1879. Victorious were: H. O. Rose, president; L. C. Watson and C. B. Henika, trustees; Thomas Quinlan, treasurer; M. F. Quaintance, clerk; Abner S. Lee, assessor; Isaac L. Austin, street commissioner; and Joseph A. C. Rowan, constable.

WATER WORKS
On May 13, 1881, the citizens of this village, after having rejected the proposal two months previous, voted to bond the village for $15,000 for construction of the original waterworks. It was also during this year that the village schools were graded under the laws of the state. Thomas A. Clayton was the first principal under this system. The new postoffice was established on the corner of Lake and Howard streets; the laying of the first iron on the Harbor Springs railroad branch started and the organization of the hook and ladder fire company.

The Arlington Hotel formally opened in the year 1882. W. L. Curtis and James R. Wylie purchased Quinlan interest in Wachtel & Quinlan, Bankers, changing name to Curtis, Wachtel & Wylie.

The G. A. R. held their initial meeting in the Clifton House preparatory to organizing a local Post in 1883. The Emmet County Pioneer Association was started in the same year.

The first Bell telephone wires were set up in Emmet county February 22, 1884 along with the clearing of the ground for the tannery at Kegomic.

Local option, which had been adopted in Emmet county, was declared unconstitutional in this city fifty years ago.

In 1892 the Chicago and West Michigan railroad extended its lines to Petoskey after many difficulties and hardships laying the track along the west shore of Lake Michigan from Traverse City. The city aided the C. and W. R.R. in landscaping the grounds around the depot. This is today the Chesapeake and Ohio.

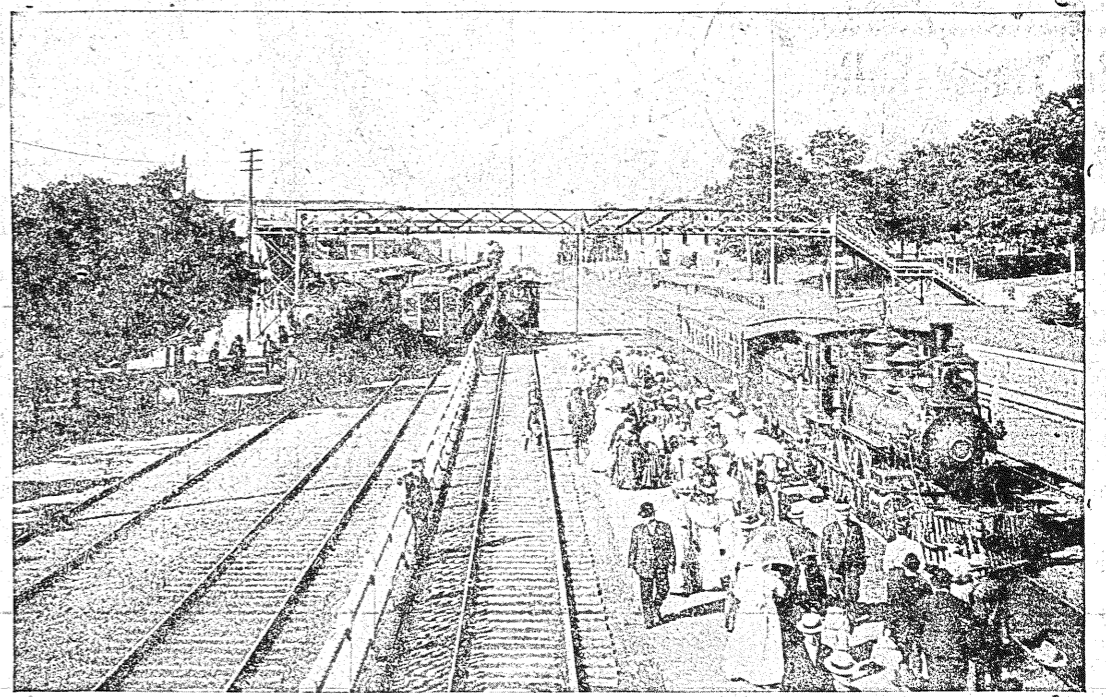

In the year 1895 a contract was let by the government for the construction of a breakwater at Petoskey. It was during this year that the fanciful "sea serpent" story originated.

In 1896 Petoskey was incorporated as a city.

MOVED COUNTY SEAT
The Emmet County seat was changed from Harbor Springs to Petoskey in the year 1902. Petoskey built a $40,000 court house and leased the building to the county for 50 years. Offices of the municipality and county were divided. Headquarters for the fire department were located in the basement of the building as it is today.

Since the turn of the century the City of Petoskey has evolved from a mecca of a few hay fever patients to a thriving summer and winter playground.

This city is one of the pioneers in the field of municipal administration. As early as 1916 the city manager form of city government was being used.

Pennsylvania dummies and overpass here

CITY MANAGERS
In 1924 the present city charter was adopted requiring the city manager to possess a civil engineer's degree. First man hired was P. T. Mitchell, who supervised the building of Mitchell Dam (named in his honor) and many other improvements. In 1945 Howard Kramer was in charge of building the diesel plant, replaced him. In 1950 Ernest Neumann was secured. He has directed the building of the new Petoskey dock, additions to the sewage plant, making of Magnus Beach. Pioneer Park, rebuilt the softball park, several playground areas, many improvements to Winter Sports Park and the biggest street paving program the city has ever witnessed. Elsewhere in this special edition there are other historic facts about Petoskey — a young city of 100 years which is looking forward with the next 100 with the same enthusiasm the pioneers displayed when they decided to make their homes here in the wilderness.

"For goodness sake . . . it speaks!"

The "new fangled telephone" came to Petoskey 68 years ago for the first 28 subscribers.

The next year a famous Petoskey citizen, Indian Chief Petosega, died at the age of 93. Early settlers called him "Petoskey" and so the town was named.

During his long lifetime, Chief Petosega saw many changes. Since then our comforts and luxuries have greatly increased and improved.

Petoskey became a magnet for thousands of visitors each year, summer and winter. Factories were built, producing such things as cement, maple blocks and die castings. Petoskey became the metropolis of the bay area, a community of homes.

Telephone service has kept pace with Petoskey's growth, proving its usefulness countless times.

From 2,000 telephones seven years ago, Petoskey has more than 3,500 today.

Petoskey people call Boyne City, Charlevoix, Harbor Springs and Walloon Lake without a toll charge. Petoskey is an important switching center for the busy long distance lines that tie together the Upper and Lower Peninsulas.

The telephone provides a livelihood for 100 employees in Petoskey, with a payroll of $332,000 a year. Nearly all of this is spent locally.

Michigan Bell is proud to serve Petoskey. And our people will take part in celebrating the centennial this week end.

Here's to Petoskey! May your second hundred years be as full of progress and prosperity as your first century!

Hotel Oregon
 Forest Grove, Oregon
 Northern Michigan Review,
 Petoskey, Mich.

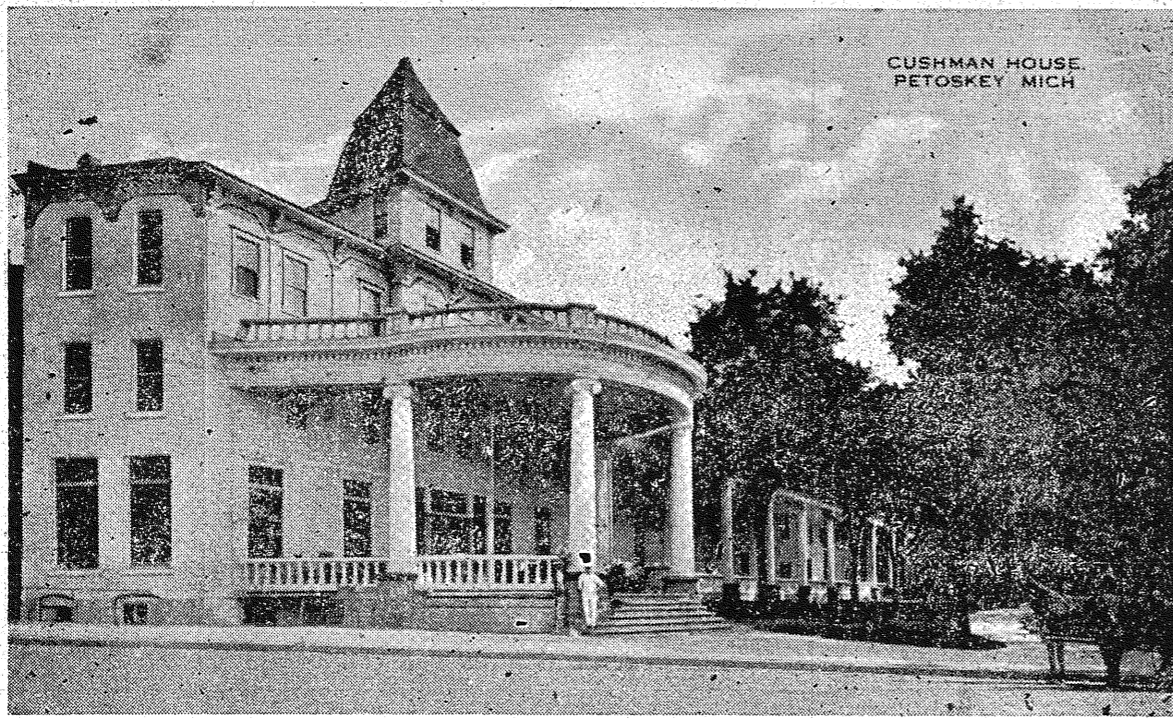

Dear Sirs:
 Some time ago a friend gave me a part of an issue of your paper in which was mentioned a centennial celebration of the founding of Petoskey. It interested me for early in April 1880, my mother with my two sisters and I and a market basket full of food, took off in the early morn from Grand Rapids on a GR & I train bound for the wilds of upper Mich. and a homestead.

That train was some train link and pin couplings, hand brakes, and big stacked wood burning locomotive. With frequent stops for wood and water we rolled northward through Reed City, Cadillac, Manistowish and finally to Elmira hill, the brakeman manned the brakes, the engineer had plenty of sand and we made it safely.

THE FIRST NIGHT
 Finally after darkness had settled over the country we came to a stop at a flag station called Clarion seven mile south of Petoskey. My father and J. E. Darrah met the train, they had latrines, we had been on the road at least 14 hours. We were fed and tucked in bed for our first night. There were no roads, a few trails where the trees were cut out so as to admit the passage of a team and wagon.

It was not long thereafter that the Haas Brothers John and Jim arrived with a sawmill and industry got underway. And for more than 20 years Clarion was an economic adjunct of Petoskey. Getting back to 1880, my father took us one day over a forest trail (called road) to Scribner's cabin, located on the narrows between the main lake and the north arm of Bear Lake where he secured a boat and took us to the foot of the lake. (Now Walloon Lake) There we found a long sandy beach, plenty of bear tracks, and dead fish along the shore. There were lots of fish and few fishermen in those days — a few settlers along the lake shore, but no road of any kind at the foot of the lake.

A short time later the State

Cushman House, last remodeling ad was built from Boyne City, a man named Smith installed a gutter bowl factory and the spot was on its way to become Walloon Lake.

SAW THE PIGEONS
 That year the last big Passenger Pigeon flight came over — or hours the birds darkened the sky and Petoskey soon became the Pigeon center of the world. For all the slaughter was tremendous, I never could believe they were all killed, but they never came again. And the beechnut crop went to waste.

Settlers came in rapidly and we soon had some roads. There were miles of corduroy and if you have never ridden over it in a lumber wagon you have no idea of what it is to be shook and shaken.

Yes, we had pests — "no see 'ems" gnats, deer flies, mosquitoes — in the summer time the house had to be "smoked out" to make sleep possible, and in the Springvale area some children were reported to have died from the effects of their bites.

OLD CAMP MEETINGS
 Time passed along and in the fall of 1888 my father rented out our place and we moved to Petoskey so my sisters and I could attend high school. I must back up a ways to tell you how we enjoyed "Bay View" and Big Sunday at Camp Meeting in the early days. I believe everyone that could make it, came, and everyone had a big lunch basket, probably they had some mighty eloquent preachers, but my memory is of the lunch basket — and the "Dummy" it ran on wooden rails, Petoskey to Bay View. Fare was 5c.

It was not long however until the GR & I built around the bay to Harbor Springs and north to Mackinaw City. In those days construction work was really something: a pick, a square nosed No. 2 shovel, and a strong back — not even a steam shovel, let alone modern grading equipment.

SCHOOL DAYS
 In those days Dr. Williams, Dr. Calkins, Dr. Owen and Doctor Farnsworth made up the medical fraternity.

But to get to High School, it was on top of Mitchell street hill, and the school bus hadn't found it as yet. In the winter it was painful getting up, but usually fast coming down — forbidden, yes. I think Charlie Pratt was town marshal but he was a good guy, I never heard of anyone going to the calaboose for coasting, though some had to have bones adjusted and a few landed in the cemetery.

LOCAL CHARACTERS
 I met several guys that I presume during the passing years became celebrities, but I lost touch with them a half century ago — there was for one Lou Hankey — he was a good guy, a swell fellow. His dad ran a grist mill. In early days there were two grist mills on the river, both used the old fashioned method — but finally Hankey put in the roller process, that a farmer had to trade his wheat for flour — and he was not happy for his wheat was the best wheat and naturally made the best flour, I think a man named Ingalls owned the other mill and it was not long until it burned!

Then there was Bill Seigmiller. He was a nice fellow, a good student, and expected to be a lawyer. I never heard if he made it. George Braun, his dad had a hotel, Clifton House I think, Bill Reid was a pitcher who made Petoskey famous.

Al Knecht, famous for keeping things cool, it took a lot of ice to fill the ice houses.

Chet Richmond ran the water works pump. It made a good place to loaf. His father was Water Commissioner. And then the Hull boys — Charles, Cash and Bert. I wonder.

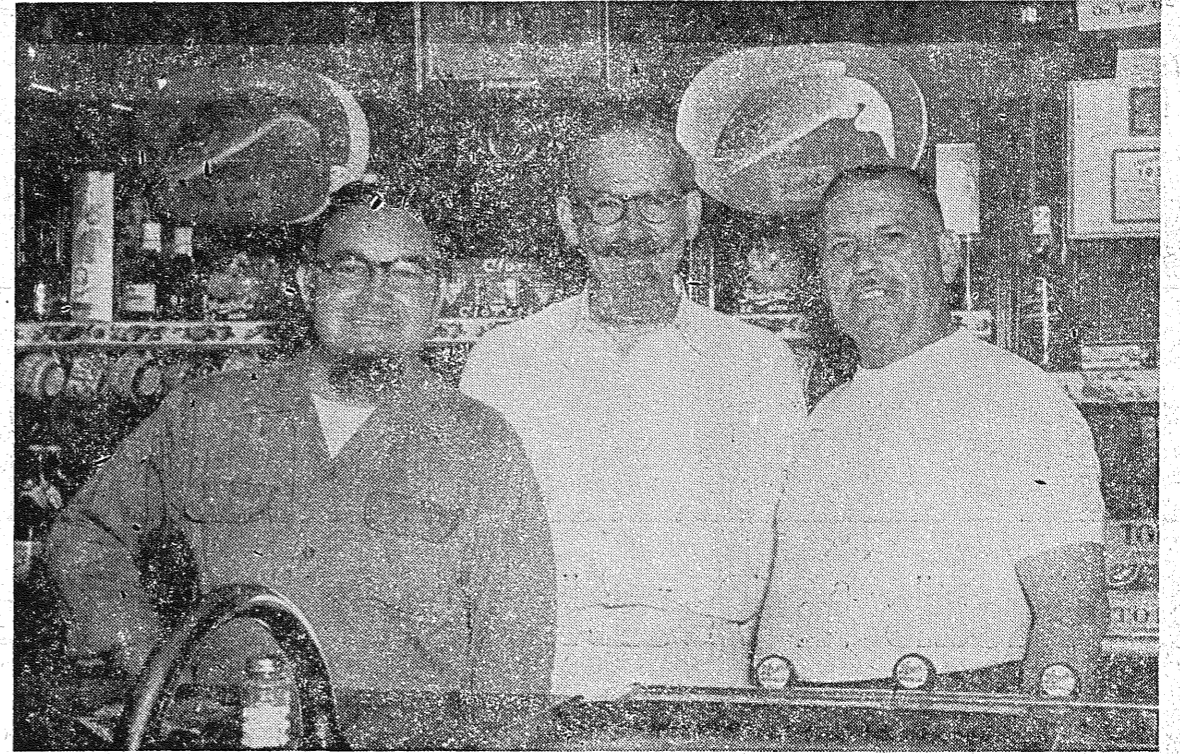

Two guys that made history around there were John Hawley and Tom Quinlan, and a notorious character was John Banke, a conductor on the GR & I.

I must not forget Capt. Bonticou and the Petoskey Record — and Charley Hampton and the Democrat. No radio, few telephones, how we did look forward to those weekly papers!

Very truly yours,
 L. H. Foote

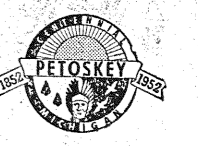

The official census of 1880 listed the population of Petoskey as 1,824.

Dr. Parmenter, Dr. Gray Here Over 50 Years

Dr. G. A. Parmenter and Dr. C. J. Gray, pioneer Petoskey dentists who are still alive, were listed in the Methodist Church directory as dentists in 1902.

Both are Rotarians and have been active Petoskey boosters all through the years and have a wide circle of friends all over the nation.

Dr. Gray is still serving Petoskey as city assessor and is a visitor at the Republican National Convention in Chicago this week. Dr. Parmenter headed the Rotary Club's drive to reduce billboards in and around Petoskey last year in efforts to beautify the city entrances.

Worst Disaster On the Bay

Perhaps the greatest single marine disaster on Little Traverse Bay took place May 22, 1887 when five persons drowned when the yacht "Coral" capsized during a squall.

Drowned were Levi W. Cole, Fred E. Cole, George T. Wise, Dana G. Stark and Marion Tropp who were with George Freeman, Henry Blout, Clarence Blood, Frank Henika and Walter Fell.

The party started out aboard the Coral and when near the head of the Bay were struck by a squall which capsized the boat. Thinking the boat would sink, all crowded into the little yawl and were heading for shore when the yawl swamped.

The five survivors were saved by the heroism of Capt. Andris Wilson and his little boy Leon, who went out in an open pound boat in the height of the storm to make the rescue.

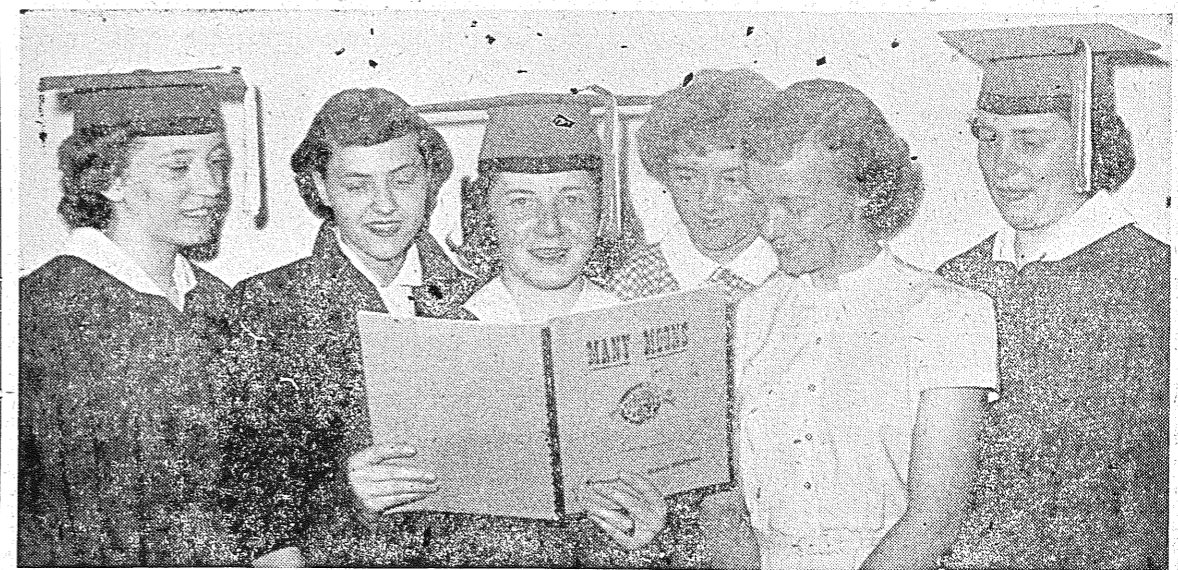

Elks Centennial Party is Friday

Petoskey Elks will stage a Centennial party for members and their ladies Friday, July 11 at 9 p.m. with the 15-piece Manistee Elks Clown Band providing the music.

Exalted Ruler Lawrence Moran has planned for dancing, a floor show and a free lunch to top off the evening. Admission is $2 per couple.

PETOSKEY "CHAMPS" of 1903, '04 and '05 played 90 home games each summer between Decoration Day and Labor Day against such teams as the Nebraska Indians, Chicago Colored Giants and other professional clubs. Then the Champs took to the road on a state barnstorming tour. All players on the team were paid a salary. Games were played at Recreation Park between Bay View and Petoskey and on Sundays at Round Lake. Only Petoskey home boy on the team was first baseman John G. Hofmann, fourth from left back row, who still resides here. The team was financed by merchants. In the photo, which belongs to Robert Woodruff, Sr., are back row left to right: "Peg Leg" Stevens, umpire; Jiggs Hanna, pitcher; Jing Carven, catcher; Hofmann; Pete Weirich, centerfield; Danny Clare, third; Booty Watts, pitcher; middle row: Si Alberts, pitcher; Cal Wenger, second; Bill Seegmiller, manager; George Braun, assistant manager; Bill Blake, right field; front row: "Will Bill" Curry left field and "Peanuts" Redlick, shortstop. In 1906 the team was transferred to Charlotte.

Bay View is 76 Years Old Now

Bay View celebrated its 75th anniversary during 1951. This summer colony, which boasts a college of liberal arts and a college of music, has been a permanent summer home to many families all through the years.

The railroad was extended from Petoskey to Bay View in 1876 and the first summer meeting was held there on August 1. Annual sessions have been held every year since that time.

Bay View comprises over 400 acres with 450 leased lots and almost as many homes. Electricity is purchased from Petoskey. The Bay View Association owns a library, John M. Hall Auditorium, Recreation Hall, dormitories for college students, a fine beach, dock and recreational facilities. Plans are underway this year to repair the Recreation Hall, which was damaged by storms and high water, and the Bay View Campus Club is going ahead with plans for a new club home.

First Election

The first election held after Emmet was separated from the Beavers took place in 1855 and C. R. Wright was elected clerk; Andrew J. Blackbird, register of deeds; J. G. Turner, probate judge; Thomas Smith, Sheriff. Votes cast: 40.

Ike's Ghost

Indians in the area back in 1894 said the ghost of "Indian Ike" was responsible for a bad landslide on the C. & W.M. railroad line about a mile west of Petoskey. It seems Ike was killed at the spot of the landslide a short time before and the same engineer was running the train at both mishaps. Indians claimed the ghost wanted to get the engineer.

Wagon Road in '77

In June, 1877, many bear were seen in the vicinity of Petoskey. A wagon road was being constructed between Bay View and Crooked Lake to connect with the ferries.

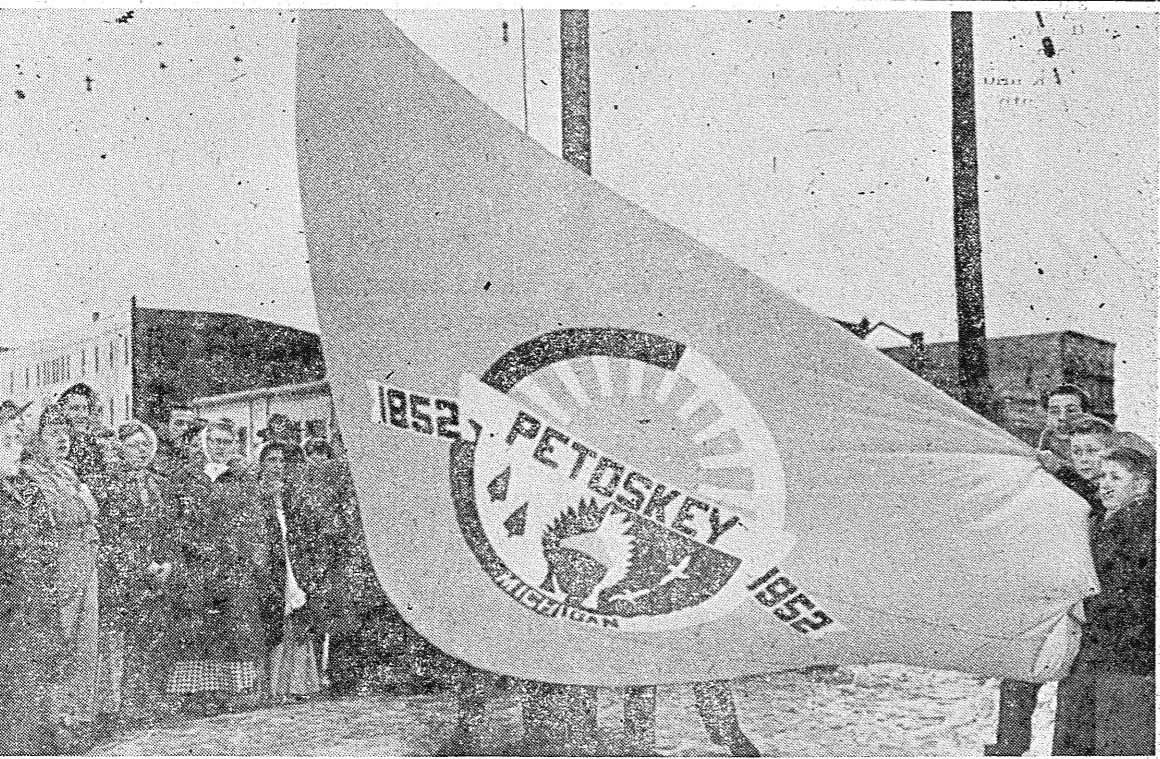

BUILD BAY VIEW DOCK

Bay View built its dock in 1884 on a $1,000 appropriation. On August 7 of that year, 8,000 persons used the railroad to go between Petoskey and Bay View.

The First Hundred Years

Of all the things which are good to share with our friends and neighbors, progress is perhaps the most satisfying because it is so mutual, so representative of the efforts of many. Such a thing is the growth and progress of PETOSKEY and its people.

Just one hundred years ago, the first settlers of PETOSKEY carved a settlement out of the forests of Michigan. Since then PETOSKEY has grown, has built its buildings, its schools, its churches, and its businesses. And in this growth, every citizen of PETOSKEY — past and present — has left something of himself.

This year you celebrate your first centennial. It is an event lifted from the commonplace because pride in the growth of your community is something that all of us share equally . . . something of which every one of us can be justly proud.

Surely, PETOSKEY can look forward to a second century of even greater progress.

Hundreds of dollars worth of aerial fireworks are now in safe keeping with the Petoskey fire Department until Friday, July 11 at 10:30 p.m. when Burt Thomas of Detroit will present one of the most spectacular fireworks displays seen in Petoskey in recent years. Thomas is a professional fireworks man and he feels that Petoskey has purchased one of his best displays. Exactly at 10:30 the first shell burst will color the sky over Little Traverse Bay and Thomas promises that for the next 20 minutes the sky will be full of beautiful formations. Arrangements have been made with the city to fire all shells from a sand-filled truck at the end of the new dock. This will keep the danger of injury to spectators at a minimum. Centennial officials have asked the cooperation of boat owners from both Petoskey and Harbor Springs not to cruise within the general area of the east end of Little Traverse Bay on a line from Petoskey to Harbor Springs during the exhibition.

Site of Old Petoskey Brewing Co.

For over a half century the name Zaiger has been synonymous with good beer in Northern Michigan. It was John G. Zaiger, father of Adolf Zaiger, who received his "Master of the Art of Brewing" certificate in 1897 and was general manager, brewmaster and secretary and treasurer of the Petoskey Brewing Co., manufacturers of Petoskey Sparkle Beer, starting here in 1900.

CENTENNIAL DAYS

100 Years Young!

Congratulations PETOSKEY...

For fifty years, The Michigan Maple Block Company has been engaged in the business of manufacturing various types of Cutting Blocks made of wood.

The Company's distribution is nationwide, supplying the Butchers, Hotel and Restaurant trades as well as the various cutters of cloth, paper, leather and rubber. The Armed Services are being supplied regularly either through direct orders or through sub contractors.

Sales Representatives are:

- C. J. Leighton, New York City
- J. H. Schoenheit, Chicago
- Walter Block, Los Angeles

Approximately 75% of the blocks manufactured are produced of Maple wood, the remaining 25% consisting of Beech wood.

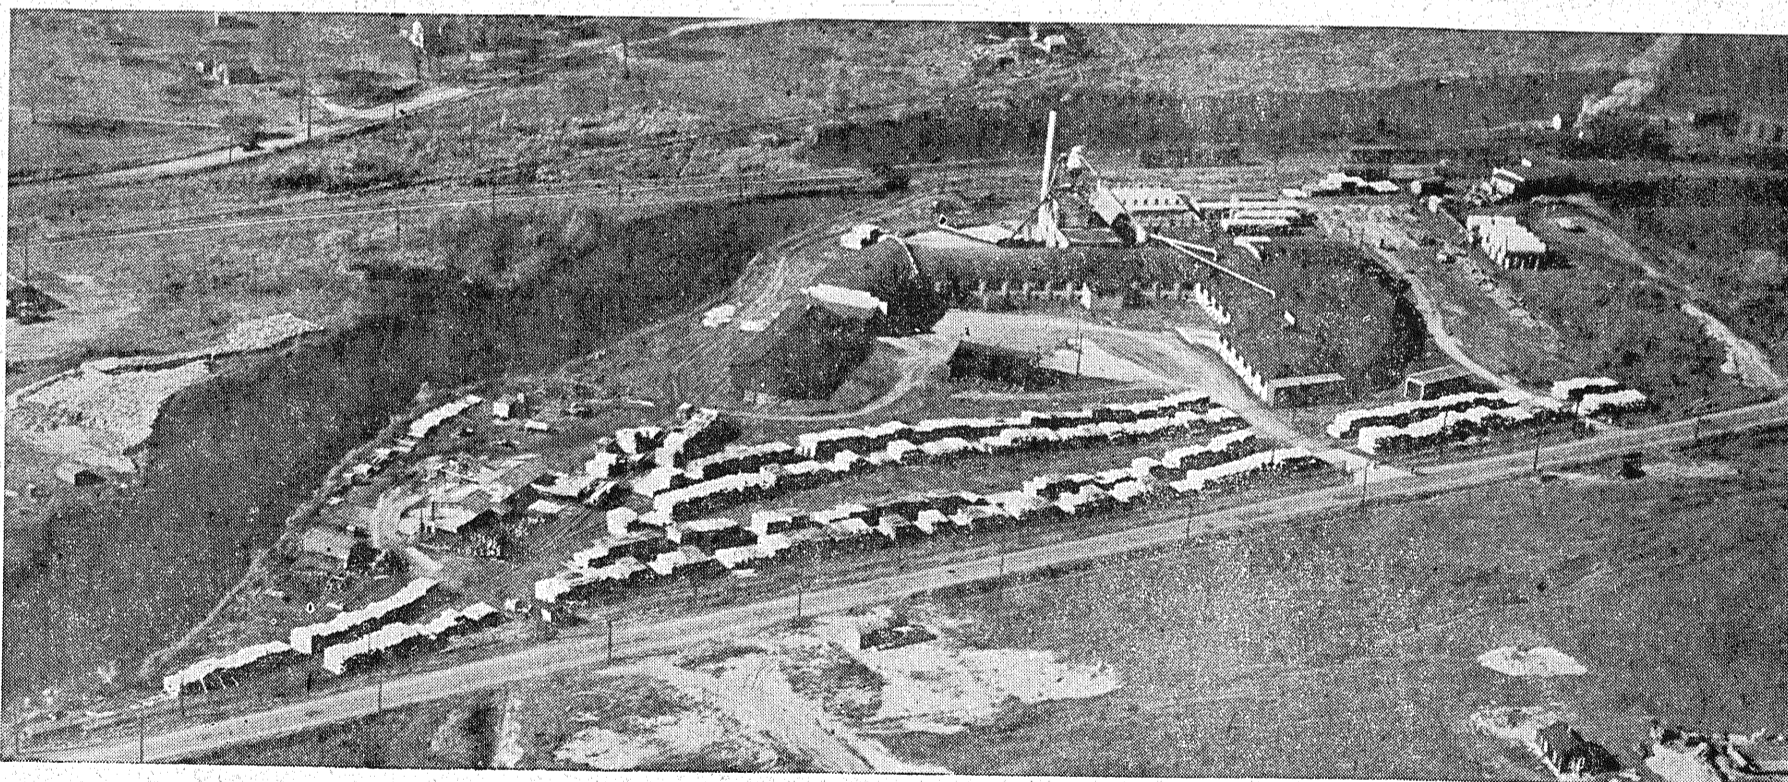

Blocks are manufactured from 2" thick lumber by a process consisting of dovetailing and laminating wherein glue is used to cement the lumber into an integral block.

The Company's blocks are identified as being WOOD-WELDED.

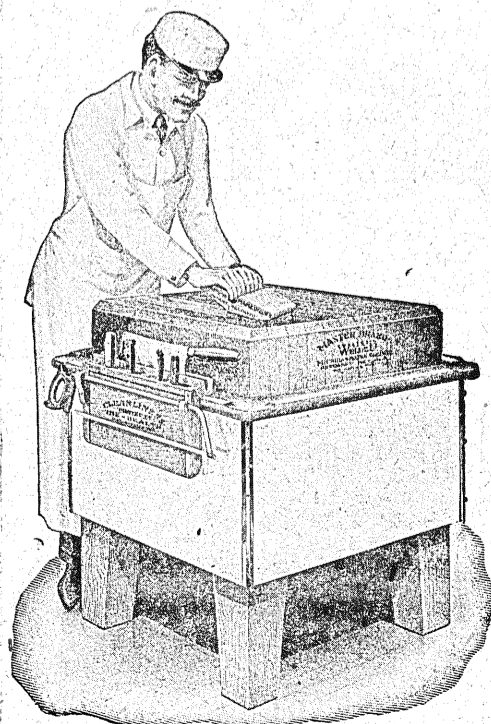

The Officers of the Company are:

- Fred J. Schmitt, President
- Gerald Burtch, Vice President
- Elmer A. Pfeiffer, Secretary
- P. H. Read, Treasurer

These Officers and Fred Searl and John Wynn are the Directors.

Michigan Maple Block Co.

One of the oldest and largest manufacturing plants of its kind is located at Petoskey—the Michigan Maple Block Corporation.

At the present time, and since before World War II, the plant has supplied meat blocks, heavy duty tables and tops for the military either on direct contract or sub-contract.

Back in the '80's, Barley Brothers founded a butter bowl plant on the present location. In a few years they took in Charles Broman and a Mr. Hull as partners and operated until 1898 when Broman and Hull purchased the stock and established the Petoskey Block and Manufacturing Co. The firm added machinery and buildings and by 1900 had a large plant operating.

FIRE IN 1913

In 1906 they hired Fred J. Schmitt, Sr., as a salesman and he covered the middlewest until 1909 when he returned to Petoskey and bought an interest in the company. He eventually acquired complete ownership.

A disastrous fire destroyed the mill on January 12, 1913, and from the ruins came the present modern plant. This was the only period in the history of the organization that operations were suspended.

COAST TO COAST

The Schmitt family is the largest manufacturers of meat blocks in the world. They have warehouses in 15 cities, coast to coast, offices in New York, Philadelphia, Chicago and Los Angeles in addition to the main office here.

Present officers include Fred J. Schmitt, Jr., president; Gerald Burch, vice-president; Percy Reed, treasurer and Elmer Pfeiffer, secretary. These men and Fred Searl and John Wynn constitute the board of directors.

Happy Birthday PETOSKEY...

WHICH PHS TEAM WAS THE GREATEST?

By Jim Doherty

What were the greatest athletic teams in Petoskey high school's history? You could get into a terrific argument with some of the old grads, so without stepping on anybody's toes, here's what the Review record books show: Petoskey was the recognized champion of northern Michigan in football during 1904, 1905, 1906, 1912, 1923, 1926, 1927, 1931, 1935 and 1951. In 1911 they claimed the title with an unbeaten team but had two ties. In 1923 Traverse beat Petoskey 17-6 but had to forfeit the game because of using an overage player and this gave the title to Petoskey.

BASKETBALL TITLES

Petoskey ruled as basketball champions during the seasons of 1915-16, 1918-19, 1919-20, 1922-23, 1923-24, 1924-25, 1925-26, 1926-27, 1934-35, 1935-36, 1940-41, 1950-51. Regional titles were won in 1923, 1925, 1926, 1927, 1935, 1936, 1941, 1951.

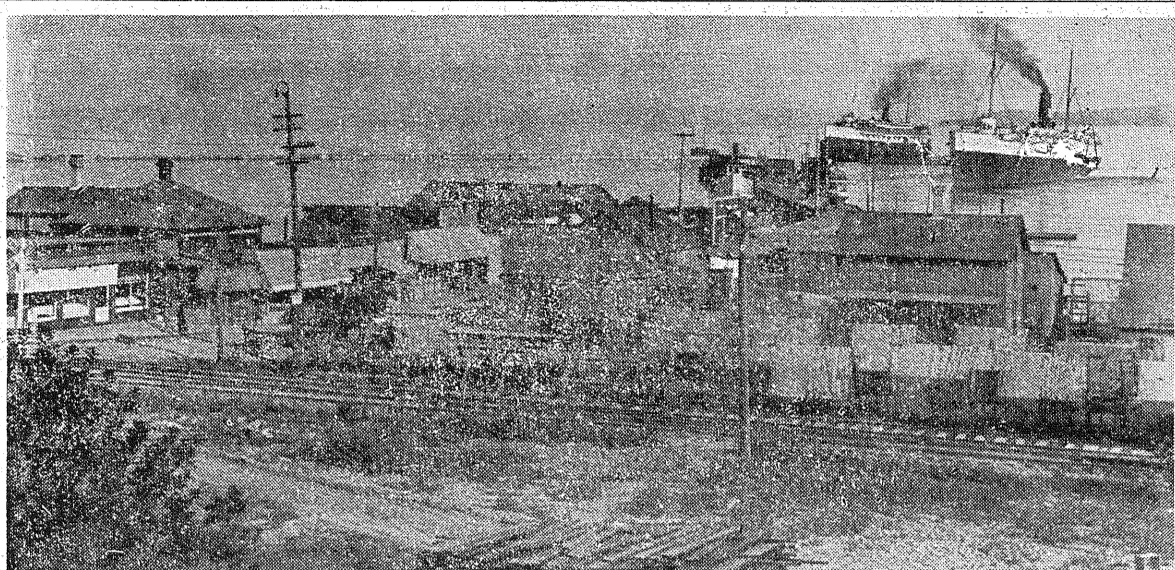

Between 1904 and 1907, no northern Michigan football team beat Petoskey. Another great era was started with the 1926 season and ended in a post-season game with Alma for the state title in 1927 after the Northmen had won 13 straight and never permitted an opponent to carry the ball across the PHS goal. Alma came from behind to beat Petoskey 32-20.

Coach Mike Corgan, ex-Notre Dame and Detroit L'on player who took over as head coach of football in 1946 when football was at one of the low ebbs of history here, has repeatedly developed teams which scored the records of the old timers.

The Northmen have lost only one game in the last two years. Last fall they rolled up a record-breaking 335 points to 26 for the opposition to be the highest scoring team in the state. Their 88-0 win over Rogers City, with 12 men scoring points, was the biggest single victory.

In 1950 Petoskey tallied 323 for a total of 658 in 18 games which beats the mark of 574 set in the so-called "Golden Age of Sports" at Petoskey—the years of 1926 and 1927 when Coach John-Hess had Dennis O'Donnell, Ray March, Irv Menzel and Don Wells as his "Four Horsemen."

How did the name Northmen come into being as Petoskey's nickname? Back in the '20s Bob Lovelace, then a student, won a contest at the school and they've been Northmen ever since.

MASTS OF A SCHOONER show in the background of this shot of the old midway of half a century ago and visitors were busy window shopping for momentos to send home. Note the dirt street. This photo is from the collection of Joe Kricher, R-2 Boyne City.

Dusting off the old record books for thrillers that many folks still remember, here are a couple:

1926 — Trailing 0-2 in the final quarter at Cadillac, Fred Holmberg placekicked a field goal that broke the Viking's backs and PHS went on to win 9-2 and keep an unbeaten season.

1925 — Buck Slack missed a field goal in the final quarter at Traverse City and PHS lost 15-17 and the championship to Traverse.

1938 — Glen Anys, Jr., ran 95 yards for a TD against Traverse City here but Traverse won anyway 14-12.

1935 — Petoskey trailed Traverse City 0-13 at halftime, came roaring back to win the Big 6 Title for Coach Arnie Wolgast 20-19.

1950 — Harry Compton ran a "busted play" into a TD in the last minutes to give PHS a 19-14 lead at Traverse City which the Northmen just managed to hold against a passing flurry as the clock ticked off.

1931 — Petoskey outplayed Cadillac all the way but lost 7-13 on a couple fluke breaks.

1904 — Petoskey won 10 football games.

1906 — Bob Zupkie, later famous at Illinois, coached Muskegon to a 20-0 win over Petoskey.

1908 — First northern Michigan team to beat Petoskey since 1933 was Charlevoix, 0-17.

1937 — Petoskey played under lights first time at Traverse City. Lost 51-6.

1939 — First night football game here. Petoskey 0, Gaylord 13.

1943 — First Petoskey win over Traverse City in football since 1935, 18-14.

1952 — First PHS win over Cadillac since 1943, 6-0.

1893 — First football game played in Petoskey between teams captained by Fred Newberry (now retired M.D. living here) and the late Rev. E. W. Jewell, Episcopal minister.

BASKETBALL THRILLS come often because of the nature of the sport. Many have been decided by last second flings at the hoop, so here are a few of the "key" memories:

1907 — First date of recorded basketball competition. Petoskey played Harbor Springs, Mackinaw City, Cheboygan and Grand Rapids teams.

1915 — First major season. PHS won 10 of 13.

1919 — First tournament. Petoskey beat Clarksville, then lost to Alpena 15-16 after beating them twice during the season.

1923 — First regional title for Petoskey; beat Onaway, Boyne City, Manistee and Pellston.

1924 — Lost regional to Cheboygan 16-17 after coach put in subs in last minutes and Brackett went wild.

1925 — Petoskey lost one of 14 games, won the regional but finally lost to Alma in the state semi-finals 15-18.

1926 — Petoskey won 19 in a row but needed three overtimes to subdue Cadillac 24-22 for the regional trophy. Ray March scored the winning bucket on his back.

1932 — Petoskey beat Traverse City 19-18 on the point system for the regional after losing to them twice during the season.

1935 — Petoskey copped the regional tourney by crushing Alpena, Cheboygan and Manistee, lost to Alma in the quarterfinals.

1936 — Petoskey won the regional, lost the state championship to Detroit St. Theresa in the finals 25-29.

1941 — Northmen regional champs again, lost to Mt. Pleasant 27-29 in quarterfinals.

1951 — Petoskey beat Traverse 48-47 for regional title, nosed out Marquette 48-46 in an overtime quarterfinal game, lost to state champion St. Joseph 55-61 at East Lansing.

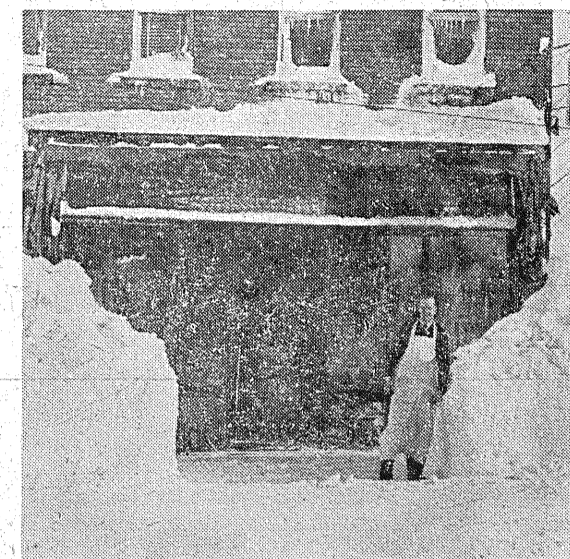

1952 — Probably the greatest comeback in the history of athletics at Petoskey. After losing at Traverse City 23-50, Petoskey crushed Traverse in the regional semi-final 49-28 and led 32-9 at the half. Ace Zographos, Coach.

This is a brief sketch of some of the great years. Limitations of space prevents more detail — maybe some of the dates will give you ideas of your own about other "thrillers".

← Samuel Rosenthal Started Store in 1879

MOSES ROSENTHAL attended school here and Notre Dame, married a Traverse City girl and had three children, all of whom graduated from Petoskey High School. The family left here in 1919. Mr. Rosenthal was president of the Emmet County Red Cross during World War I. He died in 1929.

ALICK ROSENTHAL became owner in 1929. Born 1867, he attended local schools and business school in Detroit. He married a Chicago girl and after several years in Charlevoix settled here and became associated with his father and brother in 1889, assisted in incorporating the business in 1900. From 1930 until his death in 1939 he was owner of the firm. He was an active Mason, served on Board of Lockwood Hospital and was for 30 years president of B'nai Israel congregation.

MRS. MINNIE ROSENTHAL, wife of Alick Rosenthal, became president in 1939 after serving as secretary and treasurer prior to her husband's death. Her sister, Mrs. Zilla Goldstein, served as vice-president. She was active in the Women's Club of Petoskey, president of the Federation of Women's Clubs, Lockwood Hospital Auxiliary and president for 30 years of the B'nai Israel Congregation Sisterhood.

Present Store . . . Same Location on Lake St.

MRS. IRENE GORDON succeeded to the presidency upon Mrs. Rosenthal's death in 1943. She spent her childhood in Petoskey, graduating from P.H.S. She married and resided away until 1939 when she returned and took over active management of the store. A daughter, Henriette Gordon Kaplan, is vice-president; the other daughter, Gloria Gordon Levine, is secretary and treasurer.

A Partner For More Than a Third of a Century Salutes Petoskey on its 100th Birthday...

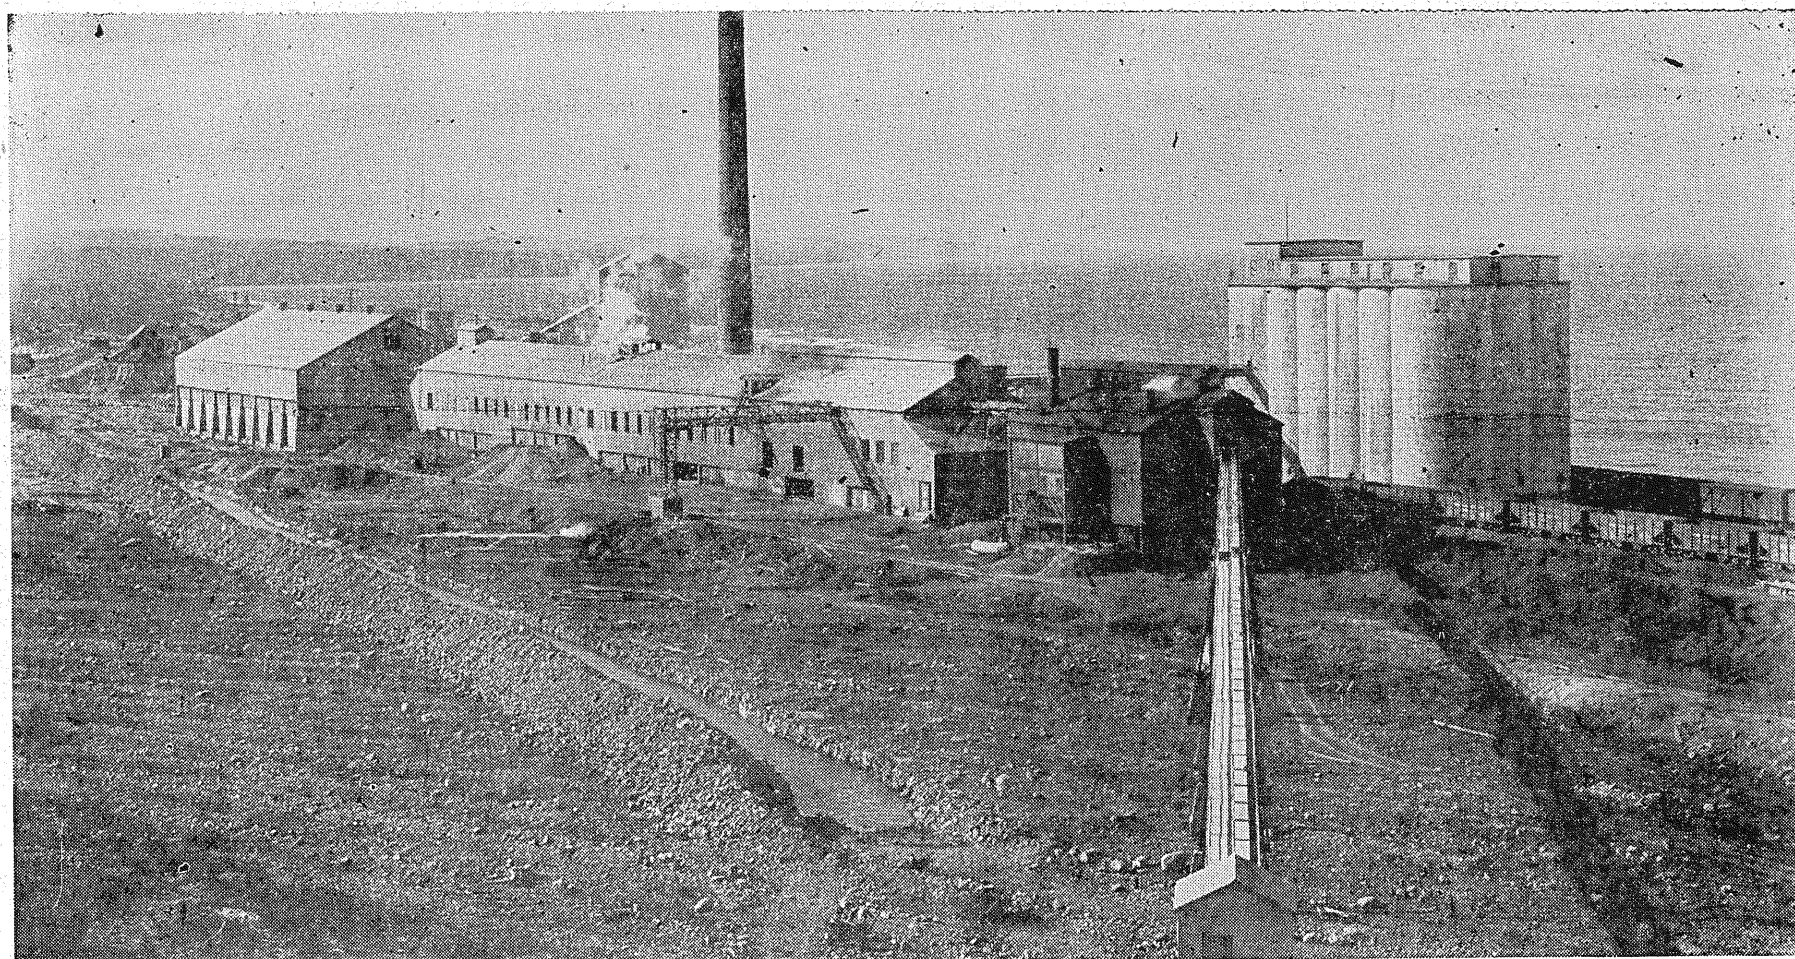

A member of Petoskey's industrial family, the Petoskey Portland Cement Co., founded 34 years ago, takes pleasure in extending birthday greetings to the City of Petoskey.

We are proud to be a part of this great community and to have contributed to its industrial progress and growth.

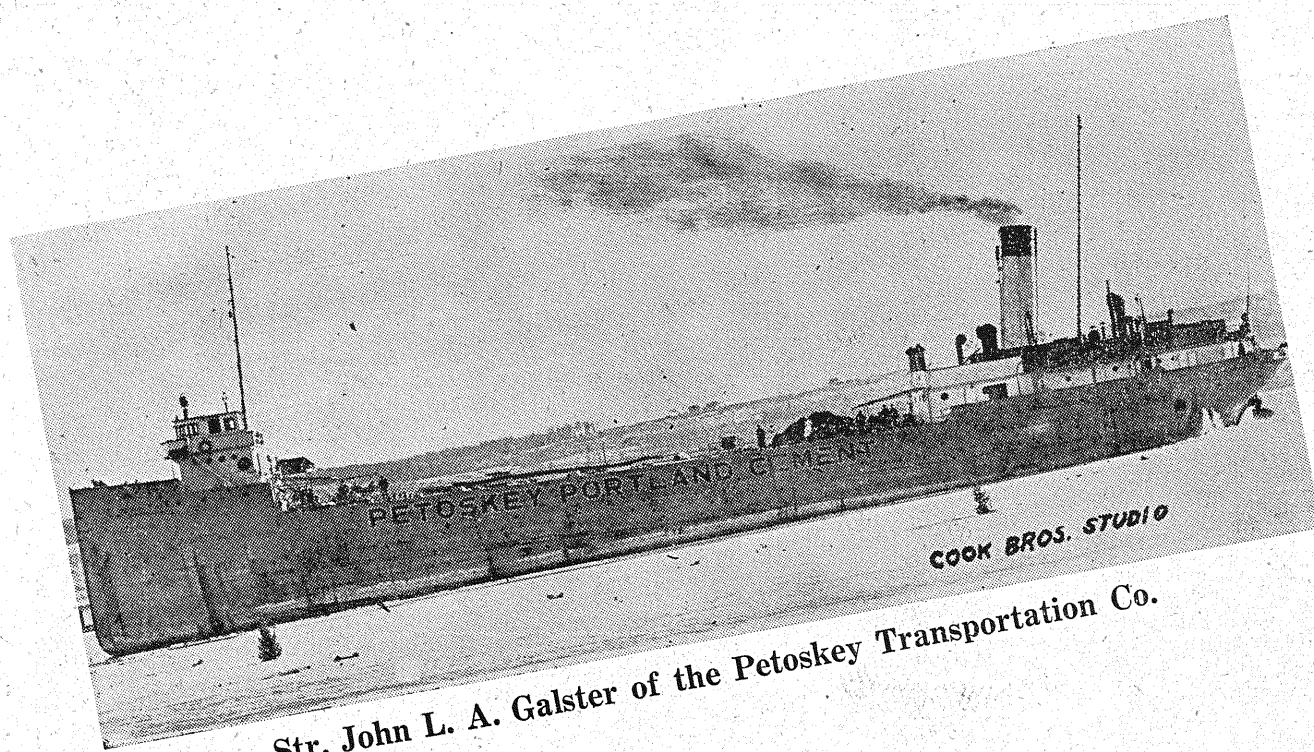

Since 1918, the story of the Petoskey Portland Cement Co. has been one of progress. To the original basic products we have added others so that today we manufacture Petoskey "Standard" Portland Cement, Petoskey "Air Entrained" Portland Cement, Petoskey "High Early Strength" Portland Cement, Petoskey "Waterproofed" Portland Cement and Petoskey "Mortar" Cement.

Petoskey Portland Cement Company's facilities and staff have grown, too. Personnel has increased from a modest beginning of 35 employees to approximately 375 now in the organization.

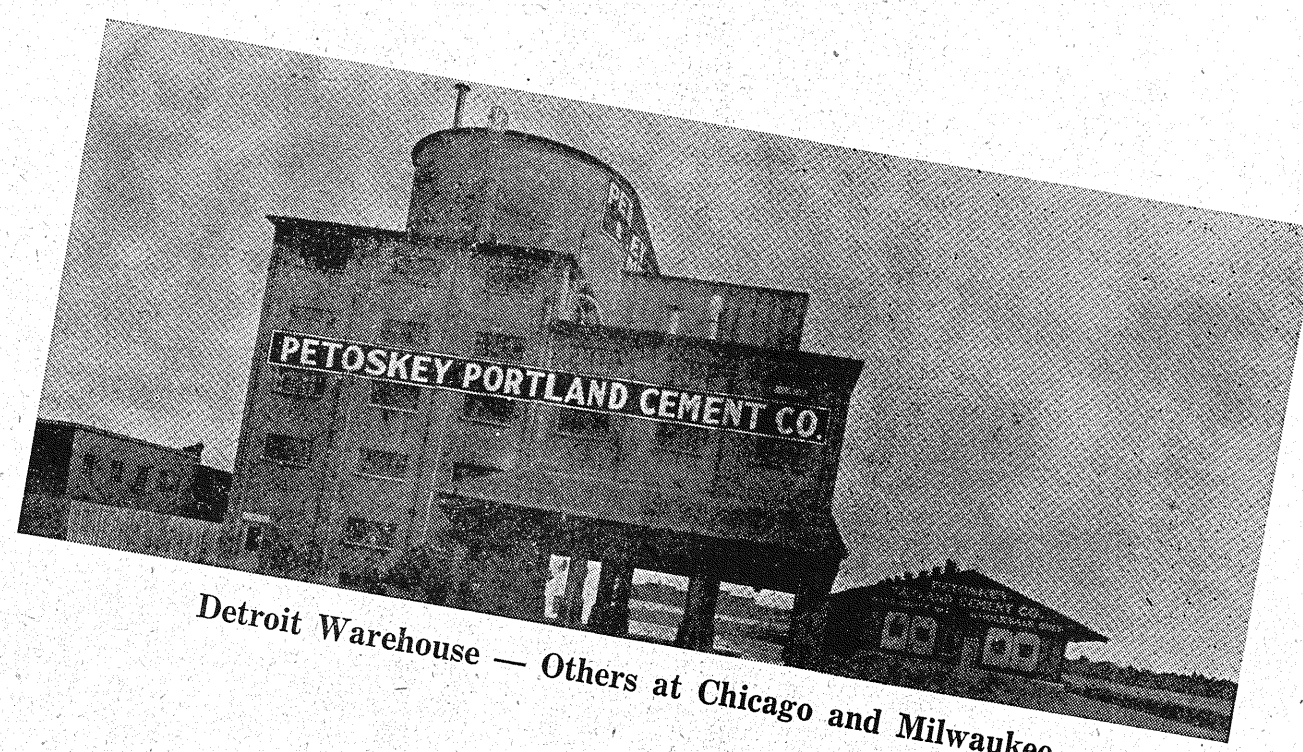

A large portion of the cement manufactured at the Petoskey Plant is transported in bulk via the Str. John L. A. Galster to warehouses located in Detroit, Chicago and Milwaukee for distribution.

H. O. Rose Was First President

Hiram O. Rose, first village president of Petoskey in 1879, contributed much to the history of the early village.

According to Allan W. McCune, of Petoskey, Rose was born in New York in 1830 and knocked around quite a little before coming here in 1856 to trade with the Indians. In 1862 he started buying real estate on both sides of Bear River. He bought 200 acres of land from Rose-st. through Bay View, including the lime kiln site in 1868.

The firm of Fox, Rose and Butters on Mitchell-st. was one of the early business places. It was located in a frame building erected by Amos Fox about 1873 next to where Gidley & Brudy's is today.

In 1874, the first big year for Petoskey as the Grand Rapids and Indiana Railroad was completed the year before, Rose built the first dock in Petoskey, sold wood and hemlock bark and started the Michigan Lime Kiln where the waterfront park is today. This same year, the first recorded plat of Petoskey was made by Fox and Rose.

GAVE TO BAY VIEW

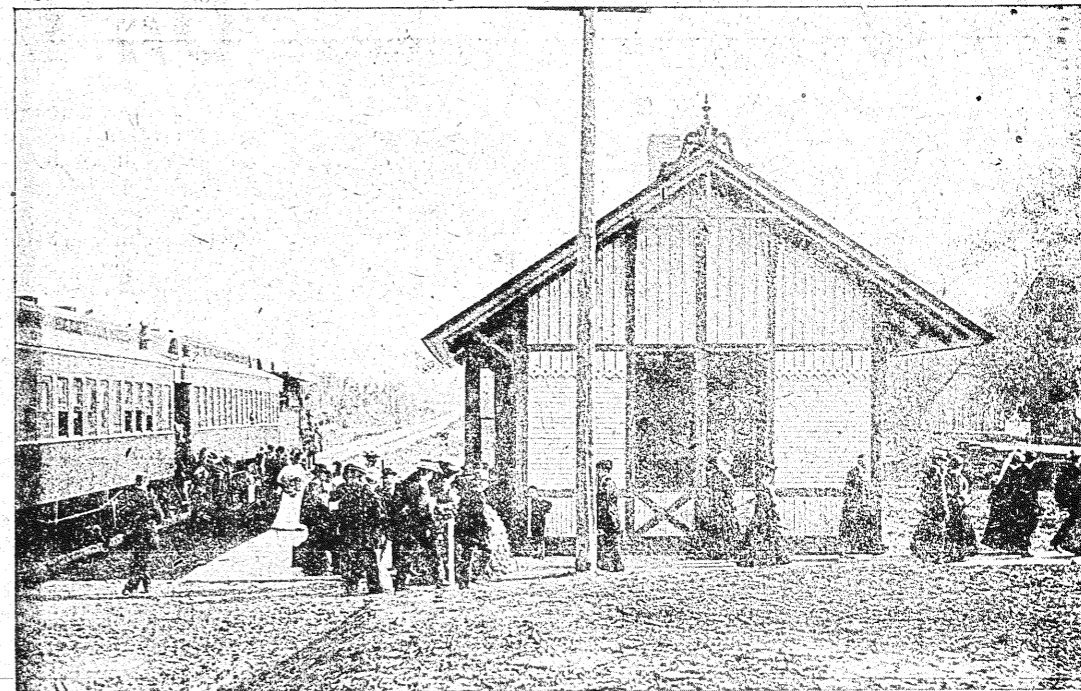

Bay View came into the picture in 1875 and Rose donated his land when the G.R. & I. and the Methodist Church got ideas for a permanent encampment.

McCune said that in 1876 wooden rails were laid between Petoskey and Bay View and three years later the wood rails were extended to Crooked Lake and passengers rode in open flat cars which were pulled by a "donkey" engine.

Rose and Fox had a friendly partnership which was dissolved in 1881 by mutual consent. No papers had even been drawn up between them.

BUILT ARLINGTON

That same year Rose worked hard toward getting the city's first waterworks and for $20,000 mains were laid in the streets. In 1882 he built the famed Arlington Hotel, a four-story, 115 room affair that cost $60,000 and burned in June, 1915. The G.R. & I. passenger trains used to stop at the Arlington, for breakfast, McCune said.

In 1884 Petoskey got its first long-distance telephone and the first call was made by Rose to Amos Fox in Charlevoix, speaking in the Indian language. In 1886, he built the first light plant.

W. W. Rice bought the Presbyterian church on Division-st. for the Episcopal Church and Rose paid to have it moved.

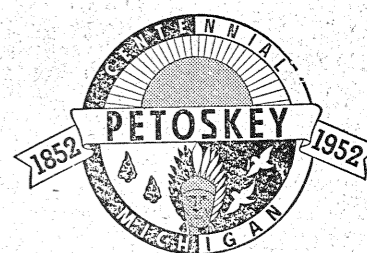

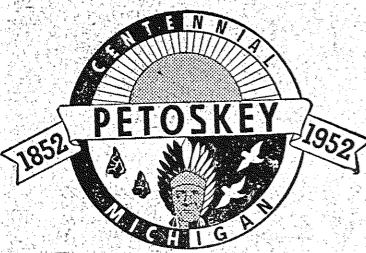

"Rose was a great man," McCune said, "a real pioneer who did much in the Northport and Charlevoix areas as well as here."

He platted Rosedale, Beaubien and Rose-st. He also built the first Masonic Temple and was a charter member of the Elks and Masons.

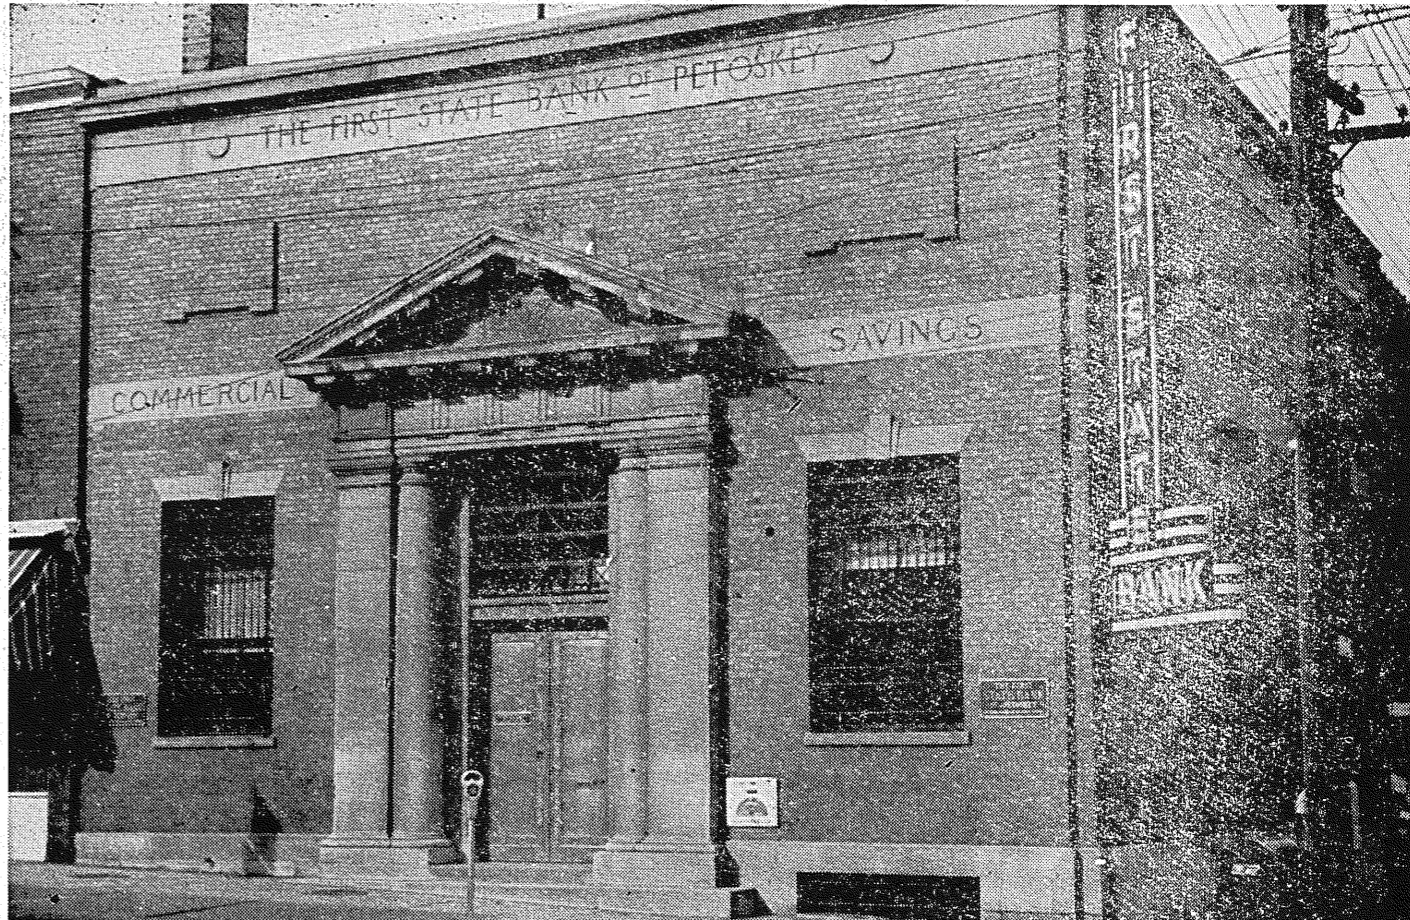

"He died January 7, 1911 and was buried in Greenwood Cemetery."

City Utilities Keep On Expanding

Here are some historic milestones in the history of utilities in the city of Petoskey:

1881 — Original water works, first Petoskey utility, built for $15,000 on waterfront at Bear River.

1898 — Purchased Edison-Petoskey Electric Co., a hydro electric. Steam power added later.

1905 — Added three miles of water mains. Charles Carter arrived to assist in the project and stayed, has supervised construction of every water main and most services laid since and has been construction foreman of most city projects.

1908 — Purchased 500 h.p. Steam Corliss from Chicago World's Fair.

1917 — Opened hydro plant at mouth of Bear River.

1925 — Tied in with Petoskey Portland Cement Co. for electric power.

1929 — Northern Michigan's first sewage treatment plant built at a cost of $73,000.

1931 — Cut in upper hydro on the former McManus property which voters favored 1,332 to 190 to buy for $125,000. Mitchell bridge completed at a cost of $250,000.

1933 — Dedicated Mitchell Dam, giving the city three hydro-electric plants.

1938 — Petoskey public utility building completed at a cost of $91,000.

1945 — Power tie-in with Petoskey Portland Cement Co. dropped and Michigan Public Service Co. became supplier.

1947 — Voters favored building diesel power plant 390 to 116 because of a series of "brown outs" when MPS was forced to limit power, which cut lawn sprinkling and banned lights on city streets and in store windows. Ground broken for plant Nov. 11.

1948 — $570,000 plant, with three 1,000 kw diesel generators, put into the line Oct. 28, 1948, terminating MPS electric contract.

1950 — City acquired Magnus State Park; re-built municipal dock with Petoskey Portland Cement Co. donating cement and citizens contributing $13,000 of $50,000-plus cost.

1952 — Enlarged and improved sewage plant at cost of well over $100,000.

The following table shows how kwh power consumption has increased since the first city operated electric plant went into operation:

1898	210,000
1918	1,000,030
1938	4,000,030
1948	8,000,000
1951	10,315,000

THE PETOSKEY SEA SERPENT

Perhaps the most legendary character of the region, second only maybe to Paul Bunyan, is the Petoskey Sea Serpent which has made appearances from time to time since 1895 when first seen by workmen building the old breakwater.

Petoskey Elks had a replica made and used it in parades and official functions until it was burned in Grand Rapids.

BACK IN 1948 it made its greatest sensation when the Review was busy chasing down reports and writing whoppers about its antics all over the region. A huge tooth was found at the Cement Plant where a giant bear trap was set for it.

GIANT FOOT prints were found on the Petoskey dock by Howard Earle, known today as "Long Hair" because of his hair-do and whiskers. A Detroit & Cleveland summer cruiser sent a radiogram and photos of passengers at the rail trying to get a glimpse of the famous monster as they passed Little Traverse Bay.

NATIVES PENNED other legends of its appearances. The Review organized a Sea Serpent Club, handed out membership cards and window stickers. Then the Sportsmen's Club chartered a ferry and launched a Sea Serpent hunt on Little Traverse Bay one moonlit evening and the next day a giant Sea Serpent was displayed in Pennsylvania Park.

As long as there is a Petoskey, there'll be stories about the Sea Serpent, and it probably can safely be said, it will keep on appearing.

Tells of City Back in 1875

In 1875 the editor of the Petoskey Democrat, a pioneer newspaper, ran the following editorial:
 With this issue the Democrat enters upon the 10th year of its existence. Nine years ago it was cast upon the sea of journalism, for nine years it has watched with pride the growth and development of Emmet county and the surrounding country . . . At the time of its birth the entire white population of the county could not exceed 150 souls within its borders. Of these about 125 were located here in this village, two families at Cross Village, one at Brutus, the balance at Little Traverse, now Harbor Springs . . . and nearly all of the houses standing upon pegs, devoid of paint or chimneys, with the light "shining through the cracks when the lamps were lighted in the evening."

NO SIDEWALKS
 Now we would be glad if we could picture to our readers the appearance of the village. Not a street graded, stumps and logs pushed aside far enough to admit a team passing along with care. Not a rod of sidewalk in the village; not a lot fenced a building west of the railroad except a half roof shed that stood near where the bank now stands. To the eastward one could throw a stone from the railroad almost to the furthest house or building. No regard was paid to streets by teams or foot passengers, for all went the nearest possible way to reach the desired point. The entire village was simply a few straggling, scattering of shanties that to be dignified by the name of village would almost be a libel upon the name.

Petoskey Fought To Get County Seat Here

(Editor's Note: The following article was written for the Independent Democrat's 20th anniversary edition May 14, 1895, by Will E. Hampton, a pioneer resident.)

Emmet county as at present constituted, embraces 12 townships, but when first organized under the present name there were but three, Bear Creek, Little Traverse and LaCroix, or Cross Village as it is now called.

The first attempt to organize this territory was in 1840, when the legislature laid off the county of Tonedagana, covering the territory known as Emmet and the county of Kishkonko, now Charlevoix. No further action was taken at that time, however, and in 1843 the names were changed to Emmet, in honor of the eloquent Irish patriot, and Charlevoix, to perpetuate the memory of the levout French Jesuit and explorer who traversed this section at an early date.

MORMON TROUBLE

Aside from changing the names, nothing was done toward an organization until 1874, when the township of Peaine on Beaver Island, was organized and three different attempts made to elect officers, but without success, doubtless owing to the Mormon troubles then existing on the island.

In 1851, however, the Mormons elected all the officers and had full control of affairs. In the winter of 1853 James J. Strang, the Mormon chief, was representative in the state legislature, and had an act passed uniting the counties of Emmet and Charlevoix, under the title of Emmet county.

The act set the place for canvassing the votes of the first election at St. James, Beaver Island. There were three townships, Peaine and Galilee which included all of what was lately Manitou county, and Charlevoix which embraced what is now Charlevoix county and the territory of Emmet as now constituted.

THROW OFF YOKE

The Mormons remained in full control of affairs and this was distasteful to the people on the mainland, in more ways than one, the dissatisfaction culminating in 1855 when under the leadership of Theodore Wendell, of Mackinac, and John S. Dixon of Charlevoix, now both dead, a bill was passed in the legislature which organized the county of Emmet, leaving out the islands where the Mormons held sway and the first election was held at Little Traverse in June 1855.

Under the provision of this act, the townships of Little Traverse, Bear Creek, LaCroix and Mackinac were organized, but there being no white inhabitants in the latter territory, no election was held, and the organization lapsed. With the original territory embraced in the township of Charlevoix, the new county now embraced four townships.

EMMET ORGANIZED

With the creation of the new county of Emmet, arose the question of the county seat, which has been a more or less disturbing factor ever since, and like Banquo's ghost, will not down.

It seems to be conceded that the legislature at the time of organizing the county, gave the board of supervisors the power to locate the county seat. It has been disputed that they did so, and it is a fact that no such resolution appears on the records. But a certificate of such action has been discovered which was made by Andrew Porter, then chairman of the board, and certified to by the county clerk, which sets forth that on the 29th day of April in 1857, the board by unanimous vote, established the county seat at Little Traverse.

COUNTY SEAT FIGHT

In 1858, however, the legislature by enactment, located the county seat at Mackinaw City, although the county business continued to be transacted at Little Traverse, where all the records remained. This act was, however, repealed in 1861, Attorney General Jacob M. Howard having pronounced it unconstitutional.

The county seat remained at Little Traverse up to 1867, when Charlevoix became a contestant for the honor, and the board by a two-thirds vote, submitted the question of removal to the people, the election resulting in a vote of 148 for removal and 99 against.

OFF TO CHARLEVOIX

It was discovered, however, that 85 of the votes for removal had been cast for "the removal of the county site," instead of county seat and the board resolved, "that in its opinion this was a mistake, and that the proceedings so far had been legal, there was a majority for removal, and that in such case, the county seat should be removed" but the vote as canvassed was simply for removal, no place being named.

RECORDS MISSING

These irregularities have been the cause of all the trouble since over the county seat. The board met on Oct. 15, but the claim is made on behalf of Harbor Springs that they failed to order the removal of the records, and that in fact the records never were removed from Little Traverse. On the other hand, it is asserted and not disputed, that the board of supervisors held sessions at Charlevoix, that tax sales were held there, that court met there, and that at least a goodly portion of the people recognized Charlevoix as the county seat.

During this time, there were so many exciting occurrences, Dinnis T. Downing, of Little Traverse, who was county clerk, being suspected of hiding the seal and some of the records which mysteriously disappeared, and a warrant for embezzlement was sworn out against him.

The first county seat fight was ended by the organization of Charlevoix as a separate county in 1869 and the hidden seal and records came out from retirement and were once more placed at Little Traverse, while Charlevoix remained the county seat of that portion of the territory.

PETOSKEY IN SCRAP

There is an unsettled dispute as to the legality of the proceedings here recorded, which has resulted in the introduction of a bill before the present legislature to submit the question of removal to Petoskey. At the present writing this bill lies on the table and the questions in dispute are still unsettled.

As is usually the case in new counties, the first official business was transacted in a quite informal manner. The first meeting of the board of supervisors of the county, which then embraced the Beavers and Charlevoix was held in 1855. Only one supervisor had been elected, Charlevoix being the only township that took any interest in "politics" at the spring election, and Galen B. Cole was consequently the only supervisor on the "board."

"ONE MAN" BOARD

This did not seem to trouble him as in the fall Mr. Cole proceeded to organize several new townships, moving, supporting and putting all necessary motions himself, the county clerk certifying to the correctness of the proceedings, which were doubtless legal enough, being passed by a "majority of the supervisors elected."

There is no record of the first meeting, so just what townships Mr. Cole organized remains in doubt, and the first recorded meeting was that held in 1857, the principal business then being to draw mileage and adjourn.

After the division of the territory and organization of Charlevoix county in 1869, the townships of Emmet county remained as that time, until 1876 when to the then organized townships of Bear Creek, Little Traverse and Cross Village, were added the townships of Friendship, Maple River, Bliss and Pleasant View, these townships being organized by the board of supervisors.

ADDS TOWNSHIPS

In 1877 the legislature created the townships of Readmond and Littlefield. Center was organized by the supervisors in 1878, and in 1879 the supervisors organized Carp Lake. Eggleston was added to the list in 1884, thus giving Emmet county 12 townships, and there has been no change since that time.

(Editor's note: todays townships — Bear Creek, Bliss, Carp Lake, Center, Cross Village, Friendship, Little Traverse, Littlefield, McKinley, Maple River, Pleasantview, Readmond, Resort, Springvale, Wawatam, West Traverse.)

The incorporating of Petoskey as a city by the present legislature adds three members to the board of supervisors, which now consists of 15, the city of Petoskey having three wards.

(Editor's note: membership today is 21 on the board and Petoskey has four wards.)

THIS IS A SAMPLE OF the virgin timber of northern Emmet county when lumberjack days were going full blast prior to World War I. Alfred Cowan, Sr., of Petoskey, worked for Findle & Jackson of Pellston and saved this photo.

Petoskey Cement — Famous Over Nation

Petoskey Portland Cement is known far and wide, and for over 30 years the Petoskey Portland Cement Co. has been one of northern Michigan's leading industries.

John L. A. Galster, president of the firm, is responsible for establishing the industry here in March 1921 after a three year program of interesting capital from all over the mid-west and erecting buildings. It is located just west of the city limits and covers 450 acres of limestone holdings.

The original plant was what is known in the trade as a "Two unit, wet process, straight line plant." It was operated entirely on "waste heat" and was practically the first of its kind in the world. The capacity of production was three million sacks per year. The reception of Petoskey Cement by the trade is reflected in the fact that in four years it was necessary to increase production. In June, 1925, two more units were added thereby doubling the out-put to six million sacks per year.

A part of the original plan was to manufacture Petoskey Cement in the North, where conditions were so ideal, and ship it in bulk by boat to storage plants in the principle Lake Cities, there to be packed and distributed. In 1929 this plan was put into operation. Large storage silos were completed in Detroit, Milwaukee and Chicago and the SS J. B. John remodeled for the handling of bulk cement. Devices of the last word were installed on the Steamer J. B. John and at the Plant at Petoskey and now cement is pumped into the boat in Little Traverse Bay and pumped out again into storage silos at the different cities.

The ship was converted to an oil burner, a new type propeller was added and the name changed to the SS John L. A. Galster in honor of the company's president in 1951.

Large stocks of cement are now always on hand in these cities for the convenience of the user, and the plants are specially equipped to load trucks.

After considerable planning and experimentation, additions were made to the plant for the production of Petoskey High Early Strength Portland Cement, Petoskey Waterproofed Portland Cement and Petoskey Mortar Cement. Production was started early in 1937.

OFFICERS OF THE Cement Co. include: John L. A. Galster, president; Homer Sly, vice-president; George W. John, vice-president and general manager; H. G. Galster, vice-president and treasurer; T. C. Curtis, vice-president; H. H. Lucas, vice-president, sales and traffic manager; E. O. Nyman, vice-president and secretary.

Publisher Writes About Early Days In Petoskey

By William F. Schaller
Nee-i-too-shing at sunrise
On the banks of the Manistee
Had born to him Pe-to-se-ga
The rising sun was he.

Northward the Chieftain traveled
To Little Traverse Bay
He saw its beauty and tarried—
Fit place for a chief to stay.

The young son grew to manhood
And a village was named for him.

That historic associations
Of the past might not grow dim.

One hundred and fifty-eight years ago, while Chief Nee-i-too-shing and several members of the Chippewa tribe were hunting and trapping near the mouth of the Manistee river (now known as the City of Manistee), there was born to the chief, in the early dawn, a son named Neyas Pe-to-se-ga (translated meaning The Rising Sun.) Early missionaries persuaded the "patron saint," after whom the hub and leading resort city of Northern Michigan was named — Petoskey, that Neyas was an abbreviation for Ignatius, and he accepted it.

Shortly after the early morning arrival of Ignatius Pe-to-sega in the rudely constructed wigwam near the Manistee river, Chief Nee-i-too-shing, with his family and followers, moved northward and took up their abode on Little Traverse Bay, near Harbor Springs. When twenty years old, Pe-to-se-ga took for his wife the daughter of a neighbor—Keway-ka-ba-wi-kwa. Through this union were born fourteen children.

Moved In 1830
In 1830 Ignatius Pe-to-se-ga, with his family, moved across Little Traverse Bay locating on the south shore where he at one time owned a large portion of the territory on which is now located the beautiful and historic City of Petoskey, named in his honor. Just why Pe-to-se-ga was changed to Petoskey is not definitely known, and many early residents maintain that this change is an unhappy corruption.

through Arlington Park in this city has been marked with a huge boulder fittingly inscribed.
The Daughters of the American Revolution of this city, were instrumental in the production and placing of this huge boulder.

THE FIRST CHURCH
The first church (Catholic) was built by the Indians in 1833. It was constructed on the shore of Little Traverse Bay and even today this early mission, though weather beaten, still stands a mute testimony of religious activities in the days of the red man. The church was blessed by Father Baraga in August 1833, dedicating it to St. Ignatius of Loyola.

THE FIRST BUSINESS
The first business firm, consisting of H. O. Rose and A.
Fox opened up a general store under the firm name of H. O.
Rose & Co. The first newspaper was published by Dr. William Little. This paper known as the Petoskey City Weekly Times, was about four by six inches in size. The first school building was erected in 1874 when there were barely more than a dozen white families in this vicinity.
The first physician to enter the Petoskey region was Dr. H. T.
Calkins, in 1884. The first bank was established in 1878 under the name of Quinlan, Wachtel
& Co. The First State Bank opened in 1891.

INCORPORATION
Through persistent efforts of
Hon. C. J. Pailthorp, the village
1874, the first train entered Petoskey, then a mere hamlet, and for several years this place was the terminus of the Grand Rapids & Indiana railroad. In 1882 the road was completed to Mackinaw City.

FIRST POSTOFFICE
The development of the first postoffice dates from January, 1874, when it was transferred from the mission farm, being known then as the Bear Creek postoffice. The office was shifted to a drug store operated by

Dr. Little, who was appointed postmaster. A cigar box was made the repository of the accumulated mail, much of which was in the form of birch bark.
Much of the mail was brought overland by Indian carriers and government stages. The salary of the postmaster at this early date was on a commission basis and during the first year amounted to only seventeen dollars. In 1877 a money order department was added to the postoffice.

We Like Life In Petoskey...

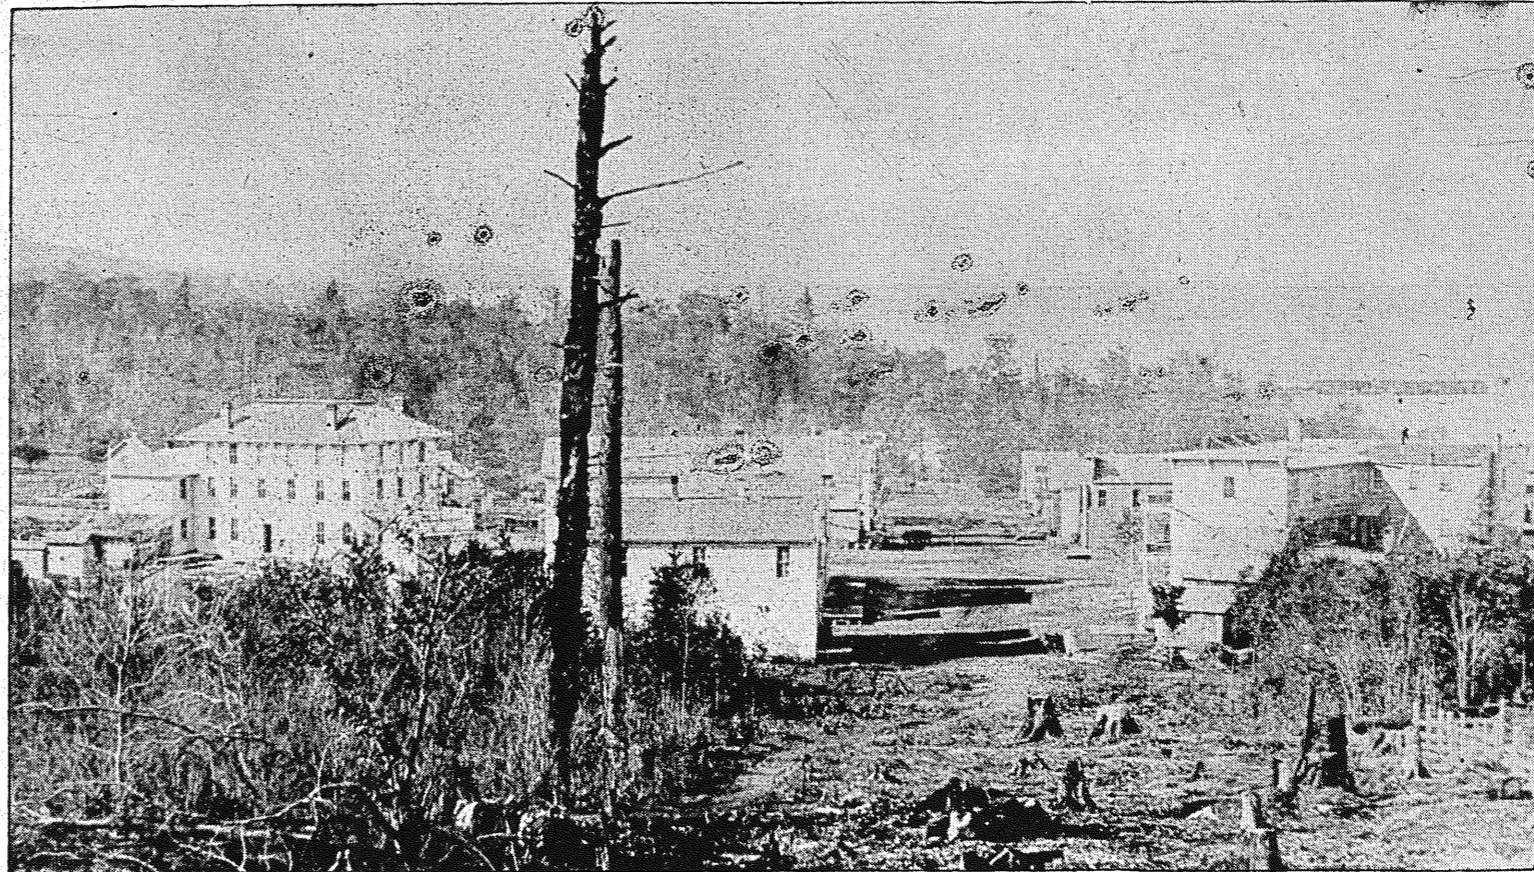

For the best part of its 93-year history, A & P has been a vital part of life in Petoskey.

Like all good citizens of this bustling community, we are proud to participate in the 100th anniversary honoring the City of Petoskey.

The progress of Petoskey residents in business, industry and agriculture has been steady and substantial in the past century. Our civic and cultural achievements likewise are noteworthy.

We, too, have grown with Petoskey since we opened our first store in 1876.

We believe this has been a natural growth, stemming solely from an ever widening consumer acceptance and faith in our basic policy of top quality foods at the lowest practical prices.

Little Traverse, Lockwood Hospitals Make Petoskey North Medical Center

Petoskey's two hospitals are a major industry — and provide the area with medical facilities second to none for a community of this size.

Lockwood General Hospital, which was built in 1901, admitted its first patient in July 1902 so this is its 50th anniversary year.

Administrator Mrs. Madeline Smith said that Lockwood General Hospital is one of 42 in Michigan participating in the W. K. Kellogg Foundation Diagnostic Service Program.

The hospital is a voluntary non-profit hospital, a member of the American Hospital Association dedicated to the Community. It is also approved by the American College of Surgeons.

Many thousands of dollars have been spent in recent years for a complete remodeling program and an out-patient clinic, laboratory facilities and other improvements.

J. B. Conti, M.D., is chief of staff.

IN 1908, DR. JOHN Reycraft opened a hospital in his home on Arlington-ave. In 1911, he secured the Moyer Hotel on Emmet-st. which was used as a hospital until 1921 when the Petoskey Hospital on Lake-st. was opened.

After a successful drive, supported by both summer people and residents of Petoskey, as well as those from Harbor Springs and the entire Little Traverse Bay region, sufficient funds were raised for construction of Little Traverse Hospital in 1938, and April 12, 1939, the first patient was admitted.

The original hospital building had a stated capacity of 63 beds, succeeding the former Petoskey Hospital. From the beginning, Little Traverse Hospital's facilities were in such demand that a 40-bed addition was added in 1942, funds for which were given by an anonymous donor.

IMPROVEMENTS TO both the building and equipment have been made annually, and include enlargement of the laundry and kitchen, new X-ray equipment, the nursery, the blood bank, and many up-to-date and scientific items of equipment so that today Little Traverse Hospital represents an investment of more than $800,000.

Last fall an addition providing space for the Hospital's radiologist, medical librarian's department and administrative office was completed.

Little Traverse Hall, which was opened in the Fall of 1939, was possible by a single anonymous gift of $50,000. This building is used as living quarters for many of the hospital's female personnel, for medical meetings, social activities of the hospital, and the Ladies Auxiliary.

A Solarium, located on the second floor, overlooking Little Traverse Bay has practically been completed. Construction is now underway of an addition which will provide 10 more much-needed beds. Funds for the new rooms were contributed as memorials. During the past fall and winter construction of a large warehouse was completed—funds likewise having been contributed for its construction.

Leonard Schomberg, administrator, stated, "since the opening of the hospital in 1939, 42,506 patients have been admitted, up to April 1, and 3,501 babies were born. Last year, Little Traverse Hospital admitted 4,567 patients. The Hospital offers employment to approximately 165 full-time workers, and has an annual payroll of about $325,000. This does not include the medical staff or personnel of the Burns Clinic, headed and founded by Dean C. Burns, M. D."

Little Traverse Hospital is also affiliated with the Michigan Program of Practical Nursing. Miss Loretta A. Gibbons, R. N., is the hospital's director of nursing. The hospitals of Petoskey represent a major industry of this city. Patients are attracted to this city from a large area due to the excellent hospital facilities and the doctors forming the staffs.

Much Of Petoskey's Future Was Shaped During The Period Of 1852 To 1895, Editor Reveals

(Editor's note: This historical article was taken from the May 14, 1895 Independent Democrat.)

Petoskey takes its name from Noyas Petosega, alias Ignatius Petoskey, commonly called Chief Petoskey, the original owner of the land upon which the city now stands. The site was known to navigators and traders as Bear River, the name of the rapid and rolicking stream that used to leap and tumble through a deep gorge shaded by lofty hemlocks and tangled cedars falling 70 feet in a distance of half a mile.

It was upon a thickly wooded hill not far from the west bank of this stream that the first white man's house was built in 1802. Andrew Porter, missionary in the employ of the Presbyterian board of missions, brought the lumber upon a little vesel and finally succeeded in getting the materials up the hill and through the unbroken forest, and put up the old mission house on the place now occupied by Alderman Jarman of the third ward.

THE PORTER MISSION
Here he conducted a mission until the government funds set apart for the purpose were exhausted in 1871. In 1875 Mr. Porter returned to his old home in Pennsylvania, but in 1892 he came back to Petoskey to make his home with his son, Dr. Porter, and end his days where his life work was accomplished.

A Catholic mission was established at Bear River soon after Mr. Porter's school was started, and little mission church still stands on the beach near the Chicago and West Michigan railroad dock.

HAZEN INGALLS
Hazen Ingalls, the first permanent white settler came in May 1865 to make Bear River his home. He bought the little water mill which was built by a nephew of Mr. Porter in 1862 upon the site now occupied by Birkett Bros. manufacturing enterprises, and purchased by H. O. Rose the same year and moved his family into a little house that stood on the river bank just where Charlevoix-ave. turns south.

His little trading store was the first place of business on the south side of Little Traverse Bay.

In 1873 the families of Mr. Porter and Mr. Ingalls were the only white families on this side of the Bay. In anticipation of the completion of the Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad, the advance guard of civilization began to arrive in the summer of that year.

FOX & ROSE, "PA" SMITH
In June Amos Fox and Hiram J. Rose constituting the firm of Fox & Rose, who had long done business at Northport and Charlevoix lightered a small stock of goods ashore at the mouth of the river and opened the first store in an Indian's log cabin. A little later the first building erected by a white man in the future metropolis of the north was put up by George L. Smith, known to pioneers as "Pa Smith." It was located near the foot of Toward-st. and was called the "Union Hotel," but was only a little board shanty, which was afterwards found rather too small for a wood house for an ordinary family.

In the fall of the year Fox & Rose began a store building. The rails were laid into town in October '73 and Nov. 1 Dr. Little and family arrived by rail. On Jan. 1, 1874 Dr. Little raised the frame of the "Rose House" which afterwards became the Occidental.

HISTORY BEGINS
And now the history of Petoskey begins. Soon after the hotel was completed, the post office at Bear Creek was discontinued and the mail carried across the river in a cigar box and turned over to Dr. Little who had just received his commission as the postmaster of the new post office "Petoskey."

John L. Shaw, the Grand Rapids capitalist and Archibald McMillan, a railroad contractor, had platted a town in '73 but it was not recorded. The original village plat was made by H. O. Rose in 1874, and McMillan's plat was recorded later as an addition. Trains began running regularly late in the spring, and in the early summer Fox & Rose built the first dock.

CUSHMAN ARRIVES
D. J. Cushman came up from Otsego and built the two-story structure which has grown into the spacious Cushman House. The first railroad agent who came in the spring of '74 did not fill the bill and a little later a wide-awake, freckled-faced ad was sent up in his place, and for a long time he did the entire business, freight, ticket and the telegraphing. He is still the G. R. & I. agent at Petoskey, but he has a large corps of assistants and there are now neither freckles nor flies on him now.

Among others who settled in Petoskey in 1874 were O. D. Tracy, H. G. Wait, Charles Carlevoix, Austin Bunnell, Lute J. Watson and James Buckley.

Petoskey is now an incorporated city of upwards of 4,000 inhabitants. All of the principal business and residence streets have been graded and boulevarded and good, broad walks, lined with shade trees and bordered by well-kept lawns, extends to the remotest outskirts.

FIRST WATER WORKS
The water works plant is the best of any city of its size in the Union. A large and convenient building contains all the offices and machinery with the superintendent's residence above. There is a complete and perfect steam plant, including pumps that throw a thousand gallons of water a minute, ready for emergency, and two sets of pumps driven by water power, with no extra expense except the grease for journals, used for ordinary purposes.

There are several miles of water mains and a reservoir which is kept constantly full on the highest point of land 270 feet above the bay. An artesian well furnishes clear, pure water, and another well can be connected in a moment if a conflagration should demand an increased supply.

A well equipped fire department has repeatedly proved its efficiency and with the tremendous pressure and inexhaustible water supply a sweeping fire is impossible.

START SEWERS
All of the business portion and several of the residence streets have sewers, and the sewer system has been planned as to cover the entire city as necessity requires it. The streets and parks are lighted with arc lights and the business places and many of the residences have incandescent electric lights.

The telephone exchange is large and well conducted and arrangements are now being made to connect the northern Michigan circuit with the long distance exchange at Grand Rapids. In the meantime, two telegraph companies afford more than usual facilities for communication.

The G. R. & I. between Mackinaw and Richmond, and the Chicago and West Michigan between Petoskey and Grand Rapids, each a part of a great trunk system, afford excellent facilities for transportation by rail, while the most magnificent steamers on the lakes afford daily communication both ways by water.

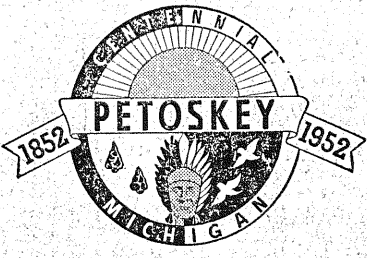

START BREAKWATER
Work is just begun on the new government breakwater, which will increase the commercial importance of the place.

The manufacturing interests have grown to important proportions on the river banks are lined with factories where whirling wheels are driven by the harnessed steam. The unbroken forests of 20 years ago have given place to fertile fields and well-tilled farms which contribute largely to Petoskey's progress.

Above all, Petoskey is a city of homes. No place of its size can be found, north, south, east or west where the people have such neat and attractive homes, or where more attention is paid to the moral and social duties. In schools, churches and societies of all kinds, literary, musical, benevolent and fraternal, Petoskey is far in advance of cities of her own class.

MONK-MONKEY
The best known American monkeys, the little capuchins, are so called because of the peak of hair upon the head, suggestive of the hood worn by the Capuchin monks.

FALSE RUMORS
Three common beliefs are that bats snarl themselves in women's hair, falling cats always land on their feet, and elephants are afraid of mice. All are untrue.

PENNEY'S SALUTES PETOSKEY

On its 100th Birthday

We are happy to have served the people of Petoskey and surrounding area for the greater part of Penney's history. The original J. C. Your spontaneous acceptance of Penney's merchandising theories and quality products made it necessary for continuous expansion to the model store you see today.

A Tale of Two Cities...

Your friends across the bay, the Citizens of Harbor Springs, join in wishing the City of Petoskey best wishes for a successful Centennial Celebration.

This year, which you have set aside to survey the development and progress made by your community during the past hundred years, marks, we feel, the end of a historical period, but also calls to our attention how closely your progress has been allied with the growth and prosperity of our own city.

Both Harbor Springs and Petoskey have a rugged, typically American heritage, of which we can both be proud. During the past century, there has developed a close cooperation between our communities, not only in commerce but in cultural matters as well.

May 1952 not only mark the beginning of a new era historically, but also the continuation of the friendly fellowship between our two cities.

Emmet's Part In The Civil War

Editor's Note: This article, written by the late Judge Charles J. Pailthorp, is the result of his painstaking research and personal experience covering many years. All statements made in the article were checked by the author, through records kept in the Adjutant General's office at Lansing and other sources.

EMMET COUNTY IN THE CIVIL WAR

From 1855 to 1875, which, of course, included the entire period of the Civil War, Emmet County was an Indian Reservation and its inhabitants consisted, almost exclusively, of that race. These Indians were divided into four bands residing in as many different localities in the county.

What was known as the Cross Village band resided at Cross Village; the Middle Village band at Middle Village (now Good Hart); the LaPore Croche band at Little Traverse (now the City of Harbor Springs); and the Bear River band at Bear River (now the City of Petoskey). Many of these adult Indians were educated and lived in comfortable log or frame residences.

All of the balance of the county, not occupied by these Indians, was an unbroken wilderness, the title to which was vested in the national government and held by it in trust for these Indians and other Indians who were parties to the treaty of 1855, to which these Indians and the government were parties. Until the completion of what was formerly known as the Grand Rapids and Indiana (now Pennsylvania) railroad the nearest railroad was at Grand Rapids.

Cut Off During Winter
All of the central portion of the state lying north of Big Rapids and south of the Straits of Mackinac was practically an unbroken wilderness. Thus, it will be seen, Emmet County, while accessible by water during the season of navigation, was practically inaccessible during the winter season. During the latter season of the year only an occasional mail reached Emmet County, and that was hauled by dogs attached to sleighs.

These were the conditions in Emmet County in July, 1863, when 23 Indians, residents of Emmet County, under the leadership of Lieutenant Garrett Graveraet, enlisted at Little Traverse (now Harbor Springs) in Company K of the first regiment of Michigan Sharpshooters. This company had the distinction, with the exception of its captain and first lieutenant, of being composed entirely of Indians.

Shortly after enlistment these 23 Indians accompanied by Henry Graveraet, the father of Garrett Graveraet, who at that time was holding the office of Judge of Probate of Emmet County, went by boat from Little Traverse to Detroit for the purpose of joining their company and regiment, which at that time was stationed at Dearborn, pending its organization.

Henry Graveraet Joins

Upon arriving at Dearborn, Henry Graveraet, who had not previously enlisted, enlisted in his son's company and became a member thereof. After the regiment had completed its organization, and after a short term of service in Ohio aiding in the capture of Raider Morgan and his associates, it was ordered to Chicago for the purpose of guarding confederate prisoners confined at Camp Douglas.

The following spring this regiment joined the Army of the Potomac, and from that time to the discharge of its survivors in July, 1865, it was constantly engaged in active service, participating in that time in 22 engagements, many of them of major importance.

In these engagements three of these Emmet County Indians were instantly killed in action, nine were wounded (four mortally), two died in Confederate prisons, and one while in the service was killed in a railroad accident. From what has been said it will be seen that these 24 Indians who entered the service of their country in its hour of need, 15 of them either lost their lives or were wounded in that service.

Description Of Battle

This record, I submit is ample proof not only of the loyalty of these men to their country, but of their bravery as well. However as further proof of their bravery, let me quote from a somewhat graphic description of the battle of Spottsylvania Court House, and the part these Emmet County Indians took in that battle.

"On the right stood the 27th—fighting—with unparalleled coolness and bravery; everything on the left of the sharpshooters had been swept away, and the attack on their front and flank, with both infantry and artillery, pouring in shot and shell, was terrific; but they gallantly held their ground.

"On the left of the sharpshooters were a company of civilized Indians, in command of the late and lamented Graveraet, an educated half-breed, as brave a band of warriors as ever struck a war path; they suffered dreadfully, but never faltered nor moved, sounding the war whoop with every volley, and their unerring aim quickly taught the rebels that they were upon very dangerous ground." End of quotation, Michigan in the Civil War, page 372.

Graveraet Took Charge

This battle, it will be recalled, took place May 12, 1864. Shortly prior to this battle, both the captain and first lieutenant of the company were discharged for physical disability, and as a result the command of the company fell upon the shoulders, and none could be more worthy, of Lieutenant Garrett Graveraet, and that command was retained until he fell mortally wounded in the severe fighting before Petersburg, July 10, 1864.

It was in the battle of Spottsylvania Court House that three of these Indians, including Henry Graveraet, were instantly killed, and found unknown soldier's graves upon the battlefield.

At the close of the war, and until her death, Mrs. Graveraet, the mother of Garrett Graveraet and the wife of Henry Graveraet continued to reside in Little Traverse (now Harbor Springs) and could be seen almost daily upon the streets of that village, as bowed down with grief she wended her way to and from the Catholic Church, of which she was a devout member.

Wright Was Descendant

It may be of interest to the reader who was honored with the acquaintance during his lifetime of the late and lamented John C. Wright, the author of Indian legends and poems, to know that Mrs. Graveraet was John's grandmother, and that Garratt Graveraet was his uncle, and Henry Graveraet his grandfather.

At the close of the war, and in 1865, the few survivors of this company of Indians were discharged, and those who were residents of Emmet county at the time of their enlistment, returned to their homes in the county. All of the survivors of these 24 loyal and brave residents of Emmet County have long since passed away, and are now quietly sleeping in some of the many cemeteries of the county.

In taking that departure they left behind them a record of loyalty to country, bravery and sacrifice in its defense well worthy of any race or people.

State Honors Service

The State of Michigan, in appreciation of the services rendered by the regiment of which these 24 Indians were members, has preserved in its records a history of that service, and it is from that record that the quotation, above referred to was taken.

NO HISTORICAL PHOTO or story collection of Petoskey lumber era. These photos were taken of Tindle & Jackson's or Emmet county would be complete without including the teams working at Pellston in the early 1900's.

In addition, and as a further evidence of that appreciation, the state has erected a monument upon its Capitol grounds at Lansing in memory of that regiment; upon the base of that monument appears the names of those officers of the regiment who lost their lives in the defense of their country, and among those names appears that of Lieutenant Garrett Graveraet of Emmet County.

55 years of continuous business in Petoskey serving the entire Northern Michigan and Resort Area.

From a humble beginning we have grown to become the finest and most popular shoe store in Northern Michigan.

Starting with the early residents of Petoskey, we are now fitting shoes to the great-grandchildren of those original patrons.

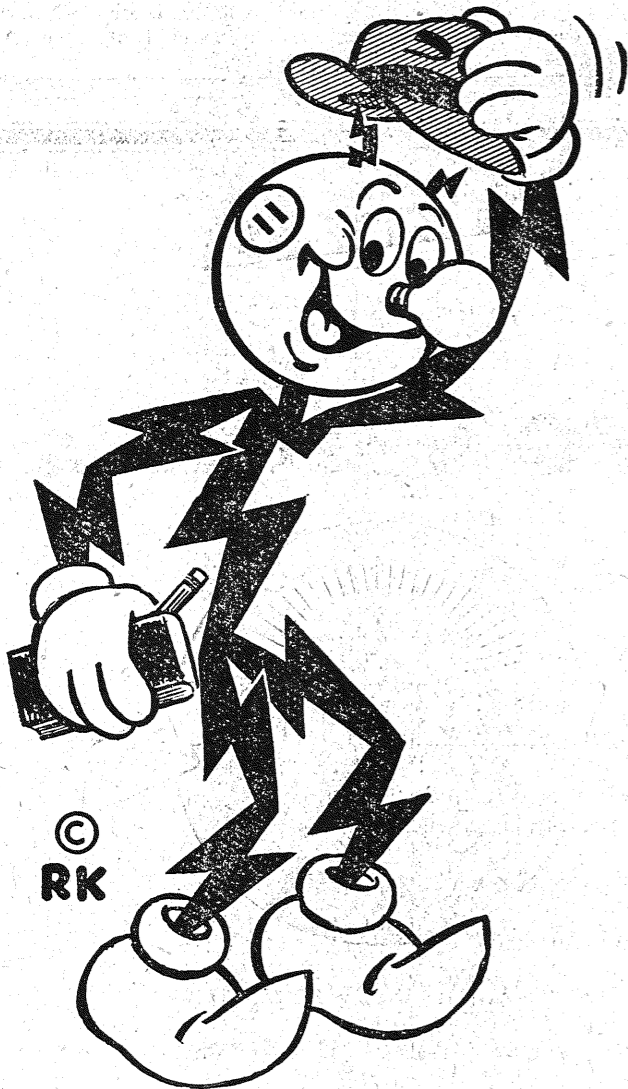

We take pride in the knowledge of having gained the utmost confidence of our community through honest service, courtesy and intelligent fitting.

And we take pride in the knowledge that our growth has paralleled the growth of Petoskey and that perhaps we may have had a small part in the development of our beautiful city.

1929 - Harry Parker with first New Truck

1937 - Petoskey Fleet

1952 - One of 100 Units Serving You

We are this month observing a double celebration. In commemorating Petoskey's Centennial, we also have the opportunity to observe our Silver Anniversary.

Starting in July, with a second hand Ruggles truck, driven by Harry Parker, we have striven to keep pace with the progress of this region.

From that humble beginning, serving Cadillac north to Petoskey and Boyne City, has grown a fleet of 100 units including trucks, tractors, semis and cars, giving prompt delivery from Grand Rapids north to the Straits, Traverse City East to US-27, that section North of M-68, and Gaylord. From the original second hand truck in 1927, travelling 30,000 miles and handling approximately 200 tons of freight has grown a system travelling over a million miles a year and which in 1951 transported 47,286 tons of freight.

Originating in Boyne City, the headquarters were moved to Petoskey in 1936 and to the present terminal in July, 1941. Terminals were built in Cadillac in 1943, Grand Rapids in 1945 and in Traverse City in 1950.

Present officers include Mrs. Harry Parker, president and treasurer; George Betteridge, Grand Rapids, vice-president; and Gilbert Haas, Grand Rapids, secretary and assistant treasurer.

Parker Motor Freight deeply appreciates its many customers who have made our growth possible and takes this opportunity to repledge its entire organization to serving you still better in the years to come.

Ruffles is the sadfaced Tramp Clown and he claims that Teddy Bear is the smartest mule in the world.

Pigeons A Big Business

On May 17, 1878, McCormick's fish house had completed shipping 40,000 dozen pigeons, with careful estimates indicating that over a million pigeons were shipped during the spring from Petoskey bringing in about $40,000.

Newspapers reported millions of pigeons nesting in the woods north and east of Petoskey and the air "black with the birds morning and evening."

Limbs were broken off trees by birds lighting on them. Immense quantities were shipped by boat and rail and every available team of horses was engaged in hauling pigeons netted by professional pigeon hunters.

Day 2529 - PHONES - Night 2918

Petoskey

POLISHING PETOSKEY STONES was a thriving business of the old Petoskey dock, nets that caught fish were hanging to dry along the waterfront and steamboats made frequent visits with passengers in this colorful era of Petoskey's history back before World War I. Photo belongs to Joe Kricher, R-2 Beysie City.

THE BAY VIEW DEPOT, torn down a few years ago when sold by bids to the American Legion, used to be a busy place in the summer with dummies running to Petoskey every few minutes and many Pennsylvania resort specials running in and out.

Daredevil to Ascend, Leap From Balloon

One of Fridays first Free acts of the Centennial Celebration days will be a real old-fashioned balloon ascension by Col. Frank L. Heistand of Greencastle, Indiana.

The Colonel will be in Petoskey today and arrange for the pits and roped off area necessary for this type of inflation. The large balloon will take most of Friday morning to get filled to the proper buoyancy.

Weather permitting, Col. Heistand will go up about 5,000 feet and then drop by parachute. On the way down two or three "drops" will be made. This means that he will release his chute after falling several hundred feet and rely on another parachute to break his fall.

Speedboats and trucks will be standing by to go after the Balloon and the Colonel after they come down. He mentioned that in his many years of balloon work he fell in the water only once and when asked if he feared that hazard at Petoskey he replied "I can think of no better place to come down than on the waters of Little Traverse Bay."

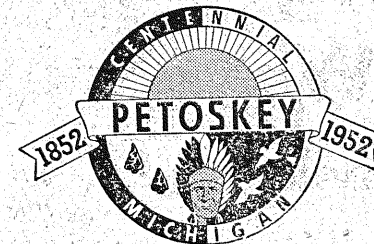

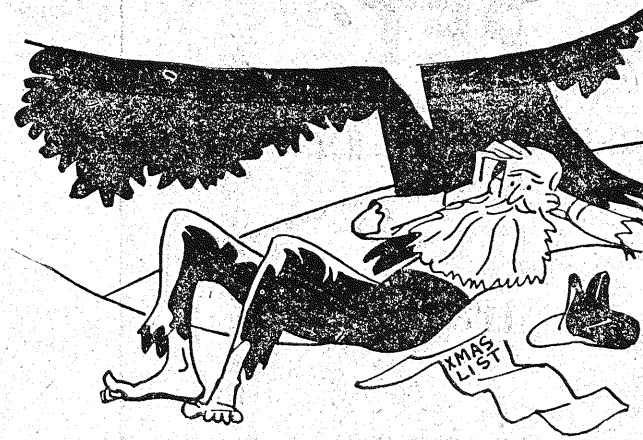

PETOSKEY ORGANIZED

Petoskey was incorporated as a village in February 1879 through the efforts of the Hon. C. J. Palthorp (who lived to be over 100 years old) and was legislative representative at the time. Petoskey was incorporated as a city in 1896.

1ST HOOK AND LADDER

Petoskey's first "hook and ladder" company was organized at a meeting January 14, 1881, with the city council taking formal action a week later.

We Too Are "OLD TIMERS"
1899 1952

Chances are that not many of you can recall our old equipment, pictured above, but some of the old-timers in the area will remember when such equipment was the very latest thing. We're proud of the fact that we've grown up with our community; that we have played some small part in the growth and progress of PETOSKEY and the surrounding countryside. As old-timers ourselves, this Centennial celebration memory of "the good old days" when the town and Stone's were both young.

Schools Have Progressed With Petoskey; Tell Of Early Days And Present

Petoskey's first public school was opened in 1874 and it was a far contrast from today's modern system.

The school was located between Lake and Bay and was built of boards placed perpendicularly with a gable roof. It had no chimney, a box stove with a stove pipe stuck through the roof, provided the heat.

It was only 18 x 20 feet and was also used as a church and meeting place. Mrs. Rachel Oakley organized this school Nov. 18, 1874.

During the winter and spring of 1876 a Mrs. Alley was the teacher and school was taught in a rough board shanty erected among the logs and shrubs on Lake-st. No records were preserved.

During that summer, Petoskey's mothers and fathers realized the need for a school. Several meetings were held and a tract of land was purchased "out in the woods" on Howard-st. A two-story barn like building was erected and in November it was opened with C. S. Hampton as principal, assisted by Miss F. E. Burch, of New York. Over 100 students attended the winter of 1876-77.

Although the students keep increasing in number, there were but two teachers employed until the fall of '79 when Mr. Barber was employed as principal with two assistants. The old bowling alley at the head of the dock stairs was fitted into a primary school room with Miss Nellie Briggs as teacher. A. D. Metz was employed as principal in '79.

BUILD ADDITION

During the summer of 1879 an addition was built to the Howard-st. building making four large rooms and doubling capacity. The fourth teacher was employed and in the fall of 1880 a fifth teacher was put in charge of a department in a vacant store on Lake-st. T. H. Clayton succeeded Metz as principal.

The so-called "spacious" Petoskey high school was erected during the summer of 1881. But it wasn't big enough and in '85, two more rooms were added on the Howard-st. side.

J. T. Ewing succeeded Clayton as superintendent in 1882 and remained until 1887.

Since 1923, H. C. Spittler has been superintendent and many improvements have been made.

MANY IMPROVEMENTS

In 1929 the present high school was remodeled, Centra school replaced by a building which even today stands out as modern in design, the biggest high school gymnasium in northern Michigan was built two years before (1927) the stadium was erected of concrete on and given by the late Morgar Curtis. This is where football games are played, and since 1939 it has been lighted.

At the present time, a new school is being erected on the West Side to replace Lincoln school which has stood for many, many years. Present census of the school system shows 2,502 children between the ages of birth and 19 with 1,727 of school age.

ST FRANCIS SCHOOLS

St. Francis established its first school on Jan. 9, 1833 in a room in the residence of Rev. Fr. Prof. pastor of the church. The first teacher was Phillip Schmitt who was paid $20 a month and board. A few years later an assistant teacher, Miss Bessie Dunnigan, was secured.

In 1890 the Franciscan Sisters of Penance and Christain Charity took charge at the request of Fr. Norbert, OFM, and have instructed Catholic children of the community since that time.

The present school was completed in 1927. In 1941 a ninth grade was added, in 1942 a 10th grade. This fall, the 11th grade will be included and in 1953 St. Francis will be a full high school. A full-time athletic coach, Charles DePrekel, will start this fall. He was graduated from Notre Dame this June.

SISTERS HOME

A new modern Sisters Home was completed and dedicated during the past winter. Part of the building is being used for class rooms, and Pastor Rev. Fr. Hugolinus Kiener has predicted that St. Francis will be a class C school by 1953. Fr. Hugolinus came to Petoskey in 1945 and has been largely responsible for the many enlargements and improvements since that time.

70 Year Old Dress

SILK AND LACE are pretty, but not so comfortable, thinks tiny four year old Margaret Jayne as she tries to pose formally for the photographer. Margaret is wearing a Centennial treasure, a 70 year old beautifully detailed peacock blue silk dress worn by Miss Grace Osborn of 502 E. Lake-st. when she was a little girl. In wonderful condition, the wide ruffles of the dress are still just as finely pleated as ever and the huge bustle bow just as perky at the back. Margaret is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Harold Jayne.

Free Acts Each Day for Centennial

A full house of Free entertainment will be presented each afternoon and evening as part of the Centennial Celebration on July 11 and 12.

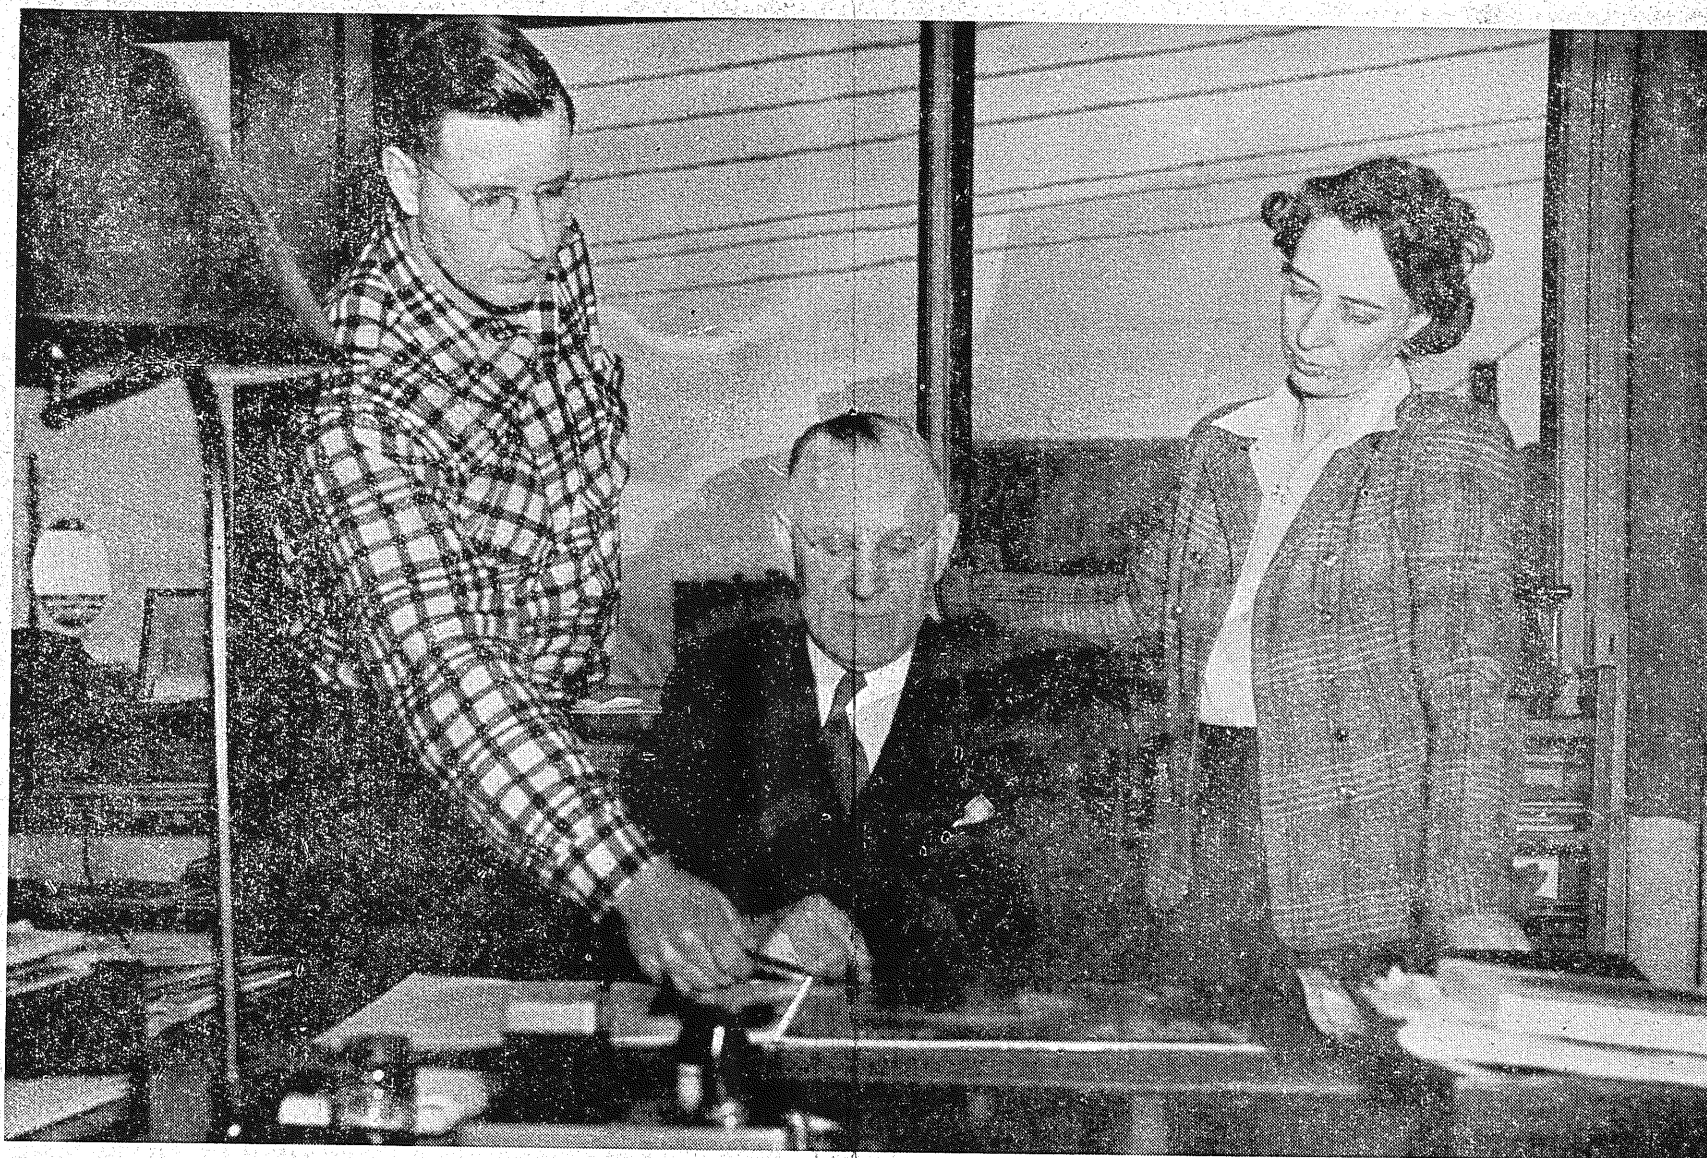

Contracts have been signed by Ray Brown, entertainment chairman of the centennial with the Voorhees Agency in Chicago to present some of the finest acts in the Middle west.

Following the Children's Pet Parade awards on Friday, Kent and Louise Moore will present their famous Marionette Act on the Satge in Federation.

This will be followed by the Bonneli Family — a musical group. The program will conclude with a comedy juggling act. Another performance will be given that evening at 7:15, and repeated the next afternoon and evening. All of these shows will be presented free to the public. Two professional clowns have also been hired to entertain the centennial crowds on the streets throughout the day.

1880 Fire Almost Wiped Out Down Town

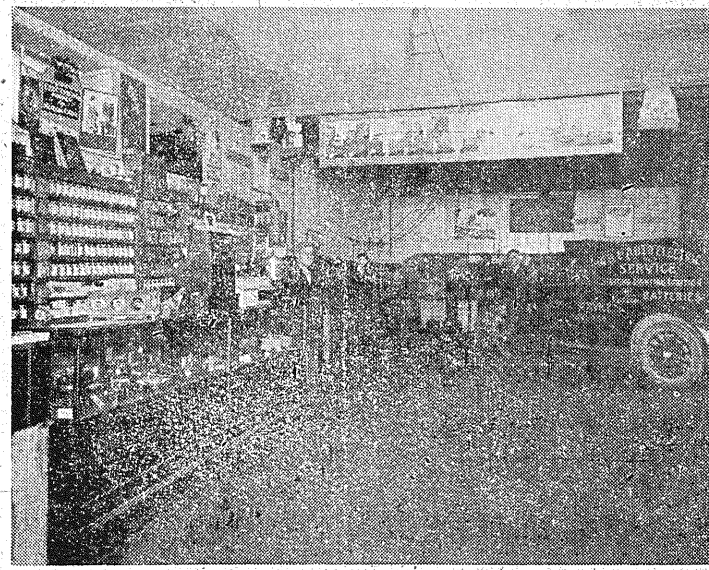

Petoskey lost most of its business district in a flaming disaster that broke out during a howling blizzard Nov. 26, 1880 before the village's fire department was organized. Destroyed were Murray's store, G. W. Bump's store, Conrad Zoll's hotel, the William Cushman residence and it was finally stopped at Watson & Buckley's hardware. Volunteers were aided by heavy snow because it kept roofs wet. Sparks and embers showered down 60 rods away.

The Presbyterian church was dedicated March 6, 1889, the Episcopal church Feb. 5, 1890, the Methodist church Sept. 7, 1890. Christmas Day 1877 was so warm boys played barefoot outdoors.

MRS. ANNA CRANE, who was 100 on May 3, is getting a lot of fun out of plans for observance of Petoskey's 100th birthday. Mrs. Crane lives with her daughter, Mrs. Mabel Parrish, 520 Charlevoix-ave., and is quite active in spite of what most folks consider old age.

She has her pet parakeets and a canary which she feeds and when the Review's representative was present the other day, was walking around as spryly as many folks far younger than she is. Her hearing isn't as good as it was, but she can carry on a lively conversation in spite of the handicap. Her eyes aren't as sharp as they were two years ago when she was still reading, sewing and tating. Many of her children and other relatives have been arriving and she says "I feel at least 10 years younger seeing them again!"

DR. EDWIN HODGE AND FAMILY took off on a cruise from Lake Macatwa at Holland up the west coast of Michigan to Petoskey. A summer resident of Petoskey for 35 of his 36 years, Hodge will take movies of the Petoskey Centennial Homecoming which will be distributed nationally. Left to right are: Mary Lou, 3; Dr. Hodge, Mrs. Marie Hodge, Helen, 6; and Charles, 10. The cruise is sponsored by the Evinrude Boating Foundation for research in family outboard cruising.

43 Vote in School Election; Board Seeks $63,000 Loan for Building

G. C. Townsend was re-elected for another term on the Petoskey board of education and elected president of the board at the re-organization meeting held in conjunction with the annual election Monday.

Authorization was given the board to apply for an additional advance of $25,000 on 1952-53 state aid. A loan of $35,000 was received last month, all of which will go toward the new school on the West Side. This is interest free.

ANOTHER LOAN of $38,000 on anticipated December 1953 receipts from the five mill tax will be secured for the building and site fund. A loan of $39,000 was granted last year on December, 1952, taxes at two per cent interest.

The annual report showed $244,609.93 had been spent to date on the school which will cost over $300,000. H. C. Spittler, superintendent, reported that the building would be completely paid for in the next three years.

A total of $399,857.99 was received from all sources during the year and expenditures amounted to $388,591.34.

Biggest items of budget disbursements included $239,101 for instruction, $31,001 for plant operation, $17,822 for health, transportation and other auxiliary agencies, $15,359 for administration of all schools, $16,660 for maintenance of school plants, $5,939 for interest and other fixed charges for a total operating cost of $325,881 plus $12,347 for capital outlay.

A complete financial report will be published in the next issue of the Review.

OTHER ITEMS covered at the annual meeting included motions to thank N. J. Stone and E. W. Priebe for lands given the schools and a vote of approval of the school board's plan for financing the building of the new school.

Other officers of the board elected were Walter O. Dow, vice-president; Allan W. McCune, secretary; E. A. Bremmeyr, treasurer.

Voters Rush In To Register

A great horde of new registrations were received at City Hall right up to Monday's deadline for the Aug. 5 primary, City Clerk Victor D. Cannon said. "There were so many it's going to take a couple weeks to get the final total," he added. Before the rush, Petoskey had 2,861 registrations.

Wounded Boyne City GI is Home

Sgt. Floyd Bowers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bowers, of Boyne City, arrived home July 4 after spending 18 months overseas and in Korea where he was awarded the purple heart with a silver star. He will be discharged after a 30 day furlough. His wife is with him.

$1,000 TO HUMANE SOCIETY

$1,000 was granted the Emmet Humane Society by the Petoskey Council Monday. It was the second year this amount was appropriated.

Will Call 43 Emmet Men in July, August, for Physicals, Induction

Sixteen Emmet men have been called for pre-induction physical examination July 21 and 10 have been ordered to report for active service July 15, Emmet selective service said today.

In addition, seven will be inducted and 10 report for physicals in August.

Those called for physicals July 21: PETOSKEY — Jack Raught, Richard E. Wendorf, Francis J. Vargofcak, George E. Eldred, John L. Gibson, Watson L. Gregory, Peter P. Lewis; ALANSON — Norman G. Thelen; PELLSTON — Edmund Gibes; CONWAY — Gordon L. Grigsby.

Salvation Army Marks 50th With Concert Program

Last year marked the fiftieth year of service in this community for The Salvation Army. In order to join with the community in the Centennial celebration it was decided to wait until this year to commemorate the event. In this way former Salvation Army officers and friends of the Corps could attend the Centennial and the Corps Jubilee homecoming.

Many of these officers, soldiers and friends are taking advantage of the event to be present this coming weekend. Lieutenant John W. Heaver, local commander of The Salvation Army, has arranged for the presence of the noted Port Huron Salvation Army Band.

On Sunday night there will be a united church service held in the Evangelical United Brethren Church. The band will be presenting sacred music and the churches of the community have received invitations to attend. The public is invited.

A highlight of the services will be the presence of Frank O. Staiger as speaker. Mr. Staiger is an outstanding songwriter of international fame and has been twice music director of Kiwanis International. He is Mayor Emeritus of the City of Port Huron and Divisional Secretary of Kiwanis.

Lt. Col. T. M. Larsen, commander of the eastern division which includes this area, will be present, Lt. John Heaver said.

3 Days of Activities Set For Centennial Birthday

Upwards of 300 entries will make the Pet and Youth Parade Friday a highlight of the three-day Centennial program.

Mrs. Burton G. Hooker, parade chairman for the sponsoring PTA Council, said that judges for the event will be Mrs. Richard Vernor, of Chicago and Bay View, Kenneth W. Smith, of Grosse Pointe and Charlevoix, and Mrs. H. P. Grant, of Palm Beach and Petoskey.

THE LINE OF MARCH will be arranged by classifications, Mrs. Hooker said. In sequence, on Elizabeth street, from Mitchell south, the line-up will be as follows: ponies; floats; winter sports club troupe; tricycles, bicycles, scooters, and wagons; pets; sports; comics; Centennial costumes; buggies; miscellaneous costumes; pre-school age entries.

The line will be headed by the Petoskey High School band and the Manistee clown band will be at the end of the procession.

Pre-school age children will join the line of march at the post office, where they will assemble. The entire procession will move from Elizabeth to Division, on Mitchell, and thence on Division to Federation Park.

CASH PRIZES totalling $175 will be distributed, Mrs. Hooker said. Special prizes will be offered in the float division. In all other divisions, first prizes of $3, second prizes of $2, and third through seventh prizes of $1 each are scheduled.

Petoskey Packing Company is arranging for treats for all participants. They will be distributed at the Park as entrants present numbered tags which will be distributed to the children as they line up at the intersection of State and Elizabeth streets, prior to the parade. The numbered tags will facilitate work of the judges and also serve as a ticket for the "treat"

THE JUDGES platform truck will be stationed near the railroad tracks at Mitchell and Howards-sts.

Dr. Dean C. Burns today announced the appointment of Doctor Guy K. Lawrie to the staff of the Burns Clinic.

Dr. Lawrie is a graduate of the University of Michigan. He received his internship at the Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit and has been a member of the resident-surgical staff for the past five years.

His practice will be confined to general surgery on the staff of the Burns Clinic and Little Traverse Hospital.

Dr. Lawrie is a grandson of the late Doctor Guy Kiefer, prominent in state medical circles, and a great grandson of Dr. Herman Kiefer for whom the Detroit hospital is named.

Dr. and Mrs. Lawrie and their four children are living at 704 E. Lake-st., Petoskey.

Presbyterian Work Starts

The Presbyterian church's $25,000 Centennial remodeling program is underway this week with the arrival of two carloads of brick which will be used to cover the exterior up to the eaves where new wide, white siding will be installed.

Rev. Lloyd Brasure, pastor, said the aisles will be refinished, as well as the pews. New lighting will be installed along with new communion tables and a baptismal font. The committee is making a study of organs.

Plans also call for new tile for the basement and insulation for the entire building.

To Buy a Slide

Petoskey Kiwanians Tuesday voted $300 toward a child's slide at the Washington-st. playground which was developed as a Centennial project of the club and had been furnished with equipment by citizens.

48 Pages Just 'Ain't Enough'

This 48-page Centennial issue, we believe, is the biggest newspaper of its kind ever prepared in this area.

It was possible because of the fine cooperation of the Northern Michigan Review received from the merchants and business firms in getting ad copy and photographs to us in time and the untiring efforts of the Review staff.

The historical material has been checked and double-checked for accuracy. We selected photographs from a choice of hundreds, and unfortunately, had to leave out many as well as numerous historical stories.

We hope, too, that our correspondents will understand why we had to limit their copy this week. It just isn't possible to tell the whole story of 100 years in one edition, but we did our best.

From our hearts we thank everyone who helped us prepare and present this issue. We hope you enjoy it and will want to keep it for the future.

—The Entire Staff of the Northern Michigan Review

Geology — which has played a major role in Petoskey's development — will be accorded expert attention in the geology tour which is scheduled early Friday morning, with Miss Muriel Tara, an expert from the State Department of Conservation, in charge. In the event of rain, this event will be translated into a lecture at the high school "little auditorium," at 9 a.m. Friday.

Sports enthusiasts will enjoy the softball games, the Paul Bunyan Lumberjack contest, the closed course outboard races Sunday which provide interesting interludes for the program.

PARK DEDICATION
A formal program dedicating Pioneer Park, at the waterfront, will pay homage to those families whose antecedents, by daring the wilderness, transformed the area within a quarter century to a bustling center of commerce. Mayor Emery O. Nyman is in charge of this program.

Distinguished guests who will participate in phases of the program will include Governor G. Mennen Williams, U.S. Senator Blair Moody, Secretary of State Frederick M. Alger, and Auditor-General John Martin.

MOSSBACK PARADE
Not least of the features will be the beard parade and contest slated for Saturday afternoon under direction of Postmaster Alexander Worden, "Mr. Whiskers." A parade from the Mitchell Street bridge to a platform in Pennsylvania Park, where judging is scheduled, gets the long-awaited competition underway at 2 p.m.

For the young fry, a square dance on the tennis courts at Arlington Park, Friday night — is bound to be focal point for fun.

MUSICAL SHOWS
Musical show attributes will include participation in the several events by the Petoskey High School Band, the Racine Scout Band, Saladin Shrine Band, of (Continued on page 8)

Mull Street Widening for Parking

Petoskey Council discussed, but delayed action Monday, on purchase of a new auto for the police force, paying $500 a year for use and repairs to the St. Francis parking lot, purchase of 500 feet of fire hose and a $21,787 street widening program to provide 54 additional vehicle parking spaces with meters.

All these matters will be brought up again at the July 21 session for disposition.

STREETS INVOLVED in the study revealed for the first time by City Manager Ernest Neumann to ease down-town parking, and estimated costs (excluding telephone company costs) for excavating, curb removal and replacement, widening, drainage, tree removal:

Division from Lake to Mitchell on the east side, 21 parking spaces (there is no parking there now) at a cost of $3,598 or $171 per car;

Waukazoo from Mitchell to Michigan, $3,531 for six extra car spaces, $590 per car;
Michigan from Waukazoo to Howard, $8,703 for 13 new spaces, $670 per car;
Michigan from Howard to Petoskey, $1,204 for one new car space;

Petoskey from Michigan to Mitchell, $2,459 for nine new spaces, $273 per car;
Petoskey from Mitchell to Lake, $2,232 for four more spaces, $558 per car. Total estimated cost $21,787, $403 per car.

Neumann reported that trees would have to be removed on Michigan, Waukazoo and Petoskey to make enough clearance for widening and more parking.

POLICE CAR BIDDERS
Three local firms entered bids for the police car. Northern Auto entered three bids on 6 cylinder and V-8 models with the lowest cost, including allowance for a trade in of the 1951 model, of $411.09.

MacDonald Motors entered two Chevrolet bids, one being $395 the other $330, and for an Oldsmobile "88" $495.

Sydow & Sons entered a bid asking $800 for a 127-horsepower model.

All were for two-door sedans, tax exempt to the city. This was turned over to Councilmen Earnest Priebe and Elmer Pfeiffer to report.

ST. FRANCIS OFFER
St. Francis parish proposed that a written agreement be prepared to end any misunderstandings about use of their playground as a parking lot. They proposed the city pay $500 a year, lay dust, carry liability insurance and have the use of the lot the year around except on school days and for 10 days during the period of their Bazaar.

The letter was signed by Enoch Giles, Jr., James Behan, Warren Locke and Rev. Fr. Hugolinus. A request for four one-hour parking spaces in front of the rectory was granted. Last winter the parish requested $250 for the lot. This matter was turned over to Councilmen George Danser and Elmer Pfeiffer, the city manager and City Attorney B. V. Halstead. The lot has been used seven years.

Samples of hoses for the fire department were studied. Prices ranged from $1.32½ to $1.90 a foot for 500 feet. This was turned over to Councilmen Priebe and Pfeiffer to report July 21.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

How Nervy Can a "Tenani" Get?

"Harry the Hermit" dropped in to see Judge Cunningham the other day and started complaining about that dilapidated house he lives in over near Greenwood Lake.

"Who's my landlord?" Harry wanted to know. "Whoever you pay rent to," says the Judge. "Don't pay any rent," says Harry. "Moved into that house twelve years ago and nobody ever came to collect."

"Well," says the Judge, looking mystified, "what do you have to complain about?" "Plenty," replies Harry. "Rain's pouring in my living room and if someone doesn't fix that roof, I'm moving out!"

Now Harry was only having a little joke, but from where I sit I've seen people act just about as nervy as this sometimes—seriously. Like those who enjoy all the rights Americans have worked for, and yet would take away some of those freedoms from others—for example, our right to enjoy a friendly glass of beer. I say these "leaks of intolerance" have no place in the "home of liberty."

Wedding Rites In Mackinaw

The marriage of Nancy Ann Dagwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Dagwell of Mackinaw City, and Cpl. Richard A. Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell, formerly of Harbor Springs, was solemnized in St. Anthony's church.

The bride, in a ballerina gown of white organdy with matching veil and cap, was attended by her sister, Mrs. Jerry Erspamer.

Jerry Erspamer attended the bridegroom, and Clare Ecklund and Bill Nakarado, brothers-in-law of the bride and groom respectively, acted as ushers.

Cpl. and Mrs. Campbell left following the ceremony and reception for Roswell, N. M. where Cpl. Campbell is stationed at the Air Force Base.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel T. Gokee

Fifty years after their wedding on June 25, 1902 at the First Methodist church in Petoskey, with the Rev. Louis Grosenbaugh officiating, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Thomas Gokee again stood before the same altar and repeated their marriage vows.

The Rev. Harold Jayne performed the golden anniversary ceremony before an altar banked with mock orange blossoms and yellow gladioli and lighted by burning gold and white tapers in branched candelabra. Before the ceremony June Cannon, granddaughter of the couple, sang "I Love Thee" and "Because". Her frock was of white chiffon over taffeta and her corsage of pink rosebuds.

Pearl, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George W. Rice, wore a gown of navy blue crepe. The lace panels were designed over pale yellow on the bodice and fell to the hemline of the skirt. Her wide-brimmed hat was of lacy straw and she carried an old-fashioned nosegay of yellow and white rosebuds.

Attending the golden bridal couple were Mr. and Mrs. Emery Gimble. Mrs. Gimble was gowned in royal blue and carried pink roses. Before the recessional June sang "Through the Years."

Nearly 300 guests offered their congratulations at the reception following the ceremony. A huge anniversary candle centered the table which was decorated with gold and white flowers and lighted tapers, and featured a tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Rosanna Gokee, 97, mother of Mr. Gokee was unable to be present for the festivities because of illness.

Engaged

Miss McKerracher

Mrs. Genevieve McKerracher of Springwater Beach, Boyne City, announces the engagement of her daughter Barbara Jean to Sgt. James Everest, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Everest, also of Boyne City. Sgt. Everest is stationed in Alaska at the present time. An early August wedding is being planned.

Plan Temple Open House

The new recreation room at the B'nai Israel Temple will be the scene of an open house Sunday evening from 8:30 to 11 p.m.

The basement rooms were completely remodeled and redecorated as a Centennial project. Mrs. Irene Gordon is president of the Sisterhood whose members will serve as hostesses. Members and friends of the congregation are invited to attend the event.

Wealykit Club Sets Reunion

The Wealykit Club (pronounced "We all like it") was a social club very active in the 1920's. As part of the Centennial, local members of the group have planned a reunion dinner to be held at the High Manor Tea Room Saturday.

Members are now scattered all over the country. Invitations have been sent out and from the response a good representation is expected.

Mrs. R. B. Hinds, Mrs. Gertrude Bursian and Mrs. Arthur Broman are making arrangements for the event.

Dinner is Friday Night

A swiss steak and strawberry shortcake dinner, to be served from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. Friday evening in the basement of the First Christian church, will benefit the new church building fund.

Mrs. Albert Schaller is general chairman and is being assisted by Mrs. Don Garber, Mrs. H. K. Schneider is in charge of a display table featuring items made by Sunday school children and members of the Sunday school staff.

Other committee members are Mrs. Blanche Streeter, Mrs. Kenneth Lawrason, solicitation; Mrs. Harold Hayner, Mrs. Durward Lark, publicity; Mrs. Bryce Dennis, tickets; Mrs. Harold Johnson, Mrs. Floyd Potts, Jr., dining room; Mrs. Walter Kring, Mrs. Arthur Dennis, kitchen; and Lawrence Clink and the Rev. Floyd Emshwiller, cashiers.

Plan Temple Afternoon Reception Honors the Henry Bohms

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bohm of 506 Jackson-st. received the congratulations and best wishes of friends and relatives Wednesday afternoon at their home. The occasion was the golden wedding anniversary of the well known couple, who have both lived in this area for the past 70 years.

Mrs. Bohm was born April 14, 1881, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Everhart of Akron, O. and her husband was born in Saginaw on Nov. 5, 1873, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Bohm, pioneer residents of Bear Creek township.

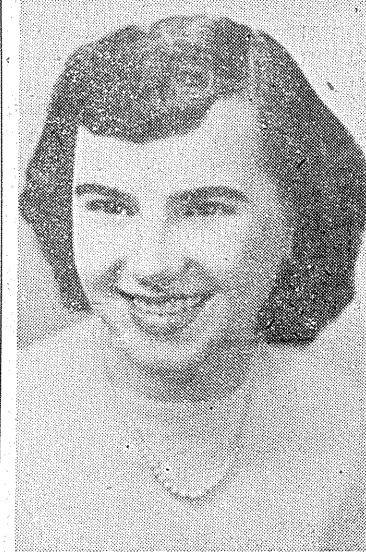

Both attended school here and Mrs. Bohm also attended Graves Normal school. Mr. Bohm managed the D. C. Osborne Feed Store for some time and later was associated with the Michigan Potato Growers Exchange, retiring in 1951.

The couple was married July 9, 1902 at the Everhart home. Mrs. R. D. Tripp, who was a member of the wedding party, was present for the anniversary celebration, as were other original wedding guests Mrs. D. S. Burns, Mrs. Fred Boland, Mrs. Ada McMaster, and A. Everhart, all of Petoskey, and Mrs. Elwin Slack of Grand Rapids.

The Bohms' four daughters and their families, including the 12 grandchildren participated in the observance. Their daughters are Mrs. Norman W. Wells, Jr. and Mrs. J. W. Scoggin of Petoskey, Mrs. R. James Roach of Birmingham, and Mrs. Olaf Stiansen of Cadillac. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bohm and son Norman of Grosse Pointe were also present.

Chosen for Training

Beverly Jepson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Jepson of 416 Myrtle-st., has been chosen by members of the Little Traverse Hospital Auxiliary to receive the benefit of their student loan fund for nurse's training.

Miss Jepson

Beverly, a 1952 graduate of Petoskey high school, was a member of the choir, Quill and Scroll, and the Hi-Light staff. She will take her training at St. Mary's School of Nursing in Grand Rapids.

Funds for student training are secured from the auxiliary's annual Fashion Show, which will be held this year on August 20 at the Par-4 Club. Tickets may be secured at Brock-Eckel.

TO ATTEND CHURCH IN COSTUME

Old fashioned costumes will be in order Sunday when the congregation of the First Methodist church meets for the morning worship service Sunday at 10:55 a.m. The services will be centered around the Rev. Harold Jayne's theme, "Methodism in Petoskey."

Ross Stoakes is organist, and Wilmer Moyer will sing "Repent Ye" by Scott.

Centennial visitors are invited to join the congregation in this special service, the worship hour at 10:55 and the Sunday school at 9:45 a.m. Classes for all ages are provided as well as a nursery for small children from 9:45 am. to 12:15 p.m.

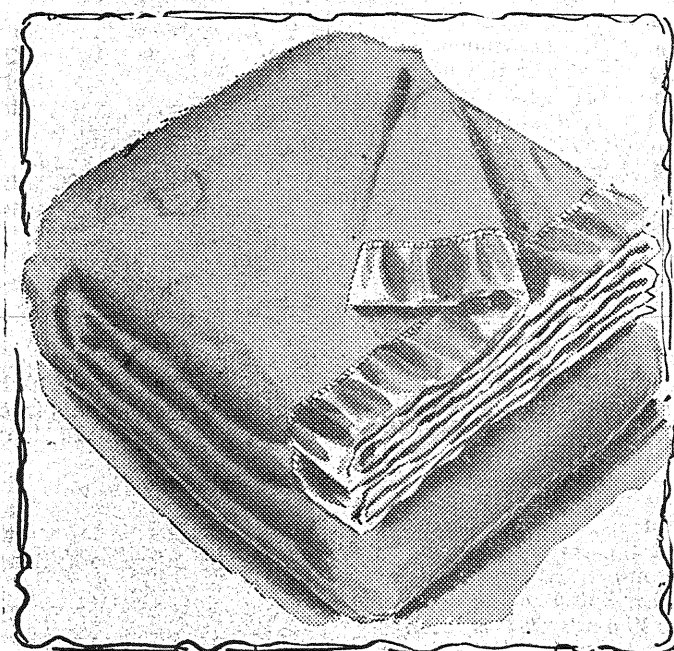

MRS. KILBORN CENTENNIAL HOSTESS
Costumed members of the Fortnightly Club were entertained at a Centennial tea Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Kilborn. Mrs. Herbert Rae and Mrs. Nellie Smith were co-hostesses.

Mrs. William Woodstock was the only charter member of the 45 year old organization present. The Centennial theme was featured in the decorations and a display of historical items was exhibited.

Nearly 100 Attend Swenor Gathering

Eighty-two direct descendants of the Swenor family and nine guests met for the third annual family reunion Saturday at Magnus Park.

There were 32 grandchildren and six great grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Swenor present. The Swenor's nine children and their families attending included Mr. and Mrs. Millard Swenor and Mrs. Arley Watson of Davison, Mrs. Lyle Lewis of Hollywood, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Swenor of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Swenor of Flint, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tallman of Cheboygan, Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Swenor, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Cumberland, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Swenor and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Rostar, all of Harbor Springs.

Other cities represented were Bay City, Central Lake, Alanson, Sault Ste Marie and Clio. Next year's reunion will be held at Higgins Lake.

The McCartney children, Abbott, 4, Celia, 8, and Lynn, 10, brought back a semblance of the "good old days" when they donned outfits worn by their uncle and two aunts in 1909 and posed in identical fashion for their portrait.

Grandchildren of the Benjamin Browns of Charlevoix, they are the children of Mrs. Edna Brown McCartney of Petoskey. Both their paternal and maternal grandparents were among the earliest families in the area.

All of the Brown children were born in Charlevoix. Laura now Mrs. Courier of Charlevoix, the late Marguerite Brown, Floyd Brown of Charlevoix, Edna McCartney and Lewis Brown of Petoskey.

The girls' dresses, still in perfect condition, are of a cream-colored brilliantine material (a fine, soft challis-like goods.) The tucked yokes, wide collars and set-in cuffs are edged with fine Irish lace. The wide pleats of the skirts are also featured in the waists. The blue and white checked boy's suit is of woven chambray, trimmed with braid. It is two piece with a tunic blouse and bloomers and the then popular sailor collar and dickey.

The McCartney children are justly proud and thrilled with the opportunity to contribute this unusual historical bit to Petoskey's Centennial observance.

"Andrew Porter Sunday" at Presbyterian Church

July 13 has been designated by the Session of the First Presbyterian Church as "Andrew Porter Sunday."

The seven o'clock Memorial Service in (for the public) Greenwood Cemetery by the plot of the Porter family will be conducted by the Pastor, Rev. Lloyd G. Brasure as a tribute to the Porters who pioneered Christian teaching in the Mission school in 1852 and whose lives were dedicated to the Glory of God.

The Church today which bears the name Presbyterian in this city was later organized in 1856 and will observe its Centennial in 1956 with appropriate ceremonies.

Andrew Porter will further be honored for the work he began here under the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions and as a teacher under the U.S. Government Department of Interior which was interested in establishing schools for the Indians and white settlers in the new territories.

The eleven o'clock service will be centered around the historical sermon delivered by the Pastor. The text, "Remember the days of old, consider the years of many generations: ask thy Father and He will show thee: thy elders and they will tell thee." - Deuteronomy XXXII, 7 was used by Rev. W. S. Potter in June 1882 for his historical sermon. Much of this valuable material will be adopted and used this Sunday.

The Fellowship hour to follow in the Westminster Parlors will offer friends and visitors to visit, have refreshments and view the exhibition of historic significance. The Womens' Association is providing this hour for all friends and members of the Church and community.

Dr. Lowrie Porter of New York City, Mrs. Esther Simms of Plano, Ill. and Mrs. Isabel Stotts of Cincinnati, O., grandchildren of Andrew Porter, and other descendants have been invited to the services as honored guests.

Win Medals at Camp

Eight Petoskey young people returned home Friday night from Echo Grove, a Salvation Army music camp near Leonard.

Competing against 150 other eastern Michigan students the local group received high honors. Being rated for musical ability, knowledge of theory and all-around camp spirit the Petoskey group, with less than three years musical experience, were awarded two of the three gold medals presented to the instrumental students.

Gold medal winners were Mary Allen (B class) and Marcia Pennell (C class). Receiving honorable mention for exceptionally high marks were Elsie Heaver, Juanita Goit and Ken Pennell (B class) and Grace Bricker (C class). The two remaining members of the group Tom and Donald Rought received high marks also.

Lieut. Heaver accompanied the group as an instructor.

Pioneer Resident Shares Memories of Early Times

Of special significance during Petoskey's Centennial Festival is the presence still in this city of Mrs. Ethel Rowan Fasquelle, one of its earliest residents and author of a fascinating book on early history of the area, "When Michigan Was Young."

Mrs. Fasquelle was born May 31, 1867 in Little Rock, Ill., the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. C. Rowan. She came here with her parents April 3, 1875. Her father took up a homestead on his Civil War service. Finding the land unsuitable for farming, the family settled in Petoskey, then a village of about 15 white families.

Mrs. Fasquelle is a charter member of the Petosego chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution and an active member of the Michigan Historical Society.

"When Michigan Was Young" was published shortly after Mrs. Fasquelle's 83rd birthday and is an extremely readable story of the history of the state, and contains many heretofore unpublished Indian legends and stories.

Centennial Good Deed

Lady Golfers Meet Today

Mrs. Calvin Kiffer and Mrs. Mary Peterwitz will be hostess today (Thursday) at the Petoskey-Bay View Country Club for the Women's Golf Association. The play will be low net and the qualifying round for the summer tourney.

Mrs. Ruth Jane Squarey won both blind hole and low putt in the 18 hole class last week. Mrs. L. W. Hankey and Mrs. Ruth Heseltine won in the Class B 9 hole and Mrs. Brager Larsen and Mrs. Charles Bailey in the Class C. Winners of the golf pins for low net were Mrs. C. F. Curtis and Mrs. H. P. Grant.

Welling's Extends Centennial Greetings

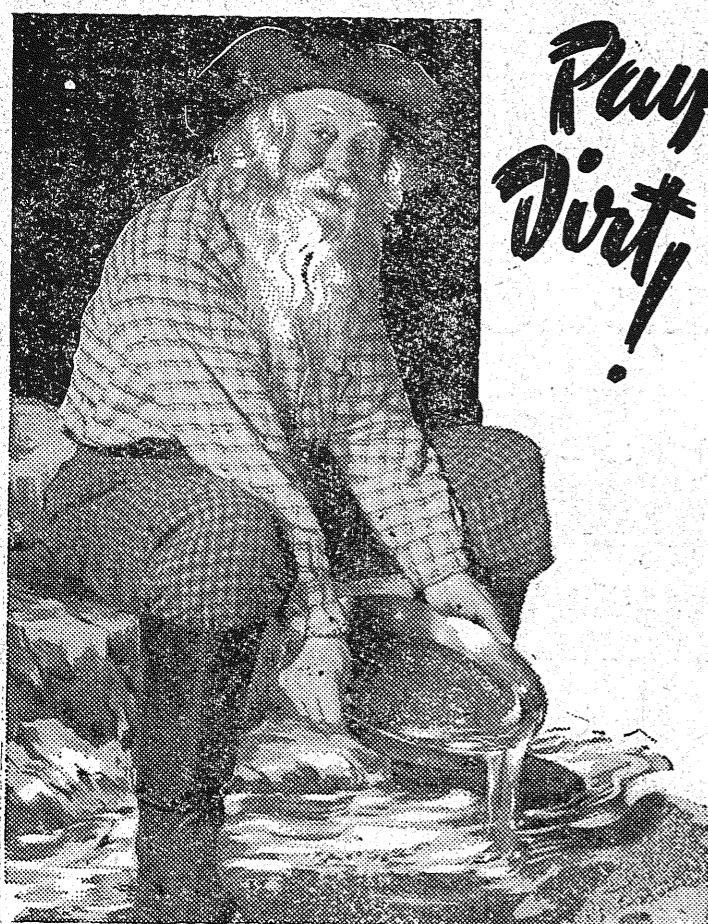

Listed high on the list of local pioneer merchants stands the name of "Welling's."

Opened around the year 1890 by Herman Welling on Lake street with a luggage and lady's apparel store, it later moved to 317 E. Mitchell street.

Following his death in 1939, his daughters, the Misses Edna and Marguerite Welling operated the store until October, 1944, when it was sold to its present owners, Maurice L. and Helen Kline.

Operating on the same merchandising plan as the Welling ownership, it was found necessary to expand and in 1948, after leasing the adjoining building, the new present store was constructed, allowing four times the former floor space. Men's clothing and furnishings and the men's and lady's shoe departments were added to complement stocks of ladies, mens and misses' wearing apparel and furnishings.

Keeping pace with the growth of this city and region, Welling's today enjoys the reputation of being one of the finest, most beautiful and complete stores of its kind in northern Michigan.

Run Dirty!

The old time prospector loaded his burro, rounded up his rations, took along his pan and off he went into the mountains looking for his fortune. Sometimes a "strike" was made, but more often the only gain was a good deal of exercise. Nowadays we know that fortunes are earned by planning carefully rather than by just plain hoping. Thrifty, farsighted people use the tested system of regular savings — ten per cent of earnings. Be a modern prospector. Come in today.

City to Buy $10,000 Truck For Light Dept.

Petoskey's 13 year old electrical service truck is going to be replaced by a modern new one with a hydrolic lift capable of putting the crew on the job 25 feet in the air.

Total cost is estimated to be in the neighborhood of $10,000.

Harley Knecht, veteran electrical chief, appeared before the Council Monday to renew his request for the equipment, which he told Council, would prove of great value to the city's electrical department.

Estimated cost of the equipment, which includes a 5-man cab, the hydrolic lift and platform, winch and necessary paraphernalia, is around $7,100 with the chassis probably costing between $2,200 and $2,400. The latter will be bought locally on bids.

The last bad storm caused light crews to replace over 100 bulbs and the supply was exhausted. "If your street light is out and we haven't replaced it," Knecht said, "it's because we haven't got them. All will be replaced soon"

Dr. Born's Health Hints

TREATING THE AFTER EFFECTS OF RHEUMATIC FEVER

RHEUMATIC FEVER IS AN ACUTE and infectious disease which may affect any or all of the joints of the body, the myocardium, endocardium and the pericardium. Ninety per cent of the cases occur in children under fifteen years of age. It is evidently an infection, although other factors are present such as nutritional, damp cold climates and dwellings which favor its development. Although it has been found in the southern climates as well as the northern. Body distortions and spinal weaknesses play a great part in the weakening of the tissue for the invasion of this disease.

The typical case starts abruptly with signs of fever and swelling, pain, and inflammation of one or more of the joints. The most commonly affected joints are knees, ankles, wrists, elbows, shoulders and etc. The fever is likely to be high accompanied by profuse sweating and a rapid heart. A sore throat usually accompanies the disease.

THIS DISEASE HAS A GREAT affect upon the heart, the kidneys and the joints of the body predisposing to arthritis. Extreme care should be given to these patients in that they get the proper amount of nourishment, rest and nerve force through to the parts of the body through proper manipulation of the spine. Stimulation of the spinal nerves through chiropractic adjustment will cause a hastening of the healing of the body by bringing about proper elimination and the restoration of tissue.

I called to mind a girl patient of mine who had fever so bad and a bad heart that she was bedfast and little hopes for her recovery were given but under proper chiropractic manipulation of the nerve structures that go to the heart, kidney and the skin she slowly made her recovery back to normal health and is now married and has a family of her own. It has been my pleasure and experience over many years to see these unfortunate people restored back to normal health and activities by correcting the weaknesses within their body through chiropractic treatments that was found upon examination of their spinal columns and body mechanics.

I HAVE ALSO NOTED that the severity of the attack has been greatly lessened by the administration of the chiropractic adjustment in the acute stage of the disease.

If you or some member of your family is suffering or has suffered from this condition do look to chiropractic as a means of speeding the recovery and restoring of the body to its normal health. Remember all the powers to heal the body are within it. If these can be released the body will heal itself the same as it does in a healthy body. Come in and get a chiropractic examination. Find out what it will do for you.

BEAR CREEK TOWNSHIP NOTICE OF ELECTION TO VOTE ON FRANCHISE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN to the qualified electors of Bear Creek Township, Emmet County, Michigan, that at a special election to be held at the Township Hall in said Township, on the 5th day of August, 1952, said electors will vote on the question of the confirmation of the granting of a franchise to Northern Michigan Electric Cooperative, Inc., its successors and assigns, for the purpose of constructing, maintaining and using electric lines on, along and across the public highways, streets, alleys, bridges and other public places, and to transact a local business in the Township of Bear Creek, Emmet County, Michigan. The polls will be open from seven o'clock in the forenoon to eight o'clock in the afternoon of said day.

This Notice is given pursuant to law, by order of the Township Board.

Dated: June 30, 1952.
Frank A. Foster
Township Clerk

TOWNSHIP OF BEAR CREEK EMMET COUNTY, MICHIGAN GRANTED TO Northern Michigan Electric Cooperative, Inc.

June 30, 1952

The Township of Bear Creek Ordains:

Section 1. Permission is hereby granted to Northern Michigan Electric Cooperative, Inc., a Michigan Corporation, its successors and assigns, to construct, maintain and operate in the public streets, highways, alleys and other public places in the Township of Bear Creek, Emmet County, Michigan, all needful and proper poles, towers, mains, wires, pipes, conduits and other apparatus requisite for the transmission and distribution of electricity, and to transact a local business within said Township, subject, however, to all conditions and restrictions hereinafter contained.

Section 2. The conditions of the foregoing grant are as follows:

A.—The grantee shall do no injury to any street, highway, alley or other public place, or to any shade trees, or in any manner disturb or interfere with any water or gas pipes, or with any public or private sewer, now or hereafter laid or constructed by any authorized person or corporation.

B.—The Board of County Road Commissioners of Emmet County, or other proper authority, may in their discretion grant permission for the trimming of trees when necessary to make the lines safe and accessible, such trimming to be done under their supervision.

C.—The said grantee before entering upon any street, highway, alley or other public place for the purpose of erecting and constructing any poles, mains, wires, pipes, conduits or other apparatus, shall in writing notify the Board of County Road Commissioners of Emmet County, or the Superintendent of said Board, or other proper authority, of the proposed construction, and obtain approval thereof, and shall, if the said Board so requires, file with it a sufficient plan and specification showing the nature and extent of the proposed erection and construction.

D.—No street, highway, alley or public place shall be allowed to remain encumbered by the construction work of the said grantee, for a longer period than shall be necessary to execute the said work, and the Board of County Road Commissioners of Emmet County shall determine the question of such necessity, and the grantee shall at all times conform to all ordinances of the Township now or hereafter in force relative to the fencing and lighting of obstructions and excavations.

E.—The grantee shall save the Township harmless from any judgement that may be recovered against the Township by reason of the wrongdoing or negligence of said grantee in the erection and maintenance of said poles, mains, wires and other apparatus or construction.

F.—Said grantee shall make due provision upon forty-eight hours notice in writing by raising its wires or otherwise, for the passage of any barn, building or other structure on or over any street, highway or public place occupied by the mains, wires, poles and apparatus of said grantee.

Section 3. This grant shall take effect, if said grantee shall within thirty days from the date of the passage of this ordinance, file with the Township Clerk its written acceptance of the terms of same, and upon the confirmation of this grant by the affirmative vote of a majority of electors of said Township, voting thereon at the special election to be held on the 5th day of August 1952, as provided for by the Statutes and State Constitution.

If not confirmed by the electors voting at said election, this ordinance shall be null and void.

Section 4. This Franchise and Ordinance shall be in force for thirty (30) years from and after the date of its confirmation by the electors of Bear Creek Township, Emmet County, Michigan.

Section 5. Nothing in this grant shall be construed to alienate the title of the public in and to any street, highway, alley or public place or any portion thereof, neither shall anything herein be construed in any manner as a surrender by the Township of Bear Creek of its legislative power with respect to the subject matter hereof, or with respect to any other matter whatsoever; now as in any manner limiting the right of the said Township of Bear Creek to regulate the use of any street, avenue, highway, alley or public place within its jurisdiction.

Dated this 30th day of June, 1952.

Dies of Heart Attack in Boat

Mrs. Gertrude Black Goodrich, of Cincinnati, O., cottage owner and summer resident of Cincinnati Point on Crooked Lake for the past 50 years, was fatally stricken with a heart attack Saturday.

Mrs. Goodrich had gone out on the lake in a motorboat with three young summer guests. When she was stricken, the girls unable to handle the boat, turned off the motor and one of the girls swam ashore for help. Mrs. Goodrich's brother, Charles Black, who was vacationing at his cottage, went out in another boat.

The body was returned to Cincinnati Sunday. The Black family has been in the wholesale grocery business there for many years. Another brother, Louis Black, survives.

Now! Your only chance this year as an individual...
(with your family; if married) to get Blue Cross - Blue Shield protection against hospital and surgical bills without enrolling through a group!

The chances are now 1 in 3 that you or a member of your family will face hospital bills this year! You don't have to risk your savings! You can get Michigan's most widely-used hospital and surgical protection sponsored by Michigan hospitals and doctors, if you act NOW!

WHERE WOULD the money come from, if an accident or sickness put you, or a member of your family in the hospital?

The time to do something about protection against hospital bills is NOW... while your family has its health. It's too late, after an accident or illness strikes. And strike it will, to put someone from one out of every three Michigan families in the hospital this year.

Over 2½ million in Michigan enjoy Blue Cross - Blue Shield protection! There is a proved and practical way to protect yourself and your family against unexpected hospital bills.

Some years ago, Michigan hospitals and doctors started the famous Blue Cross - Blue Shield Plans. Today these plans provide protection for over 2½ million people in Michigan. They have provided benefits worth over 222 million dollars in the last thirteen years.

FOR LIMITED TIME ONLY... enrollment opened to everyone in Michigan under age 65! Most members joined Blue Cross - Blue Shield through group enrollment. However, to approach its goal of protection for everyone in Michigan, Blue Cross - Blue Shield provides this special non-group enrollment opportunity. Now, anyone under age 65 can enroll themselves and their families without belonging to a group.

Why non-group enrollment is for a limited time only! If non-group enrollment was kept open indefinitely, many people would put off joining until they had to go to the hospital. That would increase the cost of Blue Cross - Blue Shield to everyone. Mass enrollment over a limited time, however, "spreads the risk," keeps cost low. That's why you must inquire before July 12th... during this special campaign. No physical examination, no health statement is necessary. You don't even have to be employed to get Blue Cross - Blue Shield protection now!

The cost of Blue Cross - Blue Shield protection is low for the benefits provided! Blue Cross - Blue Shield rates vary somewhat according to the type of protection you select. For a single person costs go as low as 10 cents a day. Protection for husband and wife can be yours for as little as 27¢ a day. To enroll your whole family costs only a few pennies more.

Send no money!

Just fill out and mail the coupon below. This puts you under no obligation nor will it make you a member.

We will send you literature and an application blank. No one will call on you. Fill in the application form and return it to us—only then will we mail you Blue Cross - Blue Shield certificates and identification cards.

THIS COUPON MUST BE MAILED NO LATER THAN JULY 12th

This could be one of the most important decisions you have ever made in your life! Don't put it off for another minute! Accident and sickness strike suddenly. Protect your family by dropping this coupon in the mail now! Pass the coupon along to a friend, if you already have this protection.

Baseball Race Tied At Halfway Mark

Saffran Goes 21 Hitless Innings

Bill Saffran pitched his second consecutive no-hitter Sunday as Walloon Lake nosed out Petoskey 1-0 in 10 innings to tie the Bruins for first in the southern division of the Northern Baseball League as the halfway mark neared the race for the Review Trophy.

Saffran ran his consecutive hit-less innings to 21 in beating Gordon Hewitt in a real duel fought in 90-degree temperature.

Rodney Ward, who became the father of another boy that day, scored the winning run. He walked, stole second as Mike Corey fanned, then scored on the game winning single provided by Ted Mason who hadn't solved Hewitt's offerings in 4 other trips.

SAFFRAN FANNED 10 and walked one, Hewitt whiffed 5, walked none, scattered 7 singles with Rod Ward and Bob Laurie getting 2, Lyle Campbell, Royce Delaney and Ted Mason one.

Manager Marsh Corey has another tough nut to crack this Sunday when Charlevoix pays a return visit at 2:15. In the first meeting, Walloon won by a single run in 10 innings.

PETOSKEY, likewise, has a real battle to hold first place coming up with a trip across the pond to Harbor Springs Sunday. The Bruins won the first game 3-2. Harbor Springs lost to Charlevoix by one run, so both their defeats have been by single runs. They nosed out Walloon 5-4 on June 22 for Walloon's only league loss in two years.

Mackinaw City failed to show up at Cheboygan to make up a rained out game Sunday and the VFW has filed a protest with league officers demanding a forfeit.

May Need 1st Round Playoff For FOE, Kan's

Kan's beat Home Dairy 3-2 Monday and tied Eagles for the top in the softball race. Four errors and a pair of singles let in 2 in the 2nd, 3 singles in the 3rd let in the winning run. Only extra base blow was a double by Hank Millier of Kan's. Home Dairy scored their 2 on 3 hits in the 1st. Winning pitcher Norm Nason, loser Ed White.

Boyerne City pounded out 10 hits off Mitch Kishigo and beat Barnum Brothers 11-3 as Bob Burns tossed 3-hit ball, all 3 by Stan Pifer. J. Eaton got 3 singles for Boyerne, Korthase a single and double.

Feature of Home Dairy's 5-1 win over Fochtman Motors last Wednesday was a triple play in the 5th inning. With Carl Tousain on 2nd and Bob Hitchmough on first, Ed White bunted and everybody moved. Pitcher Holzschu caught it for Fochtman, whirled to First Baseman Allan Leisner and got Hitchmough, Leisner tossed to Bob Treloar on second and Tousain was out. Home Dairy doubles were rapped by Jack Cunningham, Don Kemp, John Rupp, Carl Tousain, Bob Hitchmough, Allan Leisner homered for Fochtman. Ed White pitched a one-hitter.

Kan's thumped Barnum Brothers 9-0, greatly aided by a grand slam homer by Clyde Gibson in the 3rd to break a scoreless deadlock. Ray Swiss and Kruskie doubled for the losers, Hank Millier for the winners. Norm Nason pitched 2-hit ball. Eagles overpowered Christian 18-1 with Orland Thayer chucking 5-hit ball and Boyerne City murdered St. Francis 16-3 Thursday behind Bob Burns' 4-hitter.

Extra base hits for the Eagles: Harry Blevins and Marv Bradley a home run; Chuck Burkle 2 triples and a single; Dick Powers a double.

John Kujawski doubled for Boyerne City, D. Foster hit a home run and Dave Conklin got a double for the losers. Boyerne had only 7 hits, but 10 walks and a couple errors really hurt.

Eagles beat Andrew Kan's 5-1 in an exhibition game July 4 and Elks won a forfeit from Barnum Brothers, then took an exhibition game 12-7 from Barnum's with pick-up players.

Kan's out-hit Eagles 7-2 but a couple bad errors, the 2 hits, some hit batters and a walk all came in the 3rd and 4th inning. Paul Wagar pitched for Eagles.

Gene Supernaw homered, Harry Compton doubled and tripled and Paul Ross doubled for Elks in the exhibition. Biggs hit a pair of doubles for Barnum. Pitchers were Ellis Bailey and Mitch Kishigo.

Legion 9 Beats Boyerne in 10th
Chum Pennell pitched 3-hit ball and fanned 12 as Petoskey Legion nine beat Boyerne City here 4-3 in the 10th inning Sunday when Ron Gibbs singled Dick Brown home from second. Shorty Smith gave up 11 hits, walked 5, fanned 9. Jess Kauffman had 3 singles for Petoskey, Pennell 2, Gibbs 2, Bachelor a double. Rothenberger doubled for Boyerne.

THE FIRST MOSSBACKS
Mossbacks is a term used for the Petoskey men of today growing in beards for the Centennial—but back in 1876 the Mossbacks were the early homesteaders who hacked their way out of the wilderness, moving mountains of stones and acres and acres of trees.

On April 27, 1885, a freak rain shower dropped "scores of minnows and fish" onto the streets of Cross Village.

2 Newcomers Chasing Donnelly For Softball Top Batting Position

Two new names popped out of nowhere right into the thick of the Petoskey softball loop batting race this week.

The two were "Big Jaw" Kujawski, of Boyerne City, who got 4 hits in 5 official tries to grab second place from Ken Clark of Christian who got 0 of 3 and fell to 9th and C. Taylor, of DeMolay, with 4 of 7 to take Ralph Kalbfleisch's place in third. "Kobby" got none in five and dropped to 12th.

JIMMIE DONNELLY, fire eating Elks catcher, continued to set the batting pace with 2 of 3. He dropped .002 points but still leads with a .545 average.

Rounding out the top 5 hitters are two more repeaters, Ray Swiss of Barnum Brothers who got 1 of 3 to hold 4th and Hank Miller of Kan's who held 5th by hitting safely 3 of 5 tries.

Chuck DePrekel, slugging St. Francis coach is hitting 7th percentage-wise, but his 4 homers, single, double and triple give him 22 total bases for tops in the power rating department.

ELKS HELD TEAM honors in batting with a .309 average for the 3rd straight week. Home Dairy traded places with Kan's for second, Eagles hit safely 28 times in 64 trips and moved from 7th to 4th and Boyerne City bopped out 34 in 92 to climb from 9th to 5th.

AT THE END OF the 4th week, Ed White of Home Dairy had won 4 of 5, Paul Wagar of Eagles boasted a 4-0 mark, Bob Burns of Boyerne City 4-4, Dick Powers of Kan's 3-0, Norm Nasson of Kan's 3-1 and Ellis Bailey of Elks 3-3.

Following are the official batting averages as kept by Fred Lamb from Ralph Crawford's scorebook for the Northern Michigan Review:

Looking 'Em Over
By JIM DOHERTY
MEMBER MICHIGAN OUTDOOR WRITERS ASS'N. OUTDOOR WRITERS ASS'N. OF AMERICA

Shave Day is rapidly becoming a reality. We pounded the drum all last fall to point toward January 1 as the starting day, now we'll pound the drum with equal vim for the day of the great unveiling.

Believe me, fellow Mossbacks, you're in for a horrible shock! Not that you'll find birds' eggs, spider webs, old cigarette butts or some ice from last winter as many have predicted, but you're going to have an awful let-down when you see your denuded face. It's going to be as pale as the snow and when the luxurious growth is gone from your chin you'll think you look like Andy Gump.

WHEN I SHAVED A BEARD off almost 10 years ago after it had gone to seed for about nine months I felt like grabbing the hairs and gluing them back on. The metamorphosis left me feeling like a hairless and naked cocoon and I wanted to spin another to cover the face at once.

After a few days people will recognize you again and perhaps speak but most will privately think that they'd like it better if you'd go back behind the brushpile you've been carrying all winter.

The first few times you pass your reflection in a store window you'll think your mind is playing tricks . . . and oh, yeh — be sure to go easy on the shaving lotion you put on those freshly scraped cheeks. You'll swear you got the turpentine bottle by mistake. The first few weeks of daily shaving again will be rugged. You'll gash and bleed . . .

But the first time a nice cool breeze caresses that exposed skin. MIMMM! And won't the ladies be happy again.

Most of us will stick away photographs of these beards and keep them to show folks for many, many years. This is one part of the Centennial that all of us Mossbacks will receive lasting benefit from — otherwise most of us wouldn't have had the nerve to try a moustache or beard.

There are an awful lot of good beards around so it would be impossible to list them here, but one that has always had me stopped is Johnny Zaremski's. His is so solid from ear to ear, eye to eye, nose to chin that I still haven't figured out how (or what) he has eaten since the first of the year. There just isn't any opening.

POKEY EARLE WITH THE LONG hair and whiskers was parading at Walloon Lake beach in a brief pair of swimming trunks and looked sort of like Nature Boy on July 4. H. K. "Sam" Schnieder should keep his.

So should some others. I wouldn't mind keeping mine until the end of the year if I took off the moustache — it's too, too long now. It bothers my eyes as well as my mouth—but it's all coming off. The photo above this column will be replaced after this issue has gone to press.

GORDON SEERY WENT fishing the other day but got his catch on the highway. He caught a 21 pound snapping turtle, brought it back and after many tries got the head off, and hours later got the turtle out of the shell. They're mighty tasty if you're willing to work a bit to get what's inside, he said.

Maybe I'll have time again to find out what's going on in the great out-of-doors after this issue has hit the streets and after the three-day whing-ding is over and we can try to get back to normal. We've all been working on this issue just about every spare minute for the past six weeks and we've been collecting stories and photos for the past couple years.

MY SIX YEAR OLD NEPHEW Jimmie Leisner found more four-leaf clovers in his front yard on Wachtel-ave. the other day than I have in a lifetime. He discovered 56. And to top it off, he uncovered five clovers with five leaves, three with six and one each with seven and eight.

It all started when his dad, Alfred, recovering from a bout with pneumonia, said he thought he'd go out in the yard and look for a four leaf clover to change his luck. Jimmie went rushing out and soon came back with 'em by the handful. To make sure of his luck, Al tucked one of each kind in his billfold.

Harbor 9 Wins 17-4 on July 4
Harbor Springs murdered* Boyerne Falls 17-4 in a Northern Baseball League game July 4 at Harbor Springs.

The winners poured in 10 runs in the first with 13 men coming to bat and the first 8 scoring. Harbor pounded out 15 hits which included a first inning homer by Joe Kosequat and a double by R. Petoskey. Mel Johnston got 4 singles, Kosequat a single, Mose King a single, Kiojima 2 singles, R. Petoskey a single, Ray Swiss, Fred Petoskey and J. Gasco one each. Howard Carson was Boyerne Falls pitcher, J. Gasco for Harbor. The game was called at the end of 7.

TO REPAIR BAY VIEW RECREATION HALL, CAMPUS CLUB VOTES TO ERECT BUILDING

Construction started this week on a new 20 x 50 foot building for the Bay View Campus Club and repair work has been authorized for Recreation Hall on the waterfront which has been badly damaged by storms in recent years.

Fred Case, manager, said the Campus Club voted to erect the one story building by the present shuffleboard court to serve as a meeting place and a center for club activities on rainy days. Three 4 x 10 picture windows will be placed on the front of the building.

Plan 3rd Week at Bay View Assembly

Dr. Charles F. Kraft, who will deliver a series of lectures on key personalities of the Old Testament at Bay View during the religion and life hour this coming week, will be the Sunday speaker.

At the John M. Hall Auditorium 10:45 a.m. Sunday worship program he will give the sermon, followed by an address at the 6:45 p.m. Bayside service. Special music will be presented at each service.

Mossbacks Parade Saturday; Kangaroo Court In Session

Petoskey Mossbacks will parade up Mitchell-st. Saturday at 2 p.m. from Mitchell Bridge to Pennsylvania Park for judging, the public shaving of the grand champions and some Kangaroo fireworks for the great army of washed and shaved who proved disloyal to the Mossbacks this year.

Whiskers Chairman Dub Worden, exhausted and unesteemed prophet of the bewhiskered elite, appealed today from an air conditioned room in the post office for all Mossbacks to assemble and join the line of march.

The Bay View Association will raise the present floor of the Recreation Hall some 20 inches, fill with rocks, then pour reinforced concrete for a surface. This, the Association felt, would be high enough to keep water out. Minor repairs will be made to the foundation of the building.

Case said members of the Association were greatly concerned about speeding through Bay View. With so many children crossing the streets a grave danger is always present.

"We've warned several persons," Case said. "Now we're all through giving warnings. We're going to crack down from now on."

9 Pound Walleye
Harold Howard of Boyne City caught an eight pound, 14 ounce walleye while fishing at Grand Morais last week. It is not eligible to win the Meyer Hardware prize in the Review contest because it was caught above the Straits.

Electric arc lights for the streets were authorized by the Petoskey Council May 12, 1893.

Dean Harold Tallman and the Chorus will join Assembly Artists at 8 p.m. Sunday for the second vesper service of the season at John M. Hall Auditorium. The program this week also includes a concert at 8 p.m. Friday by the Petoskey High School Band.

Richard L. Carson and Edward Clarke will give a lecture Tuesday entitled "The Sea Around Us".

The second Artists Recital will be presented in the Auditorium next Wednesday at 8 p.m. with Dean Harold Tallman again directing the Choir and Assembly Artists participating. These recitals have been growing in popularity and always attract people for many miles around the area who wish to hear outstanding music taken from the old classics, from modern favorites and include a scattering of hymns and folk songs.

District 10 Host to State Sports Festival

Members of District 10 of the Junior Farm Bureau were hosts for the state sports festival at the Gaylord 4-H camp July 4, 5 and 6. 250 young people represented 18 counties. 171 attended the festival for the entire period.

Emmet county was represented in the winners' group by Herb Bachelor who tied for second place with Delmar Saunders of Otsego county in the square dance calling contest. Emmet county square dancers were attired in Centennial costumes.

Students From Many States at B. View College

Twenty-three persons from Petoskey and surrounding area are among the 93 students taking work this summer at Bay View Summer College of Liberal Arts, according to Dr. Joseph J. Irwin, dean. While the majority of students enrolled are from Michigan, others come from a wide variety of states: Ohio, Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Indiana, Tennessee, New York, and Virginia. One student is from Germany.

Many colleges are represented as the "home" institutions of the students with the largest number, 36, coming from Albion College. The University of Michigan is represented by 10, Central Michigan College of Education by five, Aquinas College by four, Northwestern University and Northern Michigan College of Education by three each. Students presented credentials from 34 different colleges and universities as widely scattered in location as Massachusetts, North Carolina, and Arizona but most of the colleges are mid-western institutions.

Dr. Irwin commented on the large number of persons who had been registered at Bay View before, for, since the institution operates only in the summer and gives no degrees, continuity between sessions is not to be expected. Nevertheless 15 persons have been registered once previously; three, twice before; one, three times before, and one has been registered a total of six times, including the present summer.

Dr. Irwin said the students are classified as follows: seniors, four; juniors, 20; sophomores, 24; freshmen, 18; and unclassified, 7. Twenty of the registrants are graduates who already hold bachelor's degrees.

Petoskey persons who are enrolled are: Mrs. Doris Bailey, Mollie Brenner, Madeline Fetting, Theresa Foster, Jane Hoffman, Mrs. Esther Livingston, Mrs. Violet Moody, Mrs. Marguerite Schroeder, James Scoggin, Sallie Scoggin and Mrs. Mildred Stone.

Chester Fiedler, Robert Lee and Mr. and Mrs. John Richardson are enrolled from Boyne City. Marjorie Ayres and Betty Methner drive in from Charlevoix and Janet Badgero and Phyllis Stone from Onaway. Charles Carey comes in from Cheboygan, Susan Eby from Alanson, William Reason from Indian River, and Gilbert Thurston from Mullett Lake.

200 May Enter Marathon

Some 200 outboard daredevils are expected to participate in the fourth annual Top O'Michigan 87 Mile Marathon, third biggest of its kind in the nation, on August 10.

Harold French, Indian River, omnidore, said today that the race will be different from other years because of a change in American Power Boat Association rules eliminating the handicap system.

"That means that we'll start the big class C and D boats first," French said, "followed by the smaller class A and B boats. We'll have no sweepstakes winners, but prizes in each class which will bring in more entries."

MANY TOP DRIVERS are expected to compete, because of advertising done by local drivers this year and the success of past events. In 1949, 87 boats competed, in 1950 the number was 113 and last year there were 164 entries with 127 starting and 80 finishing. Many were knocked out on sharp turns in Crooked River.

The race will start at 11 a.m. from Topinabee with the route going to Cheboygan, back to Conway with the finish at the big dock at the Topinabee Hotel.

Voting memberships in the Top O'Michigan Marathon Association are being sold at $1 and finances are being raised by a benefit with donations of $1 or more towards a prize awarding of up to $1900 in bonds which will be presented in Petoskey at 8 p.m. August 9.

Lloyd Stanley, of Petoskey, who won the 92 mile marathon at Winnebago, Wisconsin, a week ago Sunday, is expected to be one of the top class A contenders but his pals in the local club have promised to give him some real competition.

Varied Activities Slated For Wounded GI's Visit

Petoskey will flood 21 Korean veterans with warm hospitality when they arrive here Monday, July 14, for a week's vacation conceived as Petoskey's Centennial Birthday Present to a party symbolizing the nation's worthiest sons.

From every side have come offers of gifts for the party, which will include wives of seven who are married.

The week-long program, arranged under auspices of the sponsoring Chamber of Commerce, is as follows:

Reception on arrival, contribution of Petoskey Elks club; Tuesday — all-day fishing party in charge of Emmet County Sportsmen's club with restaurants arranged for their picnic lunch. That night, the veterans will be guests at the Elks Club Tuesday night program.

Wednesday will be an open day with the boys' to be entertained at the Petoskey - Bay View Country club Stag Night while their ladies will be guests of the Southern Hotel, Bay View, for dinner.

Thursday evening, veterans organizations are in charge of the municipal dinner planned to honor the boys and their wives at Par-4 Club.

INLAND CRUISE
 Friday afternoon, the entire party will enjoy a cruise on the Inland Waterway, in charge of the Petoskey Marine Club, winding up with an al fresco dinner being arranged by Petoskey restaurateurs.

Assisting in food arrangements for the two picnic events will be pastries from Kilwin's Bakery and Michigan Bakeries; beverages from Zaiger Beverage Co.; fresh fruits and vegetables from the Craw Co.; frozen dessert from Petoskey Packing Co., milk from Home Dairy.

The Hollywood and Palace theatres are supplying free theatre tickets for the entire party, to provide entertainment in free or rainy days or evenings.

Lashmit Laundry has offered free laundry service throughout their stay.

Eva Harrison's flower shop is providing corsages for wives of the men for the municipal dinner and Saks Fifth Avenue is supplying gifts for the ladies, as well.

The party may bowl — as guests of Barney Adair at the Bowling Center, throughout their stay.
 Free barbering service throughout their stay is promised by the L. and L. Barber shop.

The Beta Sigma organization will take the ladies on a Shore Drive motor trip, — winding up with tea at Old Trail Inn, — probably on Tuesday, while the boys are fishing.

There will be few times, then, throughout the week, when the party does not realize that—in the heart of Petoskey is a fiery tribute to their heroism — a fire that has been lighted by the Centennial, — but which will never be quenched.

John Bellamy, of the Emmet Vets Council, said local veterans would transport the GI's around the area the first three days, and the EVC would sponsor a dinner at Ramona Park Hotel next Thursday at 7 p.m. for the visitors, Chamber and City officials and all veterans. Tickets are available at the Palace Cigar store and Bellamy's office.

Friday at 1:30 p.m. the Council will take them on a trip from Engle's Marine Service at Oden up the Inland Route to Alfred J. Dau's on Burt Lake and to the Pinehurst. A picnic will be held at Merton Carter's on Crooked Lake in the evening. More boats are needed.

Indian Pageant Is Next Week

Ceremonial drums of the Ottawas will sound out through Little Traverse Bay Friday and Saturday, July 18 and 19 when an entire Indian Village will be reproduced in front of the Ottawa Stadium at Harbor Springs for the annual pageant which will be held at 8 p.m. each of the two evenings.

R. G. VanAvery, who directed last year's show, has again been secured and said that this year's show will depict life in a typical Indian camp, presided over by Fred Ettawageshik honorary chief of the Ottawas. Members of the tribe will perform native dances and join with the famous Heoka-Wacipi Society Dancers in presenting dances of most all tribes.

The Detroit Lyric Quartet will furnish Indian songs and music. The pageant will be a running story of Indian life from the return of the hunters to the pathetic departure of the old chief.

Members of the Detroit Lyric Quartet include Florence Wenzel, dramatic soprano; James E. Richards, tenor; Dorothy Stone Richards, contralto and Cyril Wezemael, baritone. Elizabeth Muir is the pianist.

The Indian Pageant at Harbor Springs has grown since 1947 to be the biggest Indian show in the mid-west. Louis J. Gariepy, M.D., is chairman. Dr. Gariepy, author of the book "Saw-Ge-Mah", and well-known authority on Indian lore, is a summer resident of Harbor Springs and resides in Detroit.

Each year certain honorary chieftains are adopted by the Michigan Indian Foundation, Inc., and in recent years some famous men have been included. In 1947 it was Admiral Chester W. Nimitz and Major General Stanley E. Rheinhart; in 1948 Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower; in 1950 Vice Admiral Howard Cassidy and last year Edgar A. Guest.

Thursday, July 17, the annual honorary chiefs dinner ball will be held at 8 p.m. in the Club Manitou.

Friday a parade will be staged from Holy Childhood School to the stadium starting at 6:45 p.m. with bands, Indians in costume and autos. Chief Aloysius Fuhrman is marshal and parade chairman.

The new honorary chiefs will be adopted Friday evening, and on Saturday the honorary princesses (wives of chiefs) will be adopted.

Vesper, Recital Programs Slated

The second vesper concert will be presented at 8 p.m. Sunday and the second Artists Recital will be presented Wednesday July 16, at 8 p.m. in John M. Hall Auditorium, Bay View.

Participating in the vesper will be the Choir with Dean Harold Tallman conducting; The String Quartet; George Thomas, tenor; Vernor and Murch, duopianists; The Vocal Ensemble; Frank Clawson, violist; Edith Bailey, contralto; Lorne Watson pianist; Bertram Rowe, baritone; Hugo Gottesmann, violinist.

Songs on the program include: Onward Christian Soldiers, Praise Ye The Father, Allegro Opus 125, Be Thou Faithful, Sheep and Goat Walkin' To the Pasture, Holiday, L'Agreable, Le Basque, Printemps qui Commence, Rhapsody in E flat major, Eri tu, Hymn of Thanksgiving (arranged for violin alone), The Lord's Prayer, Faith of Our Fathers.

MEALS ARE BRIGHTER, SPIRITS LIGHTER, WITH DRAMATIC COLORED LINEN CLOTHS

The tasteful use of color is important in every room in your house and especially so in the Dining Room. With the stunning two-color cloth we show here, you can be your own Decorator . . . pick out the combination of colors that does the most for your China, your room and your personality and we'll make it to your order in about three weeks. The LINEN we use is very fine and it is vat-dyed so the color will last and last. When ordering . . . the oblong block of linen applied in the center should be of a color contrasting to the background and the napkins are made in the same contrasting linen. There are over 400 possible color combinations . . . here are a few of the most effective ones: deep-green/yellow; brown/mustard; navy/pink; wine/gray; brown/aqua; rose/brown; flamingo/gray; gray/yellow; nasturtium/deep-green.

A sensible way to buy this pattern is in a SUPPER SET . . . this contains a 64x108" cloth to serve from (buffet style); three matching card table covers 45x45" and two dozen 16x16" napkins. This gives you complete service of from 2 to 24 people and yet if sells for only $121.50 complete.

All Prices Quoted Includes 3-Letter Embroidered Monograms Shown.

Starting The 2nd Hundred

Hats off to the Petoskey Centennial committees, the Chamber of Commerce, Retail Merchants, City Council, half a hundred organizations, Mossbacks, citizens and others who have banded together to put on a Centennial celebration and homecoming — and at the same time develop projects which are permanent improvements to the city.

This is a two-fold celebration with projects and activities the year through, plus the big three day affair which opens Friday.
Countless hours of preparation have been expended by many to make the program worthwhile and to make the year one of achievement.

THE REVIEW TAKES GREAT PRIDE in presenting this issue which is filled with authentic historical data and countless photographs recording the development of Petoskey from a backward, horseless clearing to one of northern Michigan's most progressive cities. All this has taken place in a relatively short space of time. There are people living here today who can recall much of the progress because the major portion has occurred since the turn of the century — the 20th which has been the greatest period of advancement of any era in the recorded history of the world.

THE REVIEW BELIEVES THIS edition is one of the best historical documents ever put out on the development of Petoskey. We feel that we owe this issue to the citizens of Petoskey — and its sons and daughters who have moved away, but have retained sentimental memories of their days spent here. We feel that a newspaper should "go all out" to help record and perpetuate for the future the history of its hometown on such a birthday celebration as this.

Therefore, at great expense and many hours of labor on the part of the entire editorial, advertising and mechanical staff, we have combed old newspaper files, historical documents and records, gone through our morgue of old photographs and early Petoskey stories to cooperate with local business firms in giving you this edition at no advance in price.

We are sure that countless numbers of our readers will preserve this edition and perhaps 100 years from now when our great-great grandchildren are celebrating Petoskey's 200th birthday someone will still have a copy on file to use as a record of the first 100 years.

While we're patting ourselves on the backs on the eve of the big celebration, and hoping for good weather, it might be a good time to remind ourselves again that the Centennial year is just a little over half gone, but many of the projects are not yet completed. Let's not rest on the oars with the job half done.

Reviewing The Review
BY KAY GRISSO

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO
The Rev. Fr. Bruno Joseph Torcka, in charge of Indian missions in the region for 19 years and pastor of St. Francis Xavier church from 1909 to 1917, died in Cleveland a few days before his 50th anniversary in the priesthood was to have been observed here.

FIVE YEARS AGO
A skeleton of a man was unearthed by workmen in back of the Michigan Bell Telephone company building.
Upon the death of Z. Cook Beckes it was revealed that over $7,000 had been willed to Petoskey civic, religious and fraternal organizations.

As a resort ship entered Little Traverse Bay approaching Harbor Springs, the ship's musician slashed his throat and ran berserk through the ship. He died a few hours later at Little Traverse Hospital.

ONE YEAR AGO
Actual construction was started on the new $300,000 Lincoln school.

TEN YEARS AGO
Mr. and Mrs. George Mallory of Pellston celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary.

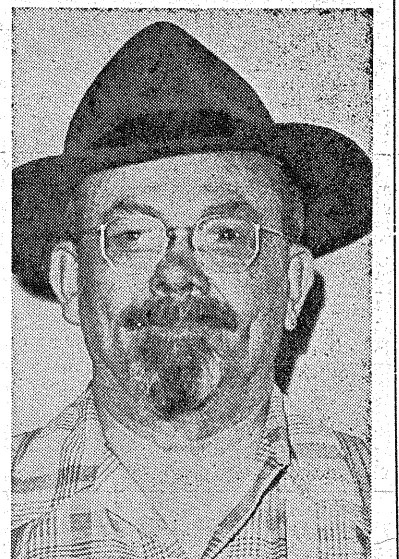

Military funeral rites were held for Barney Cutler, 36, Petoskey's first World War II casualty.

Maj. Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower was placed in command of American troops in the European theatre.

ALAN LADD defies the gun of LIZABETH SCOTT in this fight scene from Paramount's "RED MOUNTAIN," in color by Technicolor.

Do You Remember When —

(By "Bill" Schaller)

In keeping with the Centennial spirit I will change the usual "hash" found in this "Famous Last Words" column for this issue and let's call it "Do You Remember When?"

When well-trained horses rushed our early fire equipment to fires, and we had a West and East Side department?

When the Forman Sawmill and Planing Mill burned? Besides the mills a large amount of lumber, railroad cars and houses were destroyed. It burned for two days and nights and the Charlevoix steam pumper was rushed here by special Pere Marquette train? The mills and yards were located where the high school stadium is now.

When these fires were: The Arlington Hotel — the Imperial Hotel — the McManus Planing Mill — the Alameda building which stood where the Penney Store is now located — the Fochtman Department store and the Cushman House Annex?

When Fire Chief Charles McCarthy used to go to fires on a bicycle?

When there was a bicycle path around the shore line from Petoskey to Harbor Springs?

When Professor Andrews was "it" in the old P.H.S. high school — and that two-foot strap he kept in his desk drawer — how can I forget it?

When the G.R. & I. suburban depot was located in front of what is now the Elks Temple and "Dummy" trains left every five minutes for Bay View; every twenty minutes for Harbor Springs and the lake shore resorts; every hour or so for Walloon Lake and Pon-she-wa-ing and Alanson; and the overhead foot bridge crossed the tracks?

When the White Co. planing and saw mill burned for three days and nights at Boyne City, illuminating the night skies fiery red?

Oh, yes, almost forgot — When the old swimming hole was just a short jaunt up the river from the stadium and the truant officer knew just where to find us?

When there were horse watering troughs located on the corner of Mitchell and Petoskey near the Postoffice; another in front of the Bremmeyr-Bain Hardware Store on Lake street, and another on the west side near the McDermott Blacksmith Shop?

When we adopted the city slogan "There's Only One Petoskey"?

When the old city band used to play concerts nightly and Sundays in the railroad park near the cannon during the resort season?

When the circus elephants refused to cross the old wobbly wooden Mitchell street bridge and were rerouted across the iron bridge near the McManus sawmill, and then on to the fairgrounds?

When they stole the bell from the high school belfry on a Halloween night?

Right now you are almost compelled to say "hello" to all whiskers — no tellin' who is behind that face brush.

When the ferries run every hour and a half from Petoskey to Bay View, Wequetonsing, and Harbor Springs? The Steamers Missouri and Illinois made Sunday excursion trip to Charlevoix and back?

The Pere Marquette dummy made frequent Sunday runs to Charlevoix and Belvedere; and do you remember the mad rush from the Charlevoix depot to the inside swimming pool which was located just across the tracks from Charlevoix depot?

When pioneer Joe Succo (Indian) and his dog were seen daily on the streets of Petoskey?

When the softball games were played in the high school gymnasium winter nights instead of summer, and the teams were sponsored by various local organizations?

When the Kirby dock was located just west of the present breakwater. Some say you can still see the underwater cribbing. Lumber barges and fishing boats tied to this dock.

When the rustic summer house was in the railroad park between Lake and Mitchell streets?

When there was a rest shelter at the top of the Pere Marquette steps from the depot?

When there was a boat livery at the foot of the dock and Sunday's pastime was rowboating and canoeing?

When Mr. Ponfield had a summer store near the dock where he polished and sold Petoskey Stones in various shapes?

When the brewery north of Petoskey was making "Petoskey Sparkle"?

When you could go out on Little Traverse Bay (winter or summer) and catch a mess of lake trout and whitefish most any time? Now the lamprey eel has taken over.

When William Jennings Bryant made a presidential campaign speech from the veranda of the Pere Marquette depot, and "free silver" was his theme?

When the old electric light steam plant was located by the Mitchell street bridge and steps were from the middle of the bridge down to the plant? Well, you should visit our new modern diesel plant located across the road from the Mineral Well park.

When Petoskey had a paid baseball team? Will Seegmiller was president of the club, George Braun was secretary and treasurer. Some of the players went on up to major league, while others went into business. John Hofmann who still resides here played first base. Games were played at the old Arlington Park this side of Bay View. G.R. & I. dummy trains made numerous trips to the park and back, while others either walked, rode a bicycle or rode the two-horse buggy taxi driven by Eli Gray? The park sported a large wooden, screened stadium with dressing rooms below. P.H.S. also played football games there.

When the paper mill was located where the Mitchell hydro dam is now, and bordering Bear River was the Hankey Milling Co. water wheels for plant power; a furniture factory occupied the site before the paper mill; Winsor Butter Bowl factory; Bauerly's Shingle Mill, Grimes Shingle Mill; Merchant's Sawmill, etc?

And last, but not least, although I could go on with this forever — Do you remember when The Northern Michigan Review, "Your Picture Newspaper", first seen the light of day as a Shopping Guide with 9x12 pages and after several months developed into a 5-column tabloid size and followed by this 8-column paid circulation, and now has the most pages per issue and the largest circulation of any newspaper in Northern Michigan. Why not take out a subscription while in town and have The Northern Michigan Review sent to your home wherever you live?

The Answer

Virgil Barmore was born in Iowa in 1870. He came to Petoskey about 32 years ago and is well known to many, having served as a pharmacist with the Fallis, Lake and Nyhart drug stores. More recently he has been employed in other cities but maintains his residence here.

GUESS WHO CONTEST

This picture of the handsome young man in the snappy model was taken about 35 years ago just before he entered the service. Born in Resort township during the "Gay Nineties", he has worked for a local jobbing firm for the past 28 years. He married a local girl and is an inveterate deer hunter.

First Petoskey resident and first person outside Petoskey phoning the correct answer to 2597 after 8:30 a.m. Thursday will receive a free ticket to the Palace theatre. The answer to last week's GW is on the editorial page.

Mrs. Julia Fleming of 614

Elizabeth-st., Petoskey, and Mrs. Mable Meyers of R-3, Charlevoix won the tickets last week. Others right but too late were Mrs. Herbert Fox, Mrs. Robert Wilson, Robert Poquette, Mrs. Fay Madison, Mrs. William Kage, Mrs. Joe Hoffer, Ruth Louise Irish, Ray Lewis, Clyde Lambertson, Mrs. Lynn Dodge, Mrs. Charles Graham, Mrs. James Gibson, Mrs. Frank Radloff, Mrs. George Lepkie, Mrs. Theodore Leshner, Mearl Leach, Mrs. James Scott, Mrs. Casper Beyer, Mrs. Rosalie Stech, Mrs. Frank Smith.

Wrong guesses were Pat Gregg and Norbert Wegemer.

Voice of the People Says C & O Has Unkept Hayfield

Mr. Walter J. Tuohy, Pres., The Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Co.

Terminal Tower Cleveland - 1 - Ohio

Dear Walter:

A situation has come to my attention which I feel sure you will want to know about and correct. For the first time in the history of your railroad's local existence, the grass has been permitted to grow into a hayfield around your Petoskey passenger station.

By public subscription and city funds, Petoskey has greatly improved its dock and waterfront in the immediate vicinity of your station. Thus, your property, in its gross neglected condition presents a shocking appearance.

Summer visitors to this area are now here. The community is celebrating its centennial with extensive and appropriate ceremonies during the coming weekend, and thousands will be attracted to the vicinity of your

Services Set at Harbor

Special evangelistic meetings will be held at the Main-st. church in Harbor Springs starting Sunday, July 13, and continuing through July 27. The services will be held at 7:45 each evening and at 11 a.m. each Sunday.

Evangelist Willard Wyatt of Atlanta, Ga., a graduate of Bob Jones University, will be the speaker. There will be special music each night, according to the Rev. Richard Halter, which will include selections by the Good News quartet and accordionist David Halter.

station. You, or we, can ill afford to have them witness such bad housekeeping, and I urge that you order the condition corrected at once.

With kind personal regards and the hope that you will sometime soon find it possible to visit us and inspect this area of your operations, I remain,

Yours very truly,
Petoskey Portland Cement Co.
John L. A. Galster, President.

Explain Delay In "Walk" Light

Petoskey Council found out Monday why the pedestrian walk light on the corner of Mitchell and Howard hadn't been installed last December as had been anticipated.

The state highway department said it had no record of the Council resolving to pay half of the $175 installation costs. Council had, however, a record of such a resolution.

Another copy is being sent out.

OK Remodeling, Sign Erection

R. A. Wilbur secured permission from the Council Monday to remodel the front of a 29 x 12 foot store building at 323 E. Mitchell-st. owned by Dr. John R. Kelly and formerly leased to R. C. McClintock, M. D. Permission was also granted Donald Paulos of Don's Service, 323 W. Mitchell-st., to erect an illuminated sign. This building was formerly leased to Superior Electric.

McManus Bridge Needs Repairs

McManus Bridge isn't falling down but City Manager Ernest Neumann doesn't like the way rust and deterioration is working.

He reported that the bottom web was rusted and some concrete, arch shaped between the steel beams, is in need of replacing, and the entire bridge needs repainting.

Rust is a quarter inch thick in some places, he said. He discussed with Council the possibility of widening and cutting the Maple-st. corner and filling in on the west end to relieve some of the strain.

The bridge receives considerable use from heavy vehicles. It was last painted seven or eight years ago by L. L. Thomas, city officials said.

Mrs. Cora Palmatier.

Pfeiffer Leader Blimp to Come

The Pfeiffer "Leader Ship" the ship of 10,000 lights, will float over Petoskey and the surrounding area each afternoon and evening July 13, 14 and 15 printing messages in the sky.

There are three necessary steps for this sky writing, according to the Zaiger Beverage Co. First there is a special typewriter to reproduce the messages on perforated tape. This tape is then run through the second operation, a mechanical brain translator, which transmits the message through miles of wiring to the third operation, the sign itself.

This consists of more than 10,000 tiny light bulbs fastened by rubber tape to the side of the blimp.

Headquarters for the blimp will be the Harbor Springs Airport where it may be seen by visitors at Phillips Flying Service.

Actually, the Pfeiffer Leader Ship carries two signs. On the right side of the blimp is the message-carrying running sign, with a bulb pattern that stands 18 feet high and stretches over 100 feet long. On the other side, besides advertising messages, a 7 foot electrical reproduction of "Johnny Fifer" flashes on and off.

GOP Candidates At Cheboygan

The Women's Republican Club of Cheboygan County is sponsoring a meeting at the Cheboygan High School gym, July 14 at 8 p.m. to introduce to the public the candidates for the Republican nomination for Representative in Congress from the 11th Congressional District. This meeting is open to all persons from Cheboygan or surrounding counties. The sponsoring organization is particularly interested in acquainting the public with all candidates for this office.

Set Rest Center

The First Methodist Church parlors will be open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. with Mrs. Lucille Radloff in charge for visitors seeking a place to rest.

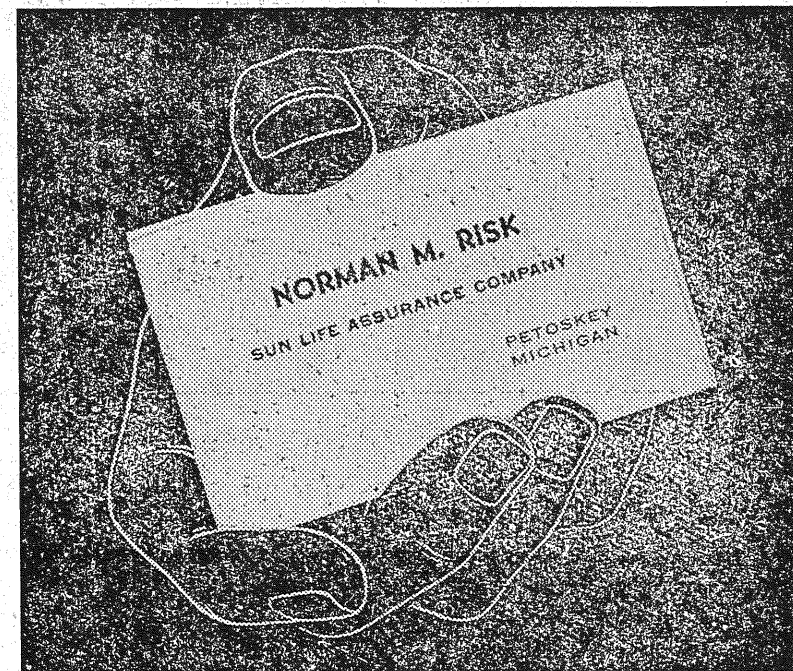

This half-century landmark, the old home of the Petoskey Brewing Company, still stands to welcome pioneers, visitors and local residents.

Mrs. Jordan extends an invitation to visit here, look around, inspect her selection of antiques, old glass and china.
